PUBLISHED EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR. LEWIS BAKER.

TERMS.
PER YEAR, BY MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID	:
DAILY, six days in the week	$8	00
DAILY, per month		7;
DAILY and SUNDAY, one year	10	0
DAILY and SUNDAY, per calender month		91
SUNDAY, one year	-	0
WEEKLY, one year	1	0

Correspondence containing important news colicited from every point. Rejected communica-tions cannot be preserved.

Address all letters and telegrams to THE GLOBE, ST. PAUL, MINN.

ST. PAUL, SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, 1885.

THE WASHINGTON OFFICE OF THE GLOBE
IS AT THE NORTHEAST CORNER OF PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE AND FOURTEENTH STREET.

discovers that a reapportionment on the basis of the new census will take a representative from his column and put one in the THE CHICAGO OFFICE OF THE GLOBE IS AT NO. 11 TIMES BUILDING.

THE MINNEAPOLIS OFFICE OF THE GLOBE 18 AT NO. 257 FIRST AVENUE SOUTH. THE STILLWATER OFFICE OF THE GLOBE IS AT 215% SOUTH MAIN STREET.

DAILY WEATHER BULLETIN.

OFFICE OF CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, WASH-INGTON, D. C., Aug. 14, 10 p. m.—Observations date's chances for success, or this or that taken at the same moment of time at all stafaction's prospects for domination. When

Stations.	Ther.	W'th'r	Stations.	Pher.	W'th'
St. Paul. La Crosse. Bismarck. Ft. Garry. Minnedosa. Moorhead. Qu'Appelle. St. Vincent. Ft. Assin'bn. Ft. Buford. Ft. Custer. Helena. Huron Med. Hat. Duluth. Albany.	61  63 82 72 81 83 67	Clear Fair Clear Clear Lt. r'n Clear Fair Clear Clear	NewOrleans Shreveport. Cincinñati Memphis Nashville Cleveland Des Moines. St. Louis Chicago Montreal Quebec New York	75 82 63 72 70 59 64 69 66  72 70	Clear Fair Clear Clear Clear Clear Clear Clear Clear Clear Cloudy Clear

Barometer, 30.007; thermometer, 62.1; relative humidity, 78; wind, south; weather clear; amount of rainfall, 0.00; maximum thermometer, 75.7; minimum thermometer, 52.2; daily range, 23.5. River—Observed height, 3.5; fall in 24 hours, 1. Note—Barometer corrected for temperature and elevation.

P. F. Lyons, Signal Corps, U. S. A.

INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, Aug. 15, 1 a. m.—For the up-per lake region, fair weather, followed in the Western portion by local rains, a slight rise in temperature, variable winds. For the upper Mississippi valley, fair weather, followed by local rains, variable winds, shifting to southerly, higher temperature. For the ing variable, a slight rise in tempera-

THE PRICES.

The stock market yesterday presented no specially new feature. It was active and dull by turns, and the aggregate sales were less came stronger and so continued throughout the afternoon, and closed within a small fraction of the best prices of the day. The Vanderbilts and Northern Pacific preferred were up 1/8. Wheat was dull and lower.

NUB OF THE NEWS.

The first tea train from Tacoma arrived. The Rock Island will not build into Bur-

Arthur and Hayes never speak as they

Miss Cleveland's book is not going off like

Dr. Loring, the ex-commissioner, must pay up or shut up.

Massacausetts Prohibitionists will nominate

Attorney General Hahn gave five decisions on legal points.

The governor of Missouri thinks civil ser-de Morrison talks on various topic of public interest.

Surveyors are at work on the Winona, The Illinois Central claims it is not cutting

The queen prorogued parliament, and it adjourned till Oct. 31.

A sensational wife murder and suicide are reported at Aurora, Ill.

The Minneapolis Motor company is controlled by a new company.

Decreasing estimates of the Northwestern Funds for the Grant monument in New York are coming in slowly.

The James River Valley road will be built count of the cattlemen's lease Two barks were wrecked in the Alaskan

Seventy families from Pennsylvania are

Judge Stearns of Duluth has been ap-

An Iowa farmer furnished two tramps with a square meal and $10 each at the point of a Considerable dissatisfaction exists because the Wisconsin Central is charging too low

There are rumors that Vanderbilt and Wright will secure control of the Northern

The navy dudes will probably receive a similar order to the one issued to the army to England which will prove satisfactory and acceptable.

Charles Cramer of Wahpeton, Dak., was seld up by a thug, but laid the villain out

It is rumored that a band of twenty Piegan were killed by cowboys in the Bull Mountain were killed by cowboys in the Bull Mountai country, but the report lacks confirmation.

Two sections of Forepaugh's circus train ollided near Eddyville, Ia., and eight employes were seriously injured. The cars were badly wrecked.

Miss Adrianna Brinckle, a beautiful society belle of Philadelphia, was placed in an asylum twenty-seven years ago by her father because she was extravagant. He died soon after. she was forgotten and has just been re a gray-headed woman of 60

THE EXTRA-SESSION SQUABBLE. A good deal of premature discussion has been indulged in by the state press in relation to an extra session of the legislature. of the state, and that a legislative reapportionment should be made upon the basis of another section is opposed to it, the inference is drawn that the proportional increase of population is expected to be greater in evidence whether the necessity for brokers, when Mr. Field reached London a reapportionment is so urgent as to he found the alleged negotiation to have state which would follow. If the census tiation between his company and the Westreturns show a glaring inequality in the ern Union, and pronounces the whole series matter of apportionment, and demonstrate of reports to that effect "fabrications perthat justice is being withheld from any sec- sistently and fraudulently persevered in for it would unmistakably be the duty of the Daily # Globe. legislature to correct the inequality and to do justice to all sections of the state.

