H. W. Stone of Hudson is coming to St. Paul for the purpose of rowing the winner in the race between Dr. Schiffman and Mr. Harrington at Minnetonka. He says he is ready to row a race of two, three or five miles, and he is indifferent which. Mr. Stone is well known in this vicinity. He won the senior single in both the Mississippi Valley and the Northwestern Amateur Rowing associations. He proposes to come to St. Paul to live about June 20. Nicholas Baxter was lodged in the county jail yesterday afternoon to await the train for Duluth. Baxter left the latter place a week or more ago and upon arrival in Chicago was found to be violently insane, presumably from religious excitement. Upon examination by the court he was ordered returned to Duluth, his friends being unable to make the trip after him, and yes-terday he arrived on his journey in charge of Deputy Sheriff Ginter of Cook county.

Claus Olandt, Jr., German secretary of the international committee of the Young Men's Christian association, New York, is visiting the association here, and will speak to young men Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the new Y.
