The Mankato Fair.

Special to the Globe. MANKATO, Minn., Sept. 3.—To-day, the most delightful of the season, brought crowds of citizens and hundreds of farmers from the surrounding country to the fair grounds. The board of railroad and fair house commissioners came from St. Paul on the evening Omaha train. During the forenoon the Farmers' alliance of the Carth county had a consultation with the commissioners, and arranged for a meeting to take place at Good Thunder, where the grievances of the alliance will be heard and considered. Not the least of the influences making the fair a success are those of the Ladies of Mankato, who are the center of attraction, are many beautiful specimens of their handiwork in the display of various little embellishments found in the home of culture and refinement, as well as many objects illustrating the progress of the arts and manufactures of the life. The ladies of the Methodist church have a large tent where they are doing business on business principles by giving a good, honest dinner for 25 cents. Between the main entrance to the grounds and the main entrance to the temperance Christian union have a tent where they supply cold lunches and nice hot coffee.

THE FORENOON

was taken up by the awarding committee in examining the various herds. At 2:15 p. m. Dr. Warner of Mankato introduced Gen. Baker, who, after dwelling at length on the interests of the farmer as being the foundation of all prosperity in his usual brilliant style, he launched upon the statistics of agriculture in this country and to some extent in Europe. When the general survey around on the tariff question he grew more eloquent than ever, and showed up in a forcible manner the inequities of a continuation of protection to the pampered industries of the country, whereby millions have been accumulated by the few at the expense of the many. His great agricultural interests of the country, particularly in the Northwest, have been the greatest sufferers. His chapter on the cattle barons occupying the public lands, coming in competition with the owners of farms in the West with their illegal police of cowboys, the honest settler and claiming all the water privileges of the frontier as against the owners of small herds, etc., was a severe arraignment of these baronial holdings, all of which would lead to the control of the water by a few hands.

DRIVING UP

MINNESOTA.

Winona.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the board of trade was held on Wednesday evening. A communication from the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, offering the board a special train of four coaches on Sept. 17, to run to Rochester and back, for $200 and $75 for a additional coach, was received. The 17th of September has been designated as Winona day by the managers of the Southern Minnesota fair, and Winona citizens on that day. The matter of the Chicago & Northwestern and Northern entering Winona was brought up, but no action in the way of offering inducements was taken. The principal business of the evening was the consideration of the long-projected Winona & Southwestern railway. Years ago a company was formed, a survey made and a route was laid out, but it was never completed. It would give Winona an outlet into the most agricultural regions of Southern Minnesota and Iowa, and which, extending through to Council Bluffs and Omaha, would give her connections with the rapidly developing sections of the West and Southwest. But for some reason the road was not built, and after expending over $8,000 in surveys, etc., the project was allowed to rest, and the board of directors which should have been elected every year were elected to hold their offices until their successors should be appointed. Now Winona's whole trade is steadily growing and the large manufacturing industries demand a more direct outlet than is afforded by the three lines now passing through this city, whose lines are not inferior to those of any city in the Northwest, and whose manufactories of wagons, agricultural implements, etc., are annually becoming much more extensive and improved. It may be well to look after improved facilities for transportation in the direction where her manufactured products are most demanded. A number of the original incorporators of the Winona & Southwestern road were present at the meeting, and declared themselves willing to give up their shares in the project, and in aid of the board of trade, to try to bring the matter to a focus. It was stated that the Green Bay, Winona & St. Paul railway had for some time been seriously considering the matter of a similar project, and they are now negotiating for Winona in any proposed scheme. Two routes were discussed leading from Winona, one of them running south to Houston, Hesper, Decorah, etc., and the other going southwest by way of Chaffield and Spring Valley, the old survey showing the latter route to be the easier one, with no tunnels and requiring but little grading. After a long discussion of the project, the board of trade, by a unanimous committee to act in connection with the directors of the old corporation, and to report at an early date their plans and recommendations.

Chaffield.