So far as the agitation has yet proceeded, the only important development that has been made is that somebody is going to be a candidate for the United States senate and that the extra-session fight is mainly a skirmish preliminary to the senatorial contest. The senatorial candidates are only getting into position and arranging their lines for the battle which is to come. They and their friends favor or oppose a reapportionment according to their estimates of the effect it will have upon the candidate's chances for election. If Candidate A sees that the increase of population is sufficient to give an additional delegate or two from the section in which his strength lies, he and his friends are going to raise a cry for an extra session and will boom it to the bitter end. If Candidate B discovers that a reapportionment on the sentative from his column and put one in the other candidate's ranks, it can be relied on that he and his friends are going to be pense of an extra session of the legislature. Up to this time the whole matter is really a factional fight in the Republican Therefore the GLOBE party. does propose to view it with relation to its effect on this or that candithe census figures are all in and there is something upon which to base a correct opinion the GLOBE will discuss the matter solely with reference to the equities of the proposition. If any section of the state is being deprived of its just representation, without regard to whether the voters of that section are Democrats or Republicans, the GLOBE will advocate that justice be done. So far as the squabble among the Republican leaders is concerned the Globe is not disposed to take a hand, but will

their true interests lie and will elect a Democrat to the United States senate

MODERN AMAZONS. of great excitement over a contest regard- The Chemical bank took $20,000 the Central ing the boundary wall between two residences, which has developed into a full- Market $10,000. Other banks took smaller grown war. One house belongs to a gen- amounts, making an aggregate of 110,000 put up a porch to his house, and according amount of $5,000 was redeemed in silver boundaries it was put on his land. A local a rule to redeem mutilated currency only Missouri valley, local rains, southerly winds, report of the trouble which has grown out with standard dollars. of it says that whenever Mr. ORWIG goes porch, which ORWIG invariably replaces den demand for the hitherto unpopular when he returns home. Last Tuesday the standard dollar is said to be the scarcity of head of the ORWIG family was called away than the day before. During the early hours to Philadelphia on business. Soon after it was feverish and irregular. Later on it be- his departure Harrison appeared on the inations the banks have had difficulty in ground with three or four work- meeting the requests of their customers for two feet of ORWIG's porch. Mrs. ORWIG in constant circulation, wear out rapidly, and some lady visitors were the only de- and the supply is therefore steadily diminfenders of the house, but as the sequel shows | ishing." they were enough. The dispatch which relates the occurrence says that two nieces of Mr. ORWIG, who chanced to be visiting ing their enemies lay down their "arms" place gathered around the girls and cheered them on. If there was any one in the party it was not demonstrated during the people in the coming election. contest.

JAY GOULD'S reputation of being a sly

that Mr. Gould never lost an opportunity to bleed the suckers who attempted to dabble in Wall street stocks. But it turns out that Mr. Gould's ambition does not stop with fleecing the succulent stock jobbers; fully illustrated in this instance. She he has recently been trying his hand on some of his old pals, and with his usual success. There has grown up in Wall street, along with Mr. Gould, a bevy of brokers and speculators who, up to this time, have been able to hold their own so than a puppet in the hands of her ministry well that it was supposed that even the and the parliament. Considering the genius of Gould would never undertake to get the upper hand of them in a deal. Among the speculating diplomats none stood higher than RUSSELL SAGE and CYRUS W. FIELD. Many a tight game has been played between these two gentlemen and Mr. Gould, which always resulted in a draw. Gould, however, has at last succeeded in throwing out a bait which seems to have caught the and weight if she had dropped the tone of veterans as readily as it would have caught a kid broker. SAGE and FIELD had a weakness and Gould knew it. Field and Sage | the United States in their messages to conknow that monopolies are profitable and whenever a monopoly is in sight they are sure to be on the alers. Mr. Gould had a ession of congress to relieve the country of surplus of Western Union stock which had come into his hands at a reduced figure and he wished to unload it so as to make a handsome profit. He knew how to angle for FIELD and SAGE and baited his hook Tribune says: "The Editorial association accordingly. Mr. ROBERT GARRETT Was in Europe on business connected with the Baltimore & Ohio company. Suddenly there commenced to pass some mysterious cablegrams between Gould and his London agents relative to a purchase by the Western Union of the Baltimore & Ohio ing shame and disgrace on an honorable telegraph stock. The cablegrams were so calling, is soon to meet with stern treatworded as to create the impression that Mr. GARRETT was trying to sell his It is presumed that this will have a good telegraph stock and that the Western Union was trying to get him down on the journalism to the proper place. As will be price. There was but one meaning to all this in the minds of FIELD and SAGE. lished it has been decided to abandon the It was a big monopoly. That the Western old style of newspaper fights and adopt the Union was going to swallow up the entire better plan of healthful argument in place telegraph system in this country was as clear of spiteful personalities. Such a course is It has been assumed that the census returns as the nose on a man's face. There was to be welcomed by the real editor as somewill show a large increase in the population but one thing for them to do. They must thing new and most grateful; nay, a real get a finger in this big monopoly pie, and relief as it were—the dawn of a new day, accordingly made a deal with Mr. Gould the new census. From the fact that the on the stock. The latter could not help sentiment of one section of the state is but deal liberally and generously with his favorable to an extra session and that of old comrades in iniquity. So rumor says fession must look up and work for a higher he unloaded a big slice at a highly remunerative figure. Mr. FIELD hastened to Europe to take personal management of one than in the other. We say that the dis- the transfer of the Baltimore & Ohio stock cussion of the subject is premature from the to the Western Union, while Mr. SAGE refact that no data is at hand, nor will there mained on this side to see that things be until the census is completed and were kept ship shape. But, alas for the the returns all in, to furnish the rarity of Christian charity among stock demand an extra session of the legislature, been only a myth. Mr. GARRETT speaks or to incur the extraordinary expense to the right out and says there has been no nego-

his way home, a very angry man, but doubtless with a very high estimate of Mr. GOULD's abilities as a stock jobber. JAY GOULD is a sly old fox.

