

MR. ARMOUR IS A BULL, Predicting That Wheat Will Very Soon Move Up, and the Millers Feel the Same Way.

Prices Were Higher, Trading Active but Speculative, Due to the Efforts of Local Talent.

Year Corn Shows a Decided Decline, Oats Advance and Provisions Were Dull and Flat.

Stocks Declining Sharply in Wall Street, the Market Closing Dull and Featureless.

Special to the Globe. CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—Our wheat market was very quiet and inactive to-day.

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—All wheat the local crowd of which traders lacked week. The prices dropped back before their attacks nearly 4 cents a bushel, and with each 1/2 cent decline that was gained the little "scalpers" yelled with delight.

THE RIFF-RAFF AND BORTAL. A speculating community, they could not look up the wheat market.

HELD THE MARKET. It would have been a relief about the millers to feel just the same on wheat as I did a month ago,

THE MARKETS WERE VERY CONTRARY TO-DAY, the speculators claimed. "The crowd" was and is working the short side of the wheat deal.

RECORDED A DECLINE. At 1/2 cent on year, the importance of corn on other futures.
