GRAND CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR '85

Drawing Takes Place on Christmas.

Find Full Account of Drawing in all the Daily Papers

Day after Christmas.

READ A DESCRIPTION OF OUR BEAUTIFUL PRESENTS TO OUR PATRONS FOR '85:

This is the fifth year since we inaugurated our plan of distributing a number of elegant and costly prizes on Christmas Day among our customers. This year we offer gifts more beautiful than ever before, the whole aggregating over $1,500 in value. To each and all of our patrons will be presented a numbered ticket, free, that will entitle them to a chance in our Grand Christmas Drawing. The prizes this year are as follows:

A FRENCH BIRD CLOCK, wrought in solid mahogany, decorated with groups of birds and animals; each half hour the indicator of time passes a certain point, a bird with gay plumage appears and sings a sweet song of exquisite notes. Every hour of the day, immediately after the clock strikes, it plays a tune that excels the finest music box. This Clock is valued at $400.

A REAL GENUINE DIAMOND STUD, weighing 2 1/2 karats, first water diamond. Valued at $300.

A MAMMOTH MUSIC BOX, of exquisite workmanship, performing the choicest melodies, having a handsome supporting table. Value $300.

A dozen each of SILVER KNIVES, FORKS, TABLESPOONS and TEASPOONS, in handsome velvet case. Valued at $150.

A SILVER SET, of the most elaborate and latest design, complete in six pieces. Valued at $150.

A very elegant pair of GENUINE LEMAIRE OPERA GLASSES, in pearl and gold. Value, $40.

For the little maidens we have procured a very beautiful FRENCH DOLL, the "Queen of the Fairies." She is three feet tall, has a sweet face, and is dressed in the height of Parisian fashion, with silks, satins and laces, and wearing an elaborate bonnet. In her tiny ears are a pair of genuine diamond earrings, the whole being worth more than $125. Any little girl under twelve years of age can procure a ticket free, without any consideration of purchase, by calling at Mr. Lytle's store, or enclosing an envelope, addressed and stamped.