SUNDAY GLOBE. Merchants and other business men who are interested in bringing their goods to the attention of the general public will be gratified to learn that a recent arrangement has been made whereby an early edition of the SUNDAY GLOBE is printed in time to be distributed by the outgoing trains Saturday night, throughout the Northwestern states and territories, on Sunday morning. This enterprise, on the part of the GLOBE management, was carried to such a successful edition a great demand throughout an extended and populous section of country. Advertisers will, therefore, hereafter bring their notices to the attention of many thou-St. Paul newspaper. The SUNDAY GLOBE now ranks in circulation away up with the shocked at the idea of incurring the ex- best papers of its kind in cities of much greater population. Advertisements intended for this edition should be handed in to the GLOBE counting room by 12 o'clock noon to-day. A single price only is charged for advertisements in all editions of the SUNDAY GLOBE.

SILVER WANTED. Notwithstanding the continuous howl which goes up from New York because the government doesn't suspend the coinage of silver it seems that in reality the dollar of the fathers is not so unpopular after all, as the brokers and bankers of the Empire City would have us believe. A paragraph in last Thursday's Times reveals the fact that silver is in as much demand in that city as any other currency, and that the sub-treasury is doing a regular land-office business in the way of distributing it. It content itself with the hope that by the says: "The demand for silver dollars at time the election comes around the people | the sub-treasury in this city yesterday was of Minnesota will have awakened to a cor- unexpectedly large. A great quantity of rect knowledge of the direction in which fractional silver was passed over the counter, but the output of standard dollars was the notable feature of the day. Hitherto the New York banks have been averse to taking silver dollars from any source, but The town of Lewisburg, in the state of vesterday four banks of this city asked for Pennsylvania, has recently been the scene and obtained $60,000 in standard dollars. bank $20,000, the Citizens' $10,000, and the tleman by the name of ORWIG, and the silver dollars taken from the sub-treasury other to a Dr. HARRISON. Mr. ORWIG during the day. Mutilated currency to the to Harrison's understanding of his dollars. The assistant treasurer has made

The Times gives the following explanaaway from home the Harrisons take ad- tion of what it calls an unusual demand for vantage of his absence to tear away his the silver dollar: "The cause of this sudone and two-dollar bills. Since the government stopped printing bills of those denommen, who commenced cutting off them. The one and two-dollar bills, being

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH. The English parliament, which assembled their uncle, quick as lightning adjusted the last October, was prorogued yesterday by nose and turned a full stream of water on Queen VICTORIA in a speech full of royal Dr. Harrison and the workmen. A large | compliments to the body which was closing crowd quickly gathered and cheered on the lits memorable session. The history of this plucky girls. Dr. Harrison threatened to parliament embraces some of the most imthrow an iron down on the girls if they did portant events of English history. Among not desist, but at this the crowd became in- the most eventful occurrences connected furiated and threatened to demolish the with the parliament are the movements of new addition to the Harrison house and the British army in the Soudan, including the doctor with it if he dared to lay a hand the expedition up the Nile, the fall of upon the girls, who by this time had Khartoum, the tragic death of the heroic climbed up to within close range of the Gordon and the subsequent evacuation of workmen who were taking off the roof, and the principal part of the Soudanse territory. and tried to shield themselves, but it was the British government. The queen refers useless. The girls had "enlisted for the to the death of El Mahdi, but says nothwar" and were bound to "fight it out on ing of the most important and dramatic octhat line," and after battling for an hour currence within the history of the parliaand a half they had the satisfaction of see- ment. The resignation of the GLADSTONE ministry was by all odds the most imporand surrender. Large crowds of the most tant, as it was the most sensational, fearespectable ladies and gentlemen of the ture of the session, yet there is no reference to it in the queen's address except a possible allusion, where she expresses her crowd that sympathized with the other determination to seek the counsel of her

While the queen's speech is similar in tone and style to the usual address from the crown when proroguing parliament, still one cannot fail to be impressed with the seemold fox is entirely merited. It is known ing absurdity of the language employed wherein she asserts an individual claim to the entire English possessions and government. The absurdity of hereditary monarchy in a constitutional government is speaks of her personal relations with other governments and of her Indian empire with an emphasis on the personal pronoun as if she was really the owner of the earth. when in fact she is nothing more or less meagre power really possessed by the crown and the almost absolute sovereignty residing in the electors under the British constitution it does seem ridiculous that an intelligent nation should attempt to preserve the shadowy form of absolute monarchy when the true spirit of its government is so nearly democratic. The queen's address would have lost none of its dignity supreme egotism and had adopted the suggestive style employed by the presidents of SENSIBLE TALK. The Sauk Centre Tribune approves the position taken by the Editorial association at its recent meeting in this city in a determination to crushout the tramp newspaper. The of Minnesota at its late session passed some most wholesome and refreshing resolutions. From the tone of some of them it will be seen that the quack newspaper man who goes over the country with a portable printing office, demoralizing the trade and hangment at the hands of the profession effect and that it will raise the standard of seen by reference to the resolutions pub where the sunlight of truth will not be dimmed by the shadows of such unsightly standard in all departments; it must be come respectful to its brotherhood and it must learn some deep lessons of forbearance.

