

THE GLOBE WANTS ROOMS.

The bankers can draw like wolves on the fold. And their crispbacks were bulging with silver and gold. A speculation they sniffed in the air. The want columns giving pointers for their welfare.

FREE TO ALL.

The People's paper, The Daily Globe, will insert advertisements under the heads of Help Wanted, Rooms Wanted, Lost and Found, For Sale, For Hire, Boarding, not exceeding three lines. Free, to rich and poor alike, but only one advertisement on the same day from one individual. If answers fail to come the first time, we invite as many repetitions as necessary to secure what you advertise for. We wish the advertisers to feel that they are not invited to use the columns freely in supplying their wants. Business advertisements, under these heads, will be charged one-half cent a word for each insertion. The patrons of the Globe outside the city are invited to use our columns, as we desire all to partake of its benefits.
