THE TOURNAMENT.

The Second Day's Shooting Prove More Interesting.

An increased interest was manifested in the second day's shoot of the tournament. A large number visited the grounds with carriages, while others went via the motor line. There was some splendid marksman-ship displayed. In nearly every shoot there were so many ties that considerable time was occupied in shooting off-more in fact than in the actual shoots. The fun clusion of these statements, D. C. Bell, began at about 10 o'clock. began at about 10 o'clock. FIRST EVENT.

The third event was an innovation. It had been intended to shoot for the Ligowsky state badge, now held by the Red Wing Gun club, but that club neither sent a team nor the badge to be competed for. Consequently it had to be foregone, and another shoot was arranged in lieu of it. A new metal pigeon was introduced, which was facetiously called tin soup plates by the marksmen. Its proper name is the Ma-comber Metal Flying Target and it is considered more difficult to hit than the Peoria block bird or the usual clay pigeon. This Kennedy 3

THE EXCELSIOR ACADEMY. The Corner Stone Laid -- Wistory of the Project. The corner stone of the new Congregaional academy at Excelsior was successfully laid yesterday morning, with appropriate ceremonies. The attendance from Minneapolis, though large, was reduced by the threatening weather of the early part of the day, but nearly all of Excelsior turned out to participate. The several military and civic societies, headed by the Marine band, met the Minneapolis delegation at the motor station and marched to the site of the academy, where the exercises were

Isaac Cory, secretary, gave an interesting historical sketch of the parent institution, Carieton college, and the causes which led to the establishment of the academy. Is to be a preparatory school for the Congregational college, Carleton, at Northfield. Its erection grew out of a mass meeting at Excelsior in February, 1884, when the articles of incorporation were formulated and a board of trustees elected, as follows: Miner Ball, president, Excelsior; David C. Bell, vice president, Minneapolis; Rev. Isaac L. Cory, secretary, Excelsior; Robert B. McGrath, treasurer, Ex- structed to defend him. celsior; Hon. E. S. Jones, Minneapolis; Prof. Horace Goodhue, Jr., Northfield; Augustus B. Choate, Edward P. Beeman and Theodore Bost, Excelsior. Fifty acres of land and $8,000 in money were donated and the project was complete. The school will be opened in September, if possible, with Prof. E. V. Stevens in charge, classes for that purpose having been maintained at the Excelsior high school.

The new building will be frame, with selected white brick veneer, and will cost $6,000. It will be of a unique modern one recitation room, 28x31 feet, (which will be divided into two smaller rooms), and another, 15x28 feet. Above there will be a chapel, 28x46 feet, with eighteen feet in the city their pipes and appurtenances, if after pipes are laid. ings, which will seat 100 people. Through the building will extend a large hall, with a central stairway leading to the chapel. Leading from this hall will be two vestibules and wardrobes. At the right of the hallway will be a one-story portion, 20x46 feet, which will be divided into laboratory, cabinet and library rooms. There will be two large chimneys with ventilating flues and smoke stack. The main vestibule entrance will be carried up above the main roof into a cupola for a bell. The building will be heated by steam. All rooms wil be finished in clear white pine and will be wainscotted.

FIXING SALABIES.

Matters Considered by the Council Last Night.

President Clark sat in the chair at the adjourned session of the city council last night. An invitation was received from Assistant Adjutant General Norton to the council to attend and participate in the memorial exercises of the Grand Army of was a sweepstakes shoot at seven of the tin targets sprung from the trap, resulting as follows:

THOSE RAILWAY BRIDGES AGAIN. The matter of bridging the railway tracks at the crossings of Washington avenue north and on those on Third, Fourth and Fifth streets, was brought before the council again after several months' profound slumber, through the petition of a large number of property owners. It asked that the city build the approaches and the railway companies be required to lower their tracks and to build the bridges. Referred to the committee on railroads.

filed. The petition stated that the wounded man has a family in indigent circumstances. THE BARBERS. The barbers having petitioned the council for an ordinance prohibiting barber shops from being operated on Sunday, a protest largely signed was read. Col. John T. West of the West headed the list. Referred to the committee on ordinances. Chief Stetson recommended that section 34 of an ordinance regulating the fire de partment be so amended as to read "city telegraph" instead of "fire alarm telegraph and also to insert the word "police." also recommended that the second assistant engineer be furnished with a horse and buggy, and that 400 poles for the alarm system be purchased. The committee on salaries reported the following recommendations: That the salary of assistant meat inspector be $1,000, assistant inspector of buildings $1,200, health inspectors $60 per month; that the salary of street commissioners remain as at present, and that there be paid Ed A. Stevens the sum of $400 for services rendered during the year just closed.