COMING TOGETHER.

The mountain has come to MAHOMET. It is said that ex-Gov. CURTIN of Pennsylvania has approached Mr. CARLISLE and proposed to do the honor of putting the Kentucky statesman in nomination for speaker of the next house of representatives, with a view of making the nomination unanimous. This indicates that there is to be no division in the Democratic party in congress on the tariff question, and that according to the Democratic idea. It is ex- of her soldiers. pected that the Democratic house will pass a tariff bill which will be acceptable to the country, and woe unto the Republican senate it that body defeats it. NEWSPAPERS ON THE TRAINS. Mr. RILEY, who has charge of the sale of newspapers upon some of the railroad trains which run out of St. Paul and Minneapolis, has been charged by a paper in our neighboring city with discriminating against it in sales. It goes further and charges that Mr. RILEY has been bribed to push the sales of other papers over that one. This Mr. RILEY indignantly resents, issue last Sunday as to establish for this and, in a communication which he has forwarded to the chamber of commerce of Minneapolis, he offers a reward of $10,000 for the production of proof to sustain this charge. The nature of Mr. RILEY's consands of people in the thrifty cities and tract with the railroad companies is such towns of the Northwest, whom they have that should it be shown that he has disnot formerly been able to reach through a criminated against any paper, his contract would at once be forfeited, and he be put off the road. It is neither his interest nor his inclination to discriminate in the sale of feel proud of the class of men who compose papers, and he has not done so.

ON THE WRONG TRACK. We observe that as the time approaches for the leaves to fall the women's rights associations are making preparations for their regular autumnal conclaves. If the women's rights movement ever expects to gain a firm foothold, this country must get back to the days of the waffle iron. Ever since the art of cooking good waffles has been lost, the world has been out of joint. It is all right that the women shall have their rights, and every true man will stand by that proposition. But if there is one right more than another right which a woman is entitled to enjoy, it is the right to know how to get up a good meal. One convention of this kind will bring more concessions from the brutes of men than all the female associations that were ever organized. It is evident that women's rights agitators haven't struck the keynote to their reform movement yet.

FORCE OF HABIT. The recently-appointed Maine postmaster, who has landed in jail for stealing postage stamps, seems to have been the victim of an old habit. He was a Mugwump Republican who had filled the position of deputy postmaster under the Republican postmaster. The president was imposed apon by being urged to make the appointnent in deference to the wishes of the Mugwumps, who certified that he was efficient and a true disciple of the civil service reform principles. The New York World says that it was after the application had been sent in and the appointment made, but before the commission had been forwarded, that he tried his hand once more at his peculiar political methods, robbed the government and was sent to jail.

STEEL RAILS.

The chief engineer of the Michigan Central railroad says that steel rails laid on that line in 1884 have been removed on account of "flouring" and spreading. This announcement has created a stir among the steel rail manufacturers, who see in it an effort to create a panic in their business. If the engineer's statement be true, the matter deserves investigation. The duty of protecting human life should be the first nsideration with railroad companies, and if the experience of the Michigan Central with steel rails is that of other roads which use the same kind of rails, they will have to return to the use of the old iron rail. The Scientific American explains that a cheap steel rail is made by mixing cinder with the steel in the rail, and intimates that the Michigan Central has been buying the cheap grade. A careful investigation of the matter will have to be made, for the railroad which uses an unsafe rail will soon lose its passenger traffic.

placing the nozzle close to the workmen's faces gave them the benefit of the full stream. The workmen got an umbrella and tried to shield themselves but it and tried to shield themselves but it is a store, was once a student at Washington college and was a class mate of Layre C. But it is a store, was once a student at Washington college and was a class mate of Layre C. But it is a store, was once a student at Washington college and was a class mate of Layre C. But it is a store, was once a student at Washington college and was a class mate of Layre C. But it is a store, was once a student at Washington college and was a class mate of Layre C. But it is a store, was once a student at Washington college and was a class mate of Layre C. But it is a store, was once a student at Washington college and was a class mate of Layre C. But it is a store, was once a student at Washington college and was a class mate of Layre C. But it is a store, was once a student at Washington college and was a class mate of Layre C. But it is a store, was once a student at Washington college and was a class mate of Layre C. But it is a store, was once a student at Washington college and was a class mate of the principal part of the Soudanse territory.

John Wolf, who was shot at Washington, part will have to be reaped a generation between the half-breeds for a time into submission, will be the planting of a seed whose fruit will have to be reaped a generation between the half-breeds for a time into submission, will be the planting of a seed whose fruit will have to be reaped a generation between the half-breeds for a time into submission, will be the planting of a seed whose fruit will have to be reaped a generation between the half-breeds for a time into submission, will be the planting of a seed whose fruit will have to be reaped a generation between the half-breeds for a time into submission, will be the planting of a seed whose fruit will have to be reaped a generation between the half-breeds for a time into submission, will be the An exchange says that among the collegians of those days Wolf was one of the brightest and most reckless. One day he connected an electric battery with a door knob and nearly shocked a professor to death. After this prank Wolf was dismissed from the college. He next turned up in Boston in a publishing ouse, where he edited an edition of TEXNY son's poems. His salary was large, but he spent it in dissipation and soon lost his place. Then he became a regular criminal. His first offense was burglary, for which he served a term in the penitentiary. Next he engaged in illegal liquor traffic, and during the past fifteen years has cost the country $40,000 in prosecutions and has served many terms in prison. Generally he was coarse and brutal, but when he met educated people he surprised them by the brilliancy of his conversation. He was a fine classical scholar, and one night when drunk created a sensation by mounting a box on the sidewalk and delivering a oration on The True Spirit of Poetry. Wolf never made any strong effort to reform. He drifted naturally into crime, and the bloody end of his misspent life surprised no one. THE suggestions made by a prominent railad official to a GLOBE reporter that it was Mr. Vanderbillt's ambition to get control of the Northern Pacific in order that he might control a continuous railroad line from ocean to ocean, is plausible enough. When a man has acquired the wealth of a VANDERBILT there is nothing beyond the reach of his aspirations. And yet it is hardly within the range of probability that Mr. VANDERBILT's nbition in this respect will be gratified. There are reasons in abundance why it should ot be. In his reaching out for power and influence Mr. VANDERBILT's ambition is like "A circle in the water