Prost in this section has done no great amount of damage. The crops are well. Mrs. G. L. returned from Winona Saturday. Rev. L. T. Anderson, Presbyterian minister at Fillmore, has resigned his charge and passed through here en route for his former home, Alexandria, Penn. The following gentlemen are delegates to the river improvement convention at St. Paul: Col. J. E. Jones, Hon. J. W. McNeal, George H. Haven and C. M. Lovell. Blair & Co.'s new elevator is completed and ready for business. Miss Jennie Willis, teacher in the Winona high school, is in the village. The Japanese fair and festival given at the city of Ely, Minn., was a success financially. Mrs. William Stafford fell down stairs on Tuesday and sustained severe injuries, but no bones were broken. Miss Minnie D. Jones, daughter of Col. J. E. Jones, was married to Mr. George Fenly of Dubuque, wedded Monday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. Mr. Langrel officiating. Mrs. Jessie Bogart, an elderly lady, took by mistake a large dose of acetic acid last night, and was seriously injured. Mr. Frank Nuderleak went to Chicago Wednesday. C. Chute won the five-mile race at the rink Tuesday evening on skates by one lap, against J. J. Lynch on the bicycle. The surveyors on the line of the proposed Des Moines & Northwestern, passed through here Tuesday. C. E. Hancock takes twenty fine blood hogs to the state fair. Bauer shipped another 100 barrels of mess pork to St. Paul Wednesday, making two car loads shipped this week to that point. The membership of the school has hitherto ranked No. 3 from the Minnesota high school board, has made a gain in the past year in its standing of 25 per cent.

Owatonna.

The chairman at the board of trade meeting on Tuesday evening appointed Mayor C. N. McLaughlin, H. M. J. Toher, Wilson Holt, W. R. Kinyon and F. T. Drebert as delegates to the Northwestern waterway convention. Eighteen merchants and professional men were admitted to membership. The board is growing in numbers and the state of $100 for each pupil instructed for nine months in the year. This is the first school established under the new law. It is understood that Green Bay will soon make a like application.

Struck by a Train.

Springs Valley, Sept. 3.—Way Freight No. 11, going west, struck one of the creamery wagons belonging to the Springs Valley creamery, instantly killing both horses and a twelve-year-old son of John Bateman. The driver, Charles Brannan, escaped injury. The accident occurred at the crossing east of Springs Valley, where Mr. Jones, editor of the Vidette, was killed five years ago.

Killed His Stepfather.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Sept. 3.—A young man named Winney, living with his stepfather, George Daniels, three miles north of this city, shot Daniels with a shotgun during a quarrel over a horse kill, this morning and killed him. He then came to the city and gave himself up, claiming that his stepfather had rushed at him with a club and threatened to kill him, and that he shot him in self-defense.

NORTH BRANCH, Minn., Sept. 3.—A very close game of base ball was played here to-day between the clubs of Pine City and Osceola, eleven innings being necessary to decide the contest. The game was won by the Pine City nine, the score being 15 to 15. Smiley Devlin, the Pine City pitcher, struck out twenty-two men.

Hodze of Pine City started last evening on a month's visit to relatives in New Hampshire. Father and Mother Grand Forks delivered a lecture in the opera house last night for the benefit of the new church being built here. Father G. J. Gebel of this place has been ordered to vacate his position as pastor of the church at Duluth, to succeed Father Murphy at Duluth, and transferred to St. Cloud. This is a deserved compliment to Father Gebel, though all people here unite in the wish he might be permitted to remain. Father Schultz, the assistant here, takes Father Gebel's place at Duluth. Father Gebel is now in St. B. Clark sold his farm to a Minneapolis man. A. Molin. Diphtheria is still prevalent in the town of Fish Lake. The Health Lumber Manufacturing company of Pine City assigned to A. Pennington. L. J. Ransberry will soon move into his elegant new store. Threshing has begun around here and though the grain does not turn out as much as expected the quality is good.

President Stickney of the Minnesota & Northwestern railroad, from St. Paul, together with the superintendent and attorney of the road and some others, comprised a party that left this city Saturday last for the purpose of examining the line here. They have some intention of putting a spur in from that road to the quarries, but nothing definite was decided upon. George Parker and wife returned from their trip to the West last week, where they have been on their wedding tour. They report a very enjoyable trip.

Waseca.