Ald. Norenbergh raised the issue that the city had no right to increase or rather to pay back salary, and Ald. Johnson, to avoid a discussion, moved that that portion of the recommendation relating to Ed. tion of the recommendation relating to Ed. A. Stevens be referred to the committee on salaries and the city attorney. The motion prevailed and the report as amended was

THE WESTERN AVENUE TROUBLE. The committee on roads and bridges recommended that the matter of the Western avenue street railway troubles be referred to the city attorney for a legal opinion as to whether the council, after once granting the right to lay tracks on certain streets, can subsequently revoke such right, or, if it lies within the province of the council, to order the street railway company to remove their tracks from any street, etc. Adopted.

A POLICE COMMISSION. The committee on police reported a recommendation that in all cases where a police officer in the discharge of his duties so acts as to render himself liable to adverse criticism, or prosecution, the chief of police be requested to report the same to a commission consisting of the committee on po-lice and the mayor for investigation, and if, in their judgment, the officer reported shall have acted properly and in obedience to the regulations for the government of the po-lice force, that the city attorney be in-

INGLEWOOD SPRINGS. The issue having been raised that the original ordinance giving Col. J. T. West, Thomas Lowry and others the right to lay mains to conduct water to the West hotel and other points from Iglewood springs, was was too sweeping, not specific enough in some respects, and that it would naturally have a tendency to conflict with the water works ordinance, the committee on ordi-nances last night submitted another ordinance giving the desired rights, which was given its first reading. The new ordinance binds the projectors of the scheme to sell to

An ordinance to establish a central city narket in pursuance of the plan and propo sition previously submitted by Harlow A. Gale was read. A warrant in favor of Fred Weisky for damages in the matter of opening Van Buren street, for $50, was ordered drawn.

THE MIXED MOTOR MATTER. Statements by Interested Parties-An Old Case.

Beyond the statement from Gen. W. S. Washburn of his connection with it, there was little of interest developed yesterday in the matter of the petition for a receiver for the Minneapolis, Lyndale & Minnetonka railroad, better known as the motor line. From the fact that some of the interest coupons of the bonds of the road were not paid, the Farmers' Loan and Trust company of New York representing the holders of a majority of the bonds, viz., $170,000, represented to the federal court at St. Paul, that it believed the Motor company insolvent and asked that a receiver be appointed. The petition sets forth that in April, 1881. the railroad company turned over to the loan and trust company, under a trust deed, all its property and franchises to secure its first mortgage bonds, which aggregated $170,000, at 6 per cent., running thirty years, interest payable semi-annually. The petition further avers that the mortgage deed further contained a provision that, in case of default for six months in the payment of interest, the principal of the bonds may be considered due. Two coupons must in the meantime, however, ing all slaughter houses and stock yards from being located in the city limits was terest was made on Oct. 1 last, and again on April 1; whereupon the petition is now filed. It is now developed that Gen. Washburn is the owner of a majority of the bonds, and the suit on behalf of the Farmers' Loan and Trust company is in reality his. Statements from the parties interested are as follows:

THE ROAD'S ATTORNEY. Capt. J. N. Cross, said yesterday the bonded debt of the company is $270,000 and the floating debt $150,000. "The company has a splendid property and a little time is all that is needed to work out of the indebtedness. It is now just entering upon one of the best earning seasons that has been in the history of the road. The earnings this year will be from $75,000 to $80,-000, of which not over $40,000 will be required for running expenses. Allowing for all contingencies there ought to be at least a net income of $30,000. Out of this only about $16,000 will be required to meet the interest on the bonds. Col. McCrory has already secured most of the floating debt by mortgages on his own property. From this time on it will not cost nearly as much to keep the road in good condition as before, and there is no reason why the com-pany should not take care of the interest, or both the bonded and floating debts. Besides this we expected to put in a cable line, similar to the one in Chicago, from the union depot to a point over the hill on Nicollet avenue, and to extend the line to Fort Snelling. So far as the receiver's suit is concerned, I know nothing, for there have been no papers served on me yet. I understand that those making application for a receiver want C. F. Hatch appointed. The first move that I will be required to make will be to appear to answer to an order to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed. After this I have one month to file an answer. You may say that the effort to secure the appointment of a receiver will be resisted with all possible diligence, and the interests of the floating debt will be carefully looked after."