Which never ceaseth to enlarge itself, Till, by wide spreading, it disperse to naught."

WoE to the Piegan who crosses the path of the Montana cowboy. The little brush on the Mussel Shell was a bloody affair and smacks a little of cruelty. After all, it will prove a salutary lesson to the Indians, and will go a long ways toward checking the roving bar of Indian thieves in their depredations. The owboys are a reckless set of fellows, yet they are very useful on the frontier. The will be intimidated from attempting revenge. If they do, the government should furnish the cowboys with a sufficient force to clear out the entire band.

Judging from the following stanza in JOAQUIN MILLER'S new poem, "The Sword of the South," the Sierrean poet must have made a mash during his visit to the exposition last

New Orleans has ladies so fair, so fair, In the old French quarter, with great black on the counter, half concealed by the goods So fair that the mayor must keep them there Lest troubles, like troubles of Troy, arise. New Orleans has ladies with eyes held down— Held down because, if they lifted them, Why. you would be lost in this old French lying thereon. Presently a lady shopped if by instinct, and while pricing half a score of articles she endeavored to cover it, quite artlessly, of course, now with her handker-

Though even you held to God's garment

WHEN President ARTHUR resided in the White house he had a clock connected with the naval observatory in his secretary's room. When President CLEVELAND came into pos ession of the executive mansion Col. LA-MONT objected to paying $25 out of the con tingent fund of the mansion to have it continued. So now the watches in the White house are regulated by an old-fashioned mantle clock which has ticked the time with more or less correctness for many years.

THE alleged largest diamond in the world was found recently in Africa. It has been taken to Amsterdam, where a special shop has been erected for the purpose of polishing it. It is said to weigh 475 carats, which is 195 carats more than the shah of Persia's "Grand Mogul."

IT MUST have done old man WolseLey's tion in the matter of representation, then stock jobbing purposes." Mr. FIELD is on the RANDALL wing has surrendered to the the Soudan expedition was barren of results, CARLISLE wing. This means tariff reform she was proud of the gallantry and endurance BAD WORK ON THE RAIL.

Three Cold Truths.

1. Every man knows better what he wants of the same street, the same village, the

The St. Paul Jobbers.

cupy it. Success to them, one and all.

"with the face on the outside."

all canned goods are poisoned to an appre

Montana Wool Product.

this the product of mutton sheep for the market and you have an immense source of certain wealth. Sheep will thrive anywhere in Dakota with reasonable care. In the sum-mer they need but little: in the winter they Dakota's Harvest.

The farmers of the West Missouri slope are on the eve of the best harvests ever known in North Dakota. From every hand come reports from the farmers, most of whom thi only thing now necessary, and everything bids fair to pour wealth into the pockets of Fighting the Cattle Barons.

This forty-days' order is only the beginning thieves. It is a struggle which will be watched

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It is hardly too much to say that Riel's

But Once In a Lifetime.

The Pioneer Press gloats over the discon fiture of our late Austrian consul. No won der, it rarely happens that the Pioneer Press can record the downfall of one whom it has Adepts in a Useful Art.

The story that President Cleveland and Vice

Both these distinguished gentlem

President Hendricks have quarreled is ridicu

A Black Eve for Chandler.

Ex-Secretary Chandler is writing letters in which he attempts to prove that a Democratic administration ruined John Roach. It cer-

Hot-Weather Advice.

"Don't wear your clothes tight," says the Philadelphia Times, in its hot-weather advice. We can give better advice than this-

Only a Tail After All.

Bungtown Bugle.

Persons who before the election thought the tail of the Democratic ticket was the head

SORRY FOR THE LORD.

I'm gettin' sorry fur you Lawd;

De niggahs wants so monst'ous much

Dey prays fur ev'ryting dey needs,

Dat work would bring 'em all,

An' wants de fruit of all de yarth

I heerd a niggah prayin', Lawd,

He axed to have de chickens roos

An' turkeys jeson top de fence,

Come stately steppin', oh! good Lawd,

An' smash dem sassy niggahs down,

Dey howls at you de livelong night

-Will Visscher, in Cleveland Leader.

Stategy of a Salesman

A salesman in one of the large dry goods stores recently picked up a worn-out, empty pocketbook and thought that he would have little fun with it. He therefore placed it chief, then with her satchel and again with her parasol; but the salesman, without appearing to notice her actions, each time re-moves the portemounaie out of danger and "Somebody's left a pocketbook."

