day after the first Monday in November. The hope is entertained that the United States senate will admit to their body two members from Dakota, whether admission be by act or not, and provisions made for their election.

Section 8. Immediately after the organization of the legislature and the qualification under oath of the state officers, both houses of the legislature shall meet in joint session in the chamber of the house of representatives and shall then and there proceed to elect two senators of the United States for the state of Dakota. The body of the persons who shall receive the majority of all the votes cast by said senators and representatives shall be elected as United States senators and shall be so declared by the presiding officers of said joint session. The presiding officers of the senate and the house shall issue a certificate to each of said senators, certifying to his election, which certificate shall also be signed by the governor and attested by the secretary of state.

Special to the Globe. CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Sept. 24.—The horse and buggy station on the night of Sept. 23, by James Irvin and another man, named as known, the supposed murderer of S. J. Hewes, was found yesterday afternoon loose on the prairie sixteen miles south of Moorhead. Neither of the murderers has been captured. Officers are on the track and suspect that they are in St. Paul or Minneapolis. The body of the murdered man was shipped this morning to Undertaker A. Hunt, Bangor, Me.

Special to the Globe. DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 24.—The population of Des Moines corporation is found by the secretary of state to be 32,469, a gain of 1,051 over the federal count of 1880. This does not include the suburban corporations, which would add about 5,000 more. Sioux City has made the largest relative growth of Iowa cities since 1880 and stands next to Des Moines. The actual gain of Cedar Rapids is third in both respects.

Special to the Globe. BRAINERD, Minn., Sept. 24.—Three companies of the Brainerd Fire-Alarm in command of Chief Dodge and First Assistant Leopold, left at 1:15 p. m., for Little Falls, to participate in the annual parade and ball of the department of that town. They were accompanied by the Brainerd City band headed by the crowd of ladies and gentlemen. Over 100 in all went from Brainerd.

Special to the Globe. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 24.—Willis Crandall, engineer for O'Berne, Hosick & Co. of South Omaha, was found dead on the Union Pacific track this morning. His body was cut clean in two. It is supposed he had been run over by a freight train. Crandall was 24 years old and unmarried.

Special to the Globe. BISMARCK, Dak., Sept. 24.—Prairie fires are still raging, but the farmers are now prepared to meet them. A report reached here to-night that the Fort Yates military fort was in danger, and the whole garrison was ordered to evacuate. The wires are down interrupting further particulars.

Special to the Globe. IOWA CITY, Ia., Sept. 24.—This morning at 8 o'clock over 500 veterans of Crocker's brigade paraded through the crowded streets with the air and precision of veterans. Each regiment was preceded by its battle flag and led by its ranking officer. The business meeting was held at the opera house. On the conclusion of the parade the veterans were invited to a banquet at the Grand Hotel. Gen. Belknap being president and Col. H. H. Reed of Mt. Vernon secretary. The next meeting will be at Davenport in September, 1887. The people of Iowa City were highly pleased for their hospitable reception.

Special to the Globe. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 24.—W. F. Dalrymple, the Dakota farmer, who was in the red river valley, said: "The wheat crop in the red river valley will average about sixteen and one-half bushels to the acre, from three to five bushels less than it would have been but for the damage by hot weather in August. Threshing is going slowly. The Dalrymple farm has harvested about 500,000 bushels and will not stop. In regard to the amount of breaking going on, said Mr. Dalrymple: "There is less breaking going on in the valley than any year since I have been there. For a number of years the wheat and who intended to break them this fall are holding off. The farmers there have not received money for their wheat, and don't want to venture too much on an uncertainty."

Special to the Globe. MANKATO, Minn., Sept. 24.—Last night at 12 m. Mr. W. F. Leidloff died at his residence on Second street after a long illness with lung fever. Mr. Leidloff was one of Mankato's oldest merchants, having learned his trade, that of a harnessmaker, from his father. For many years he was engaged in the carrying on of a large business, and for years he has carried on a very extensive trade in that line in the old Bergholz block. Mr. L. was well known throughout our county, and his many friends will be grieved to hear of his death. Among the business men of the city, Mr. Leidloff was a gentlemanly and successful man, and his death will be missed, for he was always courteous to those he met. He leaves a widow and several children.

This evening, Rev. J. Marvin of St. Paul will deliver a lecture before the Odd Fellows of Red Wing at the hall over the postoffice. The plan sewer will be extended as far as the work can be done by the city. The potato rot is to some extent present in this vicinity. From his past experience he does not apprehend that it will be very general in this soil and climate. He thinks there is little danger of its doing much injury here in an ordinary season. It attributes this year to the moist condition of the soil during the hot weeks, caused by an unusual amount of rain in July and August. Potatoes should not be put into the cellar until they are dried. The Goodhue county for zoning, Dodge county for Justice, Halter county for Justice, before a confirmed drunkard. The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha branch from River Falls to Ellsworth will be completed early next week.