WHAT GEN. WASHBURN SAYS.
In talking of the matter yesterday Gen.
Washburn said that while he for some time had been contemplating the securing of a controlling interest in the road, it was only recently, after negotiation with the New York owners of the bonds, he had agreed James W. Lawrence and others asked that an underground crossing be constructed that an underground crossing be constructed under the tracks of the railway at Fourteenth and Fifteenth avenues southeast.

The city attorney recommended that a warrant for $15.60 be drawn in favor of E.F. Webster on account of erroneous assessment.

The matter of renting a steam engine was York owners of the bonds, he had agreed to purchase. "There will probably," he said, "be other Minneapolis capitalists as sociated with me. But before I had taken any step towards purchasing the bonds I learned that proceedings for foreclosure had already been instituted by the Farmers' Loan and Trust company to recover one year's interest, amounting to about $16,000.

nurchased the bonds these proce purchased the bonds these proceedings virtually became mine, although I did not institute the same. I told Col. McCrory yesterday that so far as I was concerned no one's interest should be wronged under the new order of things, and if the parties holding the floating debts desired associated themselves. if the parties holding the floating debts desired to come in and associate themselves in a reorganization of the company they are at liberty to do so. In fact I propose to invite every one to take this step. I would certainly be more friendly to the road than those who previously held the bonds, since they had no other interest than collecting their coupons. If the road should go into the hands of a receiver it could not go into the hands of a receiver it could not be sold until six months had elapsed, when a new company could be organized and effect its purchase."

The hearing of the petition for a receiver will occur at St. Paul on Saturday.

DISTINGUISHED PARTY

Of Visiting Railroad Men -- Plans of the Minneapolis & St. Louis. A distinguished party of Rock Island of-A distinguished party of Rock Island officials arrived yesterday afternoon on a special train over the Minneapolis & St. Louis road, and stopped at the West hotel for supper, leaving at 9 o'clock for Winnipeg. The party consisted of President R. R. Cable of the Rock Island and Minneapolis & St. Louis roads. David Dows, the great New York banker and principal stockholder of the road, accompanied by stockholder of the road, accompanied by his wife; Hon. R. P. Flower, upon whom the New York Democrats came so near uniting as a presidential candidate, accom-panied by his wife and Miss Emma Flower; Benjamin Brewster and son, H. R. Potter and wife; Mr. and Mrs. H. Field, Hugh Riddle, the Misses Isham and H. S. Cable of Chicago. President Cable maintained that no signifi-cance was to be attached to the visit other than that of pleasure and recreation. Minneapolis, with its magnificent hotel, had formed a convenient stopping place for a few hours' rest, and the party had gladly embraced the opportunity. After a brief stop at Winnipeg the intention is to visit Bismarck, returning so as to reach Minneapolis about Saturday. When asked concerning the report that ne-gotiations were pending with the Manitoba for a continuation of the union depot con-tract until the completion of the Northern Pacific short line, he replied that there had been considerable talk of such an arrangement, but the matter has finally been abandoned. May 31 the Minneapolis & St. Louis will commence running trains from its own depot on Third street north, and for the time being will abandon the passenger business between St. Paul and Minneapolis. The freight business, however, will be continued through the

Hon. Roswell P. Flower, the well-known New York banker and politician, who was one of the party of Rock Island officials which passed through the city last evening, was asked concerning the administration of President Cleveland, and replied with unmistakable sincerity: "It is very satisfactory. President Cleveland is a sagacious man and an honest man. He is going to give the the country a splendid adminisgive the the country a spiritual adminis-tration. He has the right idea, that of governing as little as possible, and you will find the government machinery will be run with fewer officeholders and at less expense than ever before. He is a man of good judgment, and his appointments thus ar I regard as very fortunate."

Being asked what he thought of Min-neapolis, Mr. Flower said: "Your people don't begin to appreciate the grand possibilities of the future. Minneapolis is bound to be the supplying point for all this great country, within a radius of 600 miles north and west of here, only about three-eights of which is at present under cultivation. When this country is peopled, Minneapolis will have 500,000 people, and years."

