ST. PAUL, THURSDAY, FEB. 4, 1886.

THE WASHINGTON OFFICE OF THE GLOBE IS AT THE NORTHWEST CORNER OF PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE AND FOURTH STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

THE GLOBE IS ON SALE AT THE NATIONAL HOTEL, WASHINGTON, AND AT GEO. S. WHARTON, No. 5, Broadway, N. Y.

OFFICE OF CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 3, 10 p. m.—Observations taken at the same moment of time at all stations:

Table with columns: Stations, Wind, Weather, Clouds, etc. Includes entries for Duluth, La. Paul., Huron, Moorhead, etc.

THE HOME REPORT. Barometer, 30.1; thermometer, 15; relative humidity, 73; wind, northwest; weather, clear.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3, 10 a. m.—For the upper lake region: Fair weather, followed by the northwest portion during Friday by local snows.

WELCOME, BOREALIS. King BOREALIS, we greet you with a hearty welcome. The loyal subjects of your province thank you for the condescension of your visit.

How delightfully the illusion has been dispelled by your royal presence in our midst. Though the cold wave be your element, and you come to us clad in the cheerless robes of snow and frost.

ROYAL SNOBBERY. The latest exhibition of royal snobbery is to be found in the recent action of a gentleman who by the accident of birth and the decree of an inscrutable providence has been placed in the comfortable position of a heavy pensioner upon the over-burdened English people.

YESTERDAY'S TRIUMPH. Yesterday was a proud day for St. Paul. No citizen of the city could have witnessed the imposing ceremonies without experiencing a sensation of pride.

THE KING'S RECEPTION. As a general thing St. Paulites, in common with other democratic Americans, don't go much on royalty.

OUR MINNEAPOLIS BRETHREN. Our Minneapolis friends will be with us in the city to-morrow.

TELEGRAPHIC SPARKS. A. B. Strange, a prominent silk manufacturer of Patterson, N. J., is dead.

INJURED BY A FALLING FLOOR. OAKLAND, Ill., Feb. 3.—Last night, while 500 people were in a church at Harmony, four miles southeast of this city, the floor gave way.

SIX SAFE-BLOWERS CAUGHT. CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—In two dirty rooms, 47 West Adams, the police this morning pounced upon a dangerous gang of safe-blowers.

PROFITABLE DAIRYING. Was contented with the rocky pastures of the East, claiming that there could not be reproduced in quality on our Western prairies.

UNPRIVILEGED CLIMATE. Disease is practically unknown in our dairy regions. The reason is the more idealization of healthy contentment and the fountain source of the most healthy and nutritious food ever discovered for mankind.

THE WORK OF THE STRIKING COKE-DRAWERS BEGINS. The work of the striking coke-drawers begins. Some of the miners grimly preparing for bloodshed.

TURNED OUT OF THEIR HOUSES. CONNELLVILLE, Penn., Feb. 3.—Twenty of the striking miners of the coke region were evicted from the houses of the company to-day.

HOMELESS HUNGARIANS. The Work of the Striking Coke-drawers Begins. Some of the miners grimly preparing for bloodshed.

THE EVENING SESSION. Was opened with an address by Prof. Porter of the State Agricultural college, which was mainly devoted to an account of that institution and its work.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 3.—Dr. Wood, ex-dean of Bennett college, continues on the disappearance list.

As an earnest of the still greater and more splendid triumphs which the future holds in store, nothing could have been more auspicious.

Admirable though the details of the reception were, there was still one point to which exception must be taken. It is unnecessary to expect 6,000 people with comfort, or even safety, to enter and leave carnival hall through a single doorway three feet wide.

WHAT MARVELOUS DISCIPLINE. One of the phenomenal features of the carnival is the proficiency in drill displayed by the various clubs.

