PLEASED AND PROUD.

The Minneapolis Delegation to the Convention is Feeling its Oats.

The Minneapolis delegation to the waterways convention were treated to numerous impromptu receptions yesterday morning, and every one of them was made to feel he had "done himself proud."

The interest felt in Minneapolis was very great, and the people were very much disposed to congratulate each other on the results of the convention, so far as this city is concerned.

The delegation itself is very happy and contented, and members go about with a "have-saved-my-country air."

A GOOD SHOWING.

For August in Real Estate and Building--Notes of the Week.

The real estate barometer last week indicated an even temperature, with prices firm. The report that the old fair grounds had been purchased by the Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railroad company for a quarter of a million dollars created notable indignation.

SAVE ME!

An Insane Man With an Unclean Spirit Raises a Row.

Friday, W. H. Barber, president of the Globe Oil company, discharged Chris Michaelson, a workman who had been in the employ of the company for two years past, the dismissal being occasioned by Michaelson's assault upon a boy the day before.

PURER WATER.

The Supply May be Taken From the River Above the City.

When the vexatious litigations between the city and the Minneapolis Mill company assumed a serious character the water supply was maintained by the city.

RECEPTION TO MAJ. WARNER OF HIS COMRADES.

The fates seemed determined that Maj. William Warner, ex-senior vice commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, should not visit Minneapolis.

The testimonial to Minneapolis which was voted by the national encampment as a token of appreciation of the hearty welcome and hospitable entertainment by the city of Minneapolis, Maj. Warner needs to do no more.

THE FORMATION OF THE CLUB HAS PROVED AS DISAPPOINTING AS THE DISCUSSION.

The formation of the club has proved as disappointing as the discussion, and it is probable that the club will not be organized this winter.

man's standpoint, and in regard to it said: "Of course it's a new track, but its a mighty fine one. It may be soft, but nobody is going to find fault with it."

W. H. Wilson of Cynthiana, Ky., is in the city, and spent most of yesterday at the grounds. He knows all over the country as a splendid starting judge, and there is no better known horseman in Kentucky. He said to a GLOBE reporter: "Taking them all round, there are not better grounds in the country. I am more than pleased with them."

YESTERDAY'S SPECIAL TERM.

A special term calendar of thirty-four cases was disposed of at the district court yesterday, most of which were continued. The case of Peter Wolfard vs. W. N. Allen et al. was dismissed. The suit of Willis Baker vs. The Wadena Lumber company was dismissed. In the divorce case of John Neisser vs. Mary A. Neisser, the divorce was given to the petitioner. In the assignment of W. R. Ebell, the report of sale was confirmed. In the damage suit of Carrie Kelly vs. The Omaha road, a demurrer to the complaint was overruled. The hearing of the petition of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road for the appointment of commissioners was deferred.

THINKS HE IS SAFE.

Frank Baxter, the youthful cowboy in durance in this city under charge of horse stealing, says his home is in Chicago. He claims, and with every indication of frankness and truthfulness, that Arch Dell, the cowboy in this case, who lives by not far from Miles City, Mont., requested him (Baxter) to take ten ponies to that city and sell them. He took the ponies and sold them at public auction, receiving therefor $100.00. Being somewhat elated because of his fat pocketbook, he went on a protracted spree, sobering up with no money. He emphatically declines being a horse thief, and is of the opinion that the Montana sheriff cannot get a requisition for him.
