An alarm from box 36 early last evening was caused by a burning chimney at Weller's hotel, 357 Robert street. No damage resulted.

A grand legion, Select Knights, A. O. U. W., will be instituted on Tuesday, June 16, at 10 a. m., at Grand Army hall, corner Exchange and Third streets, St. Paul.

The ninth annual session of the grand lodge, A. O. U. W., of Minnesota will meet in A. O. U. W. hall, corner Exchange and Third streets, St. Paul, on Tuesday next at 10 o'clock.

The plat commission met yesterday and approved the map of Mackay's Bald Eagle lake garden lots, and Van Slyke's re-arrangement of block 9, Warren & Winslow's addition.

A burning chimney in Fritz Jeaton's dwelling house, No. 934 Point Douglas, Dayton's bluff, gave the fire department a needless run yesterday afternoon. No damage was done.

John W. Willis, Esq., has moved his law office from Third street to rooms 49 and 50 of the National German American Bank building, where he will be glad to see his friends and patrons.

Socialism and Christianity is the subject of an address delivered to be by Mr. C. A. Raven at 10 o'clock this morning at Arion hall, No. 71 West Third street. The Socialistic club, Vorwaerts, will hold a meeting at the same time.

The West Side gymnastic association will give an entertainment at the roller rink next Friday evening. The program will consist of skating, gymnastics and dancing. Refreshments will be served in the gallery during the evening.

Grand Army people in St. Paul received a telegram from Commander-in-Chief Knautz yesterday announcing that he will be in St. Paul on Wednesday. A general open camp-fire will be held to receive him on that evening at Acker Post hall.

Maguhn, the German school teacher who lost his eyesight in an attempt to suicide about two months ago, was taken back to the city hospital yesterday, dangerously afflicted with erysipelas. He has only been out of the hospital about ten days.

Hon. John B. Finch of Lincoln, Neb., under the auspices of the Independent Order of Good Templars, will lecture in Market hall this afternoon at 3:30, on Good Templarism. In the evening at 8, on High License.

Mrs. Magda Irschick, the distinguished German actress, will appear at the Athenaeum to-night in the celebrated play of "Ingomar." The great artist will also appear at the Grand next Wednesday night, on which occasion she will play "A Roman Mother."

A smooth-looking individual, named W. L. Eaton, was observed by Patrick Conley, the proprietor of the Olympic, last evening in the act of exploring another man's pocket. Officer Patrick Gibbons was called in and forthwith escorted Eaton to the police station.

A few days ago health physician Dr. Hoy received a health certificate from the city of the impurity of the water at the Van Buren school. He referred the matter to Prof. Weitbrecht and after a careful analysis the latter pronounces the water to be perfectly healthy.

Capital Legion No. 3, Select Knights, was visited by Metropolitan Legion No. 8 of Minneapolis and St. Paul Legion No. 9, West St. Paul, on Friday evening last, and went away very much pleased with their call. They had a good time.

W. L. Bennington, who for the past year has held a responsible position with Messrs. Merrill & Ryan, has resigned, and left the city on Friday for Orange City, Fla., where he will engage in business. Mr. Bennington has many friends in St. Paul who regret his departure.

Some five or six candidates took the degree of the Legion of Honor at its last regular meeting, Thursday evening. The degree will probably be conferred upon some ten or fifteen new candidates at its next regular meeting, many of the candidates being unable to be present at their last meeting.