"Yes?" replies the clerk, interrogatively; thank you." And he takes the leather and his return the lady asks, with a slight show into the light. Finally she adopts n disappears with it for a moment.

ask the lady.
"The firm," is the epigrammatic response

The lady goes out. In ten or fifteen min-utes a boy comes in and asks:

"Was a pocketbook with three dollars in

"Was there much in it?"

t found here this morning?"

"Yes," replied the salesman; been called for."

Boy says "Oh!" and retires. Salesman smiles andible tics, and picks it up with the remark:

Her eyes light upon that wallet as

An' bruise de sarpint's seed.

An' robs yo' of yo' sleep, Kase dey's too lazy fur to sow,

An' got no crap to reap.

Boston Transcript.

"thank you.

of interest-

His very lebel bes' For Christmas time de whole year roun',

Indeed an' trufe, I am.

Jis' like befo' de fall.

An' all de time a res';

Down on de lowes' lim'.

In easy reach er him.

'Pon yo' lily-white steed,

'Cep Gilead an' de ba'm.

have wisely concluded that it was well placed.

know how to mind their own business.

tainly ruined Chandler's reputation of the president's struggle with the big land

cuse for buying much in this region.

Grand Forks (Dak.) Herald.

can be corraled in straw sheds.

the horny-handed sons of toil.

Detroit Journal (Rep.)

Northwestern Chronicle

Cleveland Plaindealer.

Baltimore Herald.

Scranton Truth.

don't be tight yourself.

Mandan Times.

Todd County Argus.

Atlanta Constitution

. It Is Still There.

The city of St. Paul, the great commercial

Aitkin Age.

THE railroads and laud syndicates are now Forepaugh's Circus Trains Collide satisfied that the administration is doing a With Serious Results. land office business on its own hook.

Sir T. H. Farrer's Book, "Free Trade vs. Fair Trade."

Eight Men Seriously Injured and Cars Badly Wrecked.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Aug. 14.-Near Eddyto buy and sell than his government can posville, Ia., to-day there was a collision besibly know for him. He will buy and seil to the best advantage if left free to buy and sell tween two sections of Adam Forepaugh's circus train. The section which was 2. Every man who buys sells at the same time. His purchase is really an exchange. The money he pays for the goods which he buys is really an order given to the seller for other goods. The more buying, the more selling. run into is known as the baggage train and was made up as follows: Caboose, two box-cars, and then the sleepers Baltimore, Buffalo, Washington and Detroit, in the order named. Ahead of the Detroit were long, heavy flat-cars, on which were loaded the wagons containing the tents, etc. same town, the same country, no one thinks of disputing these truths. But they are just pox-car next the sleeper telescoped with the rectly up the mountain from the village of Baltimore. This sleeper was occupied by canvassmen and others. The following were seriously injured: August Schmitt. Frank Boyd. S. W. Enson. Louis Huter. Joe Copps. Frank Holland.

the above organization, and who have just taken one of the most memorable trips ever engaged in by any set of business men, upon Frank Baker. Lewis LeGrande The sleepers Buffalo and Washington had a visit to their customers in the Northern Pa-cific country in Minnesota, Dakota and Mon-tana. We predict for them the greatest suc-cess any body of commercial men ever met their platforms demolished and their occu-pants badly shaken, but none were much injured. The Detroit was thrown from the track and turned upside down. with anywhere. The earth is theirs by right It was occupied by sixty men, nearly all of whom are known in show parlance as "privileged people." Sid Enson, song and of location, and by virtue of their business pluck, ability and enterprise, and we do not doubt for a moment but what they will ocdance artist, was the only one seriously injured in this car. He received a severe cut in the head and his skull is probably fractured. A great many others sustained severe Henry M. Rice of Minnesota is one of Gen. Toombs' most intimate friends. They served Detroit had two cages on it, which were demolished. One of them contained a troop of performing dogs and one of them was killed. Swung under the wagons on which he was fastened by a contained a man, under the tree, was killed. in congress together, and Mr. Rice located Gen. Toombs' Lake Superior lands for him. He lives in St. Paul, and has hanging in his parlor a life-size picture of Gen. Toombs, by this car were hammocks, occupied by men, and several of them were injured, but none Healy. Once during the war, the inflamed dangerously, Other cars were damaged. The menagerie animals were people gathered at the door of Mr. Rice, and clamored for the picture that they might denot hurt. Physicians from Eddyville and stroy it. "It is only over my dead body that Ottumwa are on the ground attending the you can get it," quietly answered Mr. Rice. "And it still hangs there," said Gen. Toombs, injured. Forepaugh did everything possible to relieve the wounded. He says it is the #### most serious accident that has ever hap-pened to him. The injured men will be Where the Berries Grow.

taken to the hospital at Davenport. An article in a recent issue of the St. Paul GLOBE announces the unpleasant fact that Tremendous Cloud Burst. READING, Pa., Aug. 14 .-- Last night a le extent by the process of sealing, in which tremendous water cloud burst over Greenchloride of zinc is used in large canning estab-lishments. It is likely that the canned goods of commerce are not as wholesome as fruit put wich township, this county. It fell with terrific force, washing out fields and swelling streams. The Schuylkill river to-day is four up in glass cans at home, and there is no exfeet higher than yesterday. The storm was confined to a small section of country and lasted only an hour. Joseph Morgle's barn, near Windsor Castle, was struck by lightning and consumed, with its contents. Loss, $8,000. The Hamburg rolling mill reser-Montana has already marketed 2,000,000 pounds of wool this year, and it is estimated voir overflowed, flooding the mill. Mrs. White of Stony Creek was rendered unshe has 3,000,000 more to market. Add to Mrs.

TELEGRAPHIC SPARKS.

conscious by the lightning.