AN EVIDENCE OF PROSPERITY. That so many of our people have been able to enter completely into the carnival spirit bespeaks not only the liberality of St. Paul business men in allowing employees the time necessary for frequent appearance with the different clubs, but also an indication of the prosperity which our city has been enjoying.

opportunity on which to base their little fiction of ill feeling between the twin cities. Come on, Minneapolis. Our gates are open and so are our hearts.

THE GLADSTONE CABINET. Mr. GLADSTONE having, in compliance with the "command" of the queen, formed a new cabinet, it has been announced that an anxiously awaiting country. While it is hinted that its composition is in the nature of a compromise between the discordant elements of the Liberal party, the personnel of the premier's advisers is far from startling.

Members of the House Unable to Forget Silver. WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—In the senate the Riddleberger and Pugh resolutions relating to the relations between the president and the senate on appointments came up.

Another Day Wasted. The Riddleberger-Pugh Resolutions Referred to a Committee. Members of the House Unable to Forget Silver.

Officially Announced. LONDON, Feb. 3.—The new cabinet is officially announced as follows: Mr. Gladstone, prime minister and first lord of the treasury; Sir Farrer Herschell, lord high chancellor; Earl Spencer, secretary for the colonies; Earl Kimberley, secretary for India; Mr. H. Campbell Bannerman, secretary for war; Sir William Vernon Harcourt, chancellor of the exchequer; the Marquis of Salisbury, first lord of the admiralty; Mr. J. Chamberlain, president of the local government board; Mr. George Trevelyan, secretary for Scotland; Mr. A. J. Mundell, president of the board of trade; Mr. John Morley, chief secretary for Ireland. The following appointments have been made under the new administration: Earl Sydney, lord steward of the queen's household; Mr. Arnold Morley, patronage secretary; Mr. Russell, attorney general. The composition of the new cabinet has caused a great surprise. It is thought to show marks of a compromise.

Reasons for Removals. No definite appointments to minor offices have been announced. The Daily News says that the new cabinet were well and especially approves of the appointment of the Earl of Roseberry and John Morley. It says the selection of the Earl of Kimberley for the Indian secretaryship is the only choice that is likely to meet with a negative approval. The absence of Sir William Vernon Harcourt from the cabinet is a matter of regret, which may, however, at no distant date be removed. The Standard says: "Mr. Gladstone in forming his cabinet has made the best of a bad situation. The members of the cabinet are of a high quality, and the selection of Earl Roseberry for the post of secretary of foreign affairs was the best that could be made, and promises well for the good will of Germany. The appointments most likely to elicit criticism are those of Sir William Vernon Harcourt and Mr. John Morley."

The Pope Has a Syncope. A serious strike is in progress at St. Quentin, department of Aisne, France. The weavers in four cotton mills there quit work yesterday, and they engaged in a riotous demonstration. A force of gendarmes succeeded in dispersing the mob, and the troops were confined to the barracks during the disturbance. An extension of the strike is feared. Advice from Mandalay, the capital of Burma, says the Dacoits have had several engagements with the British troops since the outbreak of the rebellion. The Dacoits were defeated with heavy loss. The officials at Mandalay believe that order will soon be completely restored throughout Burma.

Work of the Lower House. Mr. Mills Refers to Silver but Ferociously to Borealis. WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—In the house a communication was received from the postmaster general, stating that he could make no statement at present regarding changes in the railway mail service. Mr. Preston postmaster general continues to be a bone of contention, but the public satisfies itself when any irregularity in the arrival of the mails occurs by abusing both contestants.

meetings going on. The attendance Tuesday night was larger than ever. The floor commenced sinking, at first gradually, and finally fell with a crash. Men screamed and women shrieked as they went down together. The floor was full of five minutes' beggared description. All were hurled together, many on top of each other, and the groans of the injured were heart rending. That part of the floor where sat the stove remained, or the loss might have been greater had not the people been so quick to be removed from the debris and taken to houses near the church for treatment. So far there have been no deaths, but no hopes are entertained of the injured.