Quite a number of our citizens left this morning for Mankato to attend the Blue Earth county fair. Hon. J. C. White finished threshing his grain. He states his crop averaged forty bushels per acre, but there was some shrunken wheat in it. By taking out some ten pounds per bushel the remainder was No. 1. He stored it at Janesville for better prices. Last night a fire broke out in the place, occasioned by the arrest of a brakeman on the Northwestern railroad for skipping his board bill. The law as it stands now cuts off back door and window payments of board bills. Dr. J. H. Place has taken room at the hotel for the present. The doctor will buy or build this fall. Fred Hollingsworth, the carrier of the Globe, met with a severe accident the other day by cutting his hand on a nail. From work, but he gets the Globe around and around. Mr. Miller of South Prairie was starting for home his little girl stepped on the wheel to get into the wagon, when she fell. Dr. Hunt and Mr. W. G. Ward picked her up and took her into the store of Mr. R. Miller, where she was taken care of.

Red Wing.

The city council will hold a special meeting to-night to consider the fire alarm matter. The sales of the popular Red Wing wagons last week totaled $1,000. The Red Wing mill at Wauwago has raised nine acres of tobacco the present season, which he estimates to be worth over $200 an acre. He has built a tobacco house 28x50 feet and will engage more extensively in the crop next year. The Red Wing mill opens Oct. 1. Prof. O. Whitman, superintendent of the public schools, wishes all new pupils who intend to enter the public schools in this city this year to report at his office in Central building this morning.

Sauk Rapids.

Slight frost Thursday morning, but corn and garden vegetables are still green, except in the eastern part of the county, where they are killed. Wheat upon land, and as far as threshed, has yielded only from eight to twelve bushels per acre No. 2, while upon the clay soils it averages from twenty to twenty-five bushels of No. 1. The mills are paying 67 cents for No. 1 wheat.

WISCONSIN.

Eau Claire.

Light frosts are reported in some sections of the county this week, but none as yet to damage corn or other crops. A week or ten days more without a hard freeze will insure the safety of the fine bulk of the corn crop, which is in the green condition. The man Weidenholz, who was so frightfully mangled by a dramatic explosion in the water works tunnel a few days ago, is now out of danger, though at first physicians positively asserted that there was no chance for recovery. Gratifying progress is being made by the water-works contractors, and the full system is expected that the last month of the seventeen miles of mains are now laid. The special election to be held the 15th inst. to determine the amount to be paid for liquor license for the next three years is not causing much anxiety to saloon keepers. The prohibitionists will turn the scale in their favor by voting for prohibition instead of high license. Were they to rally in favor of higher license that measure would very likely be adopted and partial prohibition be secured by a large majority of the voters. Merchants are receiving heavy consignments of fall goods, and a very fair trade is expected. Already a marked improvement in business is noted, and many believe that the future gives promise of better times than has been experienced during the past two years.

Mitchell.

Mitchell buyers have paid as high as 94c a bushel for fax this week. The Baptist Sunday school picked on the Jim yesterday. Last Sunday the members received from the state of Dakota membership as the fruits of the late revival. Open air services were held on Main street Sunday. The frost of yesterday did but little harm. The Simon Bidwell of this city celebrated his 87th birthday yesterday. Henry Koch expects to stop his grain this week, about ten days. Benzville will soon remove into the new Gale brick store, on Main street. Hon. T. F. Singler has just made the Mitchell public schools a present of some valuable books. In the city of Mitchell, Dakota, the population is 1,000. The population of this city, now 3,321, was not given.

Dakota Newslets.

The drama of the "Rebellion," which the Blunt riders are rehearsing, with a view to giving it at Fargo during the encampment, if permitted, comprises a rapid review of the events of the war and the causes leading up to it. It pictures the dismemberment of the Union, the realities of war, the suffering of a generation of prisoners and the nobility of women during trying scenes of that period of strife. Through all there runs a vein of poetry and humor, which never once allows the interest to flag. As Fargo has the honor of being the military drama one or two nights, there is a general desire that the Blunt visitors shall have a chance.

Truman Morse was one of those who invested his means in Northern Pacific bonds under Jay Cooke in 1872. After the collapse of the bank he lost his money, and which he instructed his agents to hold until they would sell for $10 an acre. For his comparatively small investment he is now a millionaire, having sold a great part of the land he still has much of the 800 acres of the present town of West and Herald.