The losses to the New York Central road by he recent storm will exceed $100,000. Mails east of Chicago were delayed twelve lours, owing to a washout on the New York central road at Hoffman's Ferry. Buck Anderson, a Cherokee Indian, was filled Monday by Deputy Marshal James L.

Spencer, while resisting arrest in Arkansas. Arrangements are nearly complete for the pening of the third season of the Louisville outhern exhibition. It will not close until Oct. 24. Hiram Frantz, a notorious character, was atally shot by Detective Still of York, Pa., while trying to escape from arrest for high Henry Crine, doing business at 105 Franklin street, New York, assigned for the benefit of his creditors, giving preferences amount-ing to $23,822, the largest being to Mrs. Henry Crine, $11,464.

with anxious interest, for he will find, before A storm on Long Island did a great deal of damage. Barns were blown down, dwellings were unroofed and trees uprooted. Many he gets through with these cattle barons, that he has engaged in a warfare so arduous as to daunt even the most honest and determined of men. More power to his arm! small craft were driven upon the shore in different places on the coas

The report that the body of Lieut. Edward Wallace, executive officer of the United tates training ship Portsmouth, who disan peared last February, had been found float-ing in the North river, is unfounded.

The worst storm for years visited North leath at the hands of the executioner, while it may terrorize the half-breeds for a time

Concord, N. H., greatly damaging the high-ways. Several washouts occurred on the Ogirg railroad. The storm also did con damage atPlymouth and other places in the state. John C. Beaucleigh, alias "Johnny the Snake," a nationally notorious confidence man, and wanted in nearly every state in the Union, was found guilty of beating a passenger on the Missouri Pacific railway out of $350 two years ago and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

The business failures during the last seven days throughout the country number for the United States 151 and for Canada 17, or a total of 168, as compared with a total of 185 for last week, and 201 the week previous to the last. The Western and Pacific states furnish more than one-half of the entire number of business casualties in the United ber of business casualties in the United

LATE ST. PAUL NEWS. Landers, the man who shot himself, was still alive at an early hour this morning. A little white-haired boy, about 05 years old, strayed into the police station last night, and is still there waiting an owner. Joe Keneally, a corpulent Minneapolis man, carrying a police whistle, was run in at 1 o'clock this morning for disorderly

Ex-Police Officer Pippin was arrested on the corner of Rice and Como avenue this morning for assault with a dangerous

Peter John, whose name figured in yes erday's probate court record, was not the groceryman by that name on the corner of Payne and Ramsey streets.

William Howland, one of Dimond's colored odgers, was taken to the police station last night with a severe attack of cholera morbus. He was stretched out in one of the cells and Dr. Ancker called, who pronounce the man very low, with probable chances of

On Thursday Officer Cook sent a woman named Mrs. William Stewart to Dr. Ancker's office. She claimed to belong to the city of Le Grand, Or. The woman wa found to be a little loose mentally, so she was sent to the hospital. In response to a dispatch, Dr. Ancker received a telegram from the authorities of Le Grand, stating that the woman was not perfectly sane, but was harmless and allowed to travel around rickets may be avoided, not to speak of at at pleasure. She will be shipped to Mil-

Important insurance Decision. CINCINNATI, Aug. 14.-A decision of interest to insurance companies was rendered in the United States court by Justice Matthews to-day, in a suit brought by the Fire association of Philadelphia against J. H. Law & Co., insurance agents of this city, for money due. In the answer and cross petition of John H. Law & Co., it is his lungs are closed and he expires. Catlin stated that they were, until recently, general agents for the Philadelphia company, for the states of Ohio, Indiana, West and a portion of Kentucky, and that in that capacity they had established a valuable business in this territory, which the Fire asociation now threatens to destroy. therefore, raised the question as to whether they could be disturbed in the possession of the good will and business represented by the sub-agencies they had established, by the recent action of the Fire association in sting their sub-agents to deal directly with the home office instead of through the Cincinnati agency, as formerly. Justice Matthews decided that John H. Law & Co. could recover damages against the Fire

More Crooked Barrels.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14.-Another carload of Peoria whisky in the crooked barrels was "detained" to-day by the internal revenue officials. It was consigned to a firm here. Each day more of the whisky is "Only three dollars," replied the sales-man, carelessly, and with the ease of one found, and it is asserted that nearly every rectifier in the city has some of it. who has been used to lying all his life. "And who will get it if it isn't called for?"

Blowing Up Hell Gate. WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.-Gen. Newton,

chief of engineers, in his annual report on the removal of obstructions at Hell Gate, New York harbor, speaks of the tunneling in the reef and the drilling of holes for a 1, at which time the blast will be fired. The explosives used will be about 225,000 pounds of rock powder, about 50,000 pounds dynamite No. 1. About 50,000 copper cartridges will be used, ranging from fifteen to twenty-four inches long and two and one-quarter inches thick.

LIVING CHAINED TO A TREE; The Beast-Like Existence of a Far-

Correspondence New York World.

test

mer's Crazy Son.

For years there have been stories told of a wild man living in the fastnesses of the Blue Ridge mountains, the son of one of the small mountain farmers, who is jealously guarded and protected by him;

but the descriptions given of the monster have been so vague that I determined to their truth for myself.

