penitentiary, making the number thirty-five instead of fifty. This has been done not to reduce the number at Sioux Falls and so impair the contracts for labor. Sheriff McKenzie, accompanied by Sheriff Haggart of Cass and Sheriff Mealy of Moody county, will be at Sioux Falls Thursday and bring the prisoners here. It is expected the thirty-five, accompanied by their guards, will just fill a passenger coach and will probably come by way of Aberdeen, Ortonville and the Fargo Southern.

Omitted One Law. Special to the Globe. BISMARCK, Dak., July 20.—It developed today, on a resolution of the secretary of the session laws for 1885, that the act for the suppression of noxious weeds, passed and approved last winter, is omitted from the books. The law calls for the county commissioners to advertise regarding the pulling of these weeds before the 27th inst. The law has been delayed so long that few counties are aware of the law and now only one of such a law. The omitted law will be sent out to-morrow as a supplement.

Southern Crops. Special to the Globe. OWATONA, Minn., July 20.—The wheat crops throughout this section are doing well. In many places grain stands very light. About 60 per cent. of the crop of last season is expected should there be no late frosts. A considerable harm has already been done by heavy rains, and which are frequent. Harvest will begin in about two weeks. Corn is booming and a good yield is looked for. Oats promise a good yield.

Penitent for His Crime. Special to the Globe. REDWOOD FALLS, Minn., July 20.—Israel T. Alexander, who murdered Charles Mowers yesterday, waived examination before Justice Chapman today and was committed to the Brown county jail. The murderer of Mowers took place today. The murderer, very nervous and claims he did not intend to kill Mowers, but that Pettit was the man he was after.

Dakota's Returns. Special to the Globe. BISMARCK, Dak., July 20.—The census bureau has taken possession of the territorial secretary's office in the capitol building, and some fifteen clerks are at work copying the returns from North Dakota. The South Dakota returns are not yet here, but the governor expects to receive the latter part of the week or the first of next.

Storm at Eau Claire. Eau Claire, Wis., June 20.—During the heavy storm yesterday afternoon Dr. Farr's residence was struck by lightning damage slight. The hired girl was struck. Henry Weinstock's residence in the town of Washington was struck and badly damaged. Several members of the family were injured, his wife, it is feared, fatally. Crops are slightly damaged.

Crops Damaged. BRAINERD, Minn., July 20.—A storm of great violence, apparently extending far southward, passed here this morning. With the other extraordinary rains recently, it is feared that the crops are damaged beyond help.

Death of a Noted Man. MILWAUKEE, July 20.—Prof. C. D. Richards, LL. D., dean of the preparatory department of the Howard university, Washington, D. C., died at Madison, Wis., last night, at an advanced age. He was the author of several classical treatises, and fitted more young men for college than any other man who has lived in this country.

Instructed the Judge. Special to the Globe. BISMARCK, Dak., July 20.—Judge Francis, when at Mandan recently to hold a term of court, notified the commissioners to carpet the court room. The commissioners, in board assembled, are reported to have unanimously resolved that Judge Francis and his court could go to hades. The judge went to Valley City and got his carpet.

Back to Jail. Special to the Globe. BISMARCK, Dak., July 20.—Charles Gilbert, the alleged murderer of Gus Long, who was recently brought from Manitoba on extradition papers, had a preliminary examination today in Emmons county, and was remanded back to jail at Bismarck, without bail, to await the action of the grand jury.

Killed Her Betrayer. BEDFORD, Ia., July 20.—This afternoon Ida Kimball, a beautiful child aged 15, daughter of a leading business man, shot and killed W. T. Giles, a prominent music dealer. She claims Giles betrayed her.

Clay County's Population. Special to the Globe. MOORHEAD, Minn., July 20.—The population of Clay county, just completed, is 10,496. It was 5,887 by the census of 1880.

Doing the Country. Special to the Globe. BISMARCK, Dak., July 20.—Secretary Teller leaves to-morrow for a trip through Southern Dakota.

MINNESOTA. Shakopee. Tramps are pretty numerous at present and much trouble is being caused by them. The county commissioners in this board of equalization. Charles Bryson and Mrs. Gruber, both of Jordan, were adjudged insane by the probate court and taken to St. Peter. The tax levy for the year is $1.70 per acre, less than last year. A sneak thief entered the St. Paul house and captured $5 in cash. The following teachers have been engaged for the Union school for the ensuing year: Principal, H. O. O'Neill of Belle Plaine; grammar school, Mrs. Adair Gray of Prescott, Wis.; primary, Miss Amy Yost of this city. School meetings were held Saturday evening. In No. 41 Peter Yost was elected director and M. Mayer clerk. A levy of two mills was voted, also nine months school. In the Union district the meeting was a full-bled circus. The meeting opened with the election of William Wilson as moderator, nine months school was voted, and everything passed off nicely until the election of officers was reached, then the circus began. A large number of people were present, there being as many votes cast as at the last city election. The female suffragists were in full force and were under the able leadership of Miss Hammond. Three candidates were nominated for director, Dr. McLean of the company. Wednesday forenoon the visitors will be tendered an excursion to Minneapolis and St. Paul.

A Military Row. Special to the Globe. BISMARCK, Dak., July 20.—There is considerable excitement here regarding the action of twenty-five out of the thirty-five members of the Governor's guard sending Capt. Fort a written request to resign the captaincy on account of his incompetency. This is the first military company organized in Dakota, and under Capt. Bennett became astonishingly proficient. Bennett sent a pleasant message to Wednesday forenoon the visitors will be tendered an excursion to Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Killed by Lightning. Special to the Globe. STARBUCK, Minn., July 20.—The storm at this place yesterday was the hardest experienced this season, though the wind was light. The residence of J. E. Johnson was struck by lightning, killing Mrs. Johnson. Other members of the family were quite severely shocked, but otherwise uninjured. C. Borg's residence was also struck and damaged slightly, but the inmates were uninjured. With these exceptions the storm was a welcome one, as far as heard from, though considerable unstacked hay is damaged.

Removal of Prisoners. Special to the Globe. BISMARCK, Dak., July 20.—The governor has modified the order removing prisoners from Sioux Falls to the Bismarck pany I, Second regiment, M. N. G. ... As the jailkeeper was taking breakfast on the cell for the prisoners Saturday morning Louis Miller, the man held on the charge of attempting to rob a man during the G. A. R. reunion at Sioux Falls, was taken to the cell, but was stopped before he had gone two blocks and taken back to jail by Lewis, policeman Charles Young. H. J. Lewis, train dispatcher of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern road, is visiting here, on the Omaha depot and outwards. A team of ball will be played at Jordan on Wednesday between the Ottawa and Jordan clubs for $100 a side. Quite a number from this city will go down to witness the game. Early Sunday morning burglars broke into the Omaha depot and carried away a large number of tickets. The annual school meeting in this city last Saturday was well attended. The principal business of interest was the election of two directors, Messrs. Thomas Montgomery and C. P. Stark were elected without opposition.