There is a suspicion of sarcasm in the resolution adopted by the county board of Spink, requesting the auditor to "thank Attorney General Rice for his elaborate opinion" in a case submitted to him. He sent a fine opinion to the county board, and the information through the district attorney.

Bertha Creighton, the actress, who has spent the summer romping on the prairies of Dakota, has gone East to join the Edwin Thorne company, which opens the season in New Hampshire. Father and Mother Grand Forks delivered a lecture in the opera house last night for the benefit of the new church being built here. Father G. J. Gebel of this place has been ordered to vacate his position as pastor of the church at Duluth, to succeed Father Murphy at Duluth, and transferred to St. Cloud. This is a deserved compliment to Father Gebel, though all people here unite in the wish he might be permitted to remain. Father Schultz, the assistant here, takes Father Gebel's place at Duluth. Threshing has begun around here and though the grain does not turn out as much as expected the quality is good.

Editor Lucas of the Castalia Republican, expects to add greatly to his wealth by means of a party to the North. He will exhibit at the fair. He claims that he can beat the material party ten days.

Some of the farmers in the North offered $2.25 for hands in harvest and threshing and were unable to obtain as many as they desired. The country was thronged with tramps at the time.

Those who lacked patriotism in sustaining the reputation of the Dakota climate for generally have found fires and overcoats not uncomfortable some days the past week.

Trail county will have on the 14th its first term of court for over two years. The people were recently reconciled to doing without courts permanently. Maj. Edwards and Col. Mabey of Fargo have spent several days the past week at Duluth sizing up the town, and report that it has got a lively buge.

The stages have reduced their time from Chadron to Rapid City, eleven hours, and even less. Travel now nearly all goes by this route.

A $125 cent between the bands at Tyndal and Springfield will probably come off Sept. 2, 3 and 4. They are both fine bands.

It is now promised that the line shall be completed this year, and the cars running to Rapid City in the Black Hills by December.

Elkton is just completing a two-story school house with all the modern improvements. As yet the Milwaukee & Northern railroads are not yet started. Theodore Roosevelt will soon return East and stump Ohio for the Republicans. He likes the cowboy life the best, however.

The Redfield Dispatch says farmers in that section are getting excited over the crop. The first wheat threshed in Faulk county turned out twenty-eight bushels per acre. It was much above the average.

There has been so much horse stealing in Aurora that the police here are likely to be called into requisition.

The reduction in the dividend on the preferred stock of the Chicago & Northwestern company is the subject of much comment in railroad circles. All the railroad companies are being asked to reduce their dividends. What arouses suspicion is that a trifling reduction of 1/2 per cent. should have been made when there is loads of money in the treasury of the road, while the reduction saves only $50,000 to the company. It is surmised that this measure implies some object which has not yet been divulged, but which will not be in favor of the holders of the stock who are not in the charmed ring of insiders. From the reports of the meeting of directors it appears that the reduction of dividends was mainly insisted on by William H. Vanderbilt, who is the largest individual holder of the stock. It is thought to be a scheme of Vanderbilt's, though a mysterious one. He is loaded with stocks of the Lake Shore, New York Central and West Shore bonds, none of which are paying any dividends, and it is evidently his interest to reduce the dividend on stocks which earn and pay it, for it enhances the value of his unproductive holdings. As the Milwaukee & Northern is doing well and accommodates a surplus in its treasury he can easily afford to take 5 or 6 per cent. instead of 7 or 8 per cent.

The "Banker's Daughter," by the Lyceum Theater company at the Grand last night was a very successful performance. They will close their season on Wednesday night with "My Partner," which many are anxious to see again. At the matinee "Bessie's Burglar" and "Hazel Kirke" will be presented. Like a great many others, we were mistaken in regard to the new delivery system to be introduced here as well as other cities. The initial ones on and after Oct. 1. On making a survey of the postoffice yesterday it was learned that Stillwater will not have letter carriers, but one or more boys to make special deliveries. For instance, Tom Hill, residing on the North hill, was sent a letter to his friend John Smith of the South hill, who will simply have to put the special delivery stamp, which will cost cents, and have it sent to him forthwith. Those who expected we were to have letter carriers will be disappointed and the lovers will have to walk after their letters.