CURRENT COMMENT.

Dr. Lee, the official inspector of meats, states that scarcely a day passes that he does not find articles of food offered for sale which are for some reason unfit to eat, and which are consequently condemned. Said he: "I am gratified, however, to note the marked improvement both in the condition of meat markets and in the quality of the meats offered for sale. The butchers seem disposed to do their utmost to comply with disposed to do their utmost to comply with the requirements of the city ordinance, and in a few months, I anticipate, there will scarcely be found a pound of bad meats for sale. The butchers exercise every precaution in purchasing cattle and every precaution ... caring for their stock.

A Spencer carbine shot gun was used at the tournament yesterday. It is quite a nov-elty and attracted the attention of all the marksmen. The gun loads similarly to an ordinary carbine and repeats as fast as the trigger can be pulled. It did effective work in nearly all the events yesterday.

The city attorney was asked by the city council for a legal opinion as to whether the law making dogs subject to listing and assessment under the tax law, or in other words making them personal property, was constitutional. The object was to get his opinion as to whether or not the ordinance creating a dog catcher and empower-ing him to kill all unlicensed dogs if not redeemed in the time specified, would stand the test. The city attorney makes the following response: "In my following response: 'In my laws relating to dogs by the legislature does not passed repeal, modify or in any way abridge the power of the council to exercise the power lesignated in the city charter." That is, that the dog-catcher's career may continue uninterrupted by the new act. This is an important question, and there are those who take issues with the opinion quoted.

"Oh, yes, there is a vast difference in the quality and value of cedar for paving pur-poses," said a contractor to a GLOBE reporter. "You will notice that the cedar block pavement laid on Washington avenue three years ago is still in excellent condition, while the blocks laid at the suspen-sion bridge are nearly worn out and musbe replaced this season. I attribute the difference mainly to the quality of the cedar, yet owing to the narrowness of the bridge, the traffic on the same space or street surface must be more there than on Washington avenue."

"It was a great surprise to me," remarked a resident out on the motor line yesterday, "to learn of the application made to have a receiver appointed for the motor, company. I had supposed, judging from the apparently large passenger traffic of the road, that it must be in a prosperous condition and mak-

'There is no doubt that the road is make ing money," rejoined a well-informed citizen. "The trouble in this case is a lack of zen. "The trouble in this case is a lack of capital. The road has made an extension at Minnetonka, and one to Minnehaha Falls, to better accommodate its patrons, at great cost, and better was obliged to secure large loans for the purpose. I don't apprehend that the diffi-culty will block the business of the company. The motor line is now good property, and there are plenty of capitalists who will jump at the opportunity it presents for a profitable speculation."

The new ordinance, placed on its first reading last night, granting John T. West, Thomas Lowry and others the right to lay pipes to conduct water from the Inglewood springs to the West hotel, and the right to tap the pipes for customers along the line, is supposed to be dispossessed of any objectionable clauses, and it is highly probable that it will be passed at the next meeting of the council.

The plaintiff was injured in 1883 by the falling of a barrel of putty at the defendant's sash factory and seeks to recover $5,000 damages. John F. Fargo of Peoria, Ill., and Flora A. Minneapolis Brick Company to collect a bill of $300 for services in attending an employe is still on trial before Judge Lochren. HE DIDN'T GET IT. The divorce suit of Chester M. Bingham vs. Alice M. Bingham was heard by Judge Koon yesterday. The plaintiff claims that the defendant struck him and threatened to kill him. That she has also circulated stories derogatory to his charac-ter, one being that he had sent her to the asylum for the insane at St. Peter to get rid of her; another, that he was already married when he married her; that he had compelled her to steal a book from her mother, etc. The evidence was very contradictory and the judge dismissed the case PROVING A TRANSCRIPT.

Judge Young yesterday filed an interest-ing decision in the suit of Alexander vs. John D. The judge holds that the transcript of the judgment was not properly authenticated. The document bore the great seal of state, and was signed by the judge and clerk of court, and also by the American consul. Judge Young, however, refuses to accept the exemplification of the record as evidence on the ground that it should be proven that the seal affixed and the person certifying is the clerk, and the certificate of the judge in the absence of a statute cannot be received as evidence, nor is the matter helped by the certificate of the counsel. This court does not take official note of the seals of foreign courts or of the judge thereof.