Sperryville brought our party to a little farm which had been cleared on the mountain side. In the field an old man, evidently the farmer himself, was at work. As we stopped to speak to him our ears were startled by a series of the most ap-palling and unearthly shrieks and yells coming from a clump of trees which surrounded the log farm-house, a little distance off. For some moments the quiet country roadside seemed a veritable pandemonium. Only those who may have visited what are known in a madhe the "hollow squares," where the more vio-lent patients are confined, can form any idea of the horrible impression made upon the mind by the demoniac yells and howls which filled the air. The old farmer, informing us that it was his son that we heard, led the way to the house. "There he is," he said, pointing with his long bony finger to a large oak tree, a little ways re-The flat car next ahead of the had two cages on it, which were hed. One of them contained a wild, brutish-looking creature, whom it would be mockery to which he was fastened by a collar and chain. He was the veritable impersonation, at last, of Caliban, a strange, uncouth monster, neither man or brute, but with the characteristics of both painfully blended. He was entirely naked, though his body was covered with a short growth of shaggy black hair. Around his neck was a heavy iron collar of home-made manufacture, and to this was attached a heavy chain, fastened in the tree trunk by a staple. From the constant attrition of his neck the collar had been worn perfectly smooth and bright. He kept a steady walk-the monotonous, soning trot of a caged animal. In his hand he carried his chain to keep the weight of it off his neck, precisely as a monkey may be seen to do. Now and then he would stop for a moment and give vent to a succession of piereing screams, accompanied by such horribly grotesque contortions of face and limb that one was forced to turn away in very horror from the sight. Around the trunk of the tree was a path worn bare and smooth by his restless feet. He did not take the slightest notice of our presence, and we, of course, stood at a respectful distance. The old man was not at all averse to talking about his unfortunate son. From a child it had never shown the slightest spark of intelligence, and at its birth it was scarcely even of human form. It was hardly possessed of even the instincts of an animal, for it never evinced any desire or made any signs for food or drink. It had never manifested the ordinary emotions and sensibilities of a brute; it it seemed absolutely ito everything. Food within his reach placed his mother, who is the only person who dares approach him, and he eats of it, although never seeming to care for it. only sleeps when utterly worn out by his nceasing tramp up and down under his heavy chain to keep him away from the fire Clothing it is impossible to keep on him He is short but heavily built and possessed of a powerful frame. His arms are of extraordinary length and of unusual muscular power; his hands are large and powerful and armed with long, claw-like nails. For forty years has this frightful object lived, a constant solicitude and terror to his par-ents. Strangely enough, both his father and mother are, if anything, rather above the ordinary intelligence. His health is good and to all appearances he may live hained to the big tree for years to come

The Mouth-Breathing Habit. From the New York World.

While a reporter was in the office of a well-known physician of this city the latter asked him if he had noticed a young man who had just passed out. The reporter answered that he had, because he thought he had met the young man in Brooklyn a short time before.

"That was probably another person suffering from the same trouble,' "This is a curious affliction. doctor. is more common than is supposed. occurs in infancy, hood and at middle age, and causes a great deal of suffering; yet it is a strange thing that people in general do not seem to pay any attention to this affection when occurring in their own families, in spite of the manner in which it distorts the face, until some actual disease sets in and medical aid is necessary. Even physicians do not seem to reflect that this trouble may Even physicians do cause any one of a large number of diseases affecting the system in general. "Why," continued the doctor, "you tell one of these mouth-breathers anywhere the moment you see them. From disease of the nose his lips are retracted, his mouth is continually open, his gums recede and his teeth protrude, particularly those of the up-per jaw, the flesh that forms the lower part of the nostrils is shrunken, the openin the nostrils are diminished in size, are wrinkles at the outer edges of the eyes and deep lines run from the nostrils to the angles of the mouth. These all give the person either an expression of idiocy, silliness or suffering.

"But the principal thing I want to call your attention to," said the doctor, "is the necessity of parents and nurses watching children when they fall asleep and prevent ing them from breathing with their mouths open. In grown persons, diseases of the nose and throat may lead to mouth-breathing and the resulting distortion of the fea-tures, but it is the other way with children They should be taught to use the mouth for eating and speaking only, and if they fall asleep with their mouths open the lip should be gently pressed together. Thus many constitutional diseases, such as spinal trouble, pigeon breast, and, perhaps, ever fections of the nose and throat.

It seems that medical men are not the only ones who have studied more or less carefully the habit of mouth-breathing. George Catlin, the portrayer of American Indian life and customs, claimed in one of his works that it was a known fact that a man can inhale mephitic air through the nose for a certain time in the bottom of a well without harm, but if he opened his mouth to answer a question or call for help says:

"I have seen a poor Indian woman in the wilderness lowering her baby from her breast and pressing its lips together as it falls asleep." Among 2,000,000 people he found that deafness, dumbness, spinal curvature and deaths from teething and diseases of the respirator passages were almost unknown. He attributes this exemption from these ailments, so very mon in civilized life, solely to the habit of breathing through the nose.

What He Was Givin' Her. Boston Courier.

"And what is your trouble, Mike, that you look so sorrowful?" "Water on the chest, begorra."

"Water on the chest! Saints preserve us but you're one of the healthiest looking men I ever saw. It's strange entirely."
"Strange it is, and the misfortune of it is that it is as true as it is strange. per: I was coming over on the ship and we met a hurricane and the ship went down, and my chest, which had in twenty pounds ney and all my clothes, went down with the vessel in two hundred fathoms of water; so I'm right in saying that it's the water on the chest that troubles me. "Go along, you spalpeen, it's a chesthy nut you're givin' me."

After five years of hard service, Frank Boykin of Montgomery, Ala., purchased his freedom and then married. That was great blast. The charging of holes was commenced during the month of July and it is expected will be completed about Oct. Boykin of Montgomery, Ala., purchased his freedom and then married. That was sixty years ago. Frank has just died at his old home at the age of 115 years.