Three Arguments on the Saloon Question From Three Standpoints, in a Church.

Rev. Dr. Dana Tells of the Duty of the Church to the Working-man.

Some Interesting Questions and Answers on Political Issues in Dakota.

A Vain Attempt of a Confidence Man--General Local News--Globoles.

ON THREE SIDES. Speakers Discuss the Temperance Question.

A discussion took place last night at the First Methodist church, Third street, on the relative merits of prohibition, low license and high license. On the platform were the Rev. W. W. Satterlee, S. G. Smith, pastor of the church, the Rev. W. W. Satterlee, S. G. Smith, pastor of the church, the Rev. W. W. Satterlee, S. G. Smith, pastor of the church...

FOR LOW LICENSE.

The Hon. W. J. Pyle followed. He said he was highly as well qualified as he should like to talk on such a subject, and it reminded him of the saloonkeeper who said that when a man talked temperance to him he liked to talk to a man of experience. He was very eloquent in his speech. The church ever since the days of John Wesley had taught temperance and propriety, but prohibition. Thirty-four years ago there occurred one of the most active legislative contests in this state...

IT DIDN'T WORK.

An Attempt of a Con. Man on a U. S. Marshal. The confidence man is so often successful that it is refreshing to hear that he occasionally gets left. Such was the case at the Ryan yesterday, when the fellows tackled the wrong man. One of the visitors to the carnival is Henry Marshall of Milwaukee, who has been deputy United States marshal at Duluth for some time...

FOR HIGH LICENSE.

Mr. J. G. Pyle advocated a higher license, and said that the state will either tax or prohibit. Prohibition is a principle and worse in practice, and if carried out in extent it would include many stimulants beside alcohol, and many an ardent prohibitionist would miss his cigar or cup of tea. He condemned the law as a principle and worse in practice, and if carried out in extent it would include many stimulants beside alcohol, and many an ardent prohibitionist would miss his cigar or cup of tea...

THE CHURCH'S DEBT.

Dr. Dana's Remarks on the Church and the Working Classes. What the Church owes to the Working Classes was the subject of Dr. Dana's remarks at the church last evening. His text was "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ."

Mr. Lorillard, Who Has Determined to Retire From the Breeding Turf, Will Breed for the Turf.

More Speculations as to Why He Abandoned the Turf--Alley Banner to be Handled by Carl S. Burr.

National Trotting Association to Meet in Chicago Feb. 10 to Consider Revising the Rules.

Outbreaker and Bermuda Likely to Come Together in a Race During the Coming Summer.

Speculation as to the Cause of It--What He Has Done for the Turf.

A correspondent of the Chicago Horseman has the following in regard to the retirement of Lorillard: The news that Mr. P. Lorillard had determined to retire from racing felt like a bombshell last week, alike to racing folk who were more or less intimate with the master of Ranocosa and the general public. The former had become accustomed through continued iteration to the fact that he was a man of great distinction and of high standing in the turf...

THE CLOSE OF THE WAR

asked to be retired, which request was granted. He then served as professor of military science at the University of Missouri for one year, and in our own country for a year and a half, but finally settled in our city, where he has always been connected with every movement calculated to advance and promote the interests of our city and state. The general married Miss Steele, sister of the late Franklin Steele, and they have a family of four children...

GLIBULES.

Joseph Drushak was arrested in West St. Paul last evening for wife-beating. A bursted steam pipe at 222 East Fourth street caused the fire department yesterday forenoon. A silver watch was found on Fourth street by Officer Scheffer last evening. It is held at the city hall for identification.

STILLWATER SIFTINGS.

A Horse-Thief Re-arrested on His Release From Prison.

The Industrial Boom--General Notes and Gossip.

A Bad Man. Three years ago Willis P. Chase was indicted in Blue Earth county for horse stealing.

Industrial Notes. The car company's force of workmen has been considerably increased since the first, and many additional hands will be employed.

Notes About Town. An unfortunate error was made in the Stillwater news Sunday. An item appeared stating that 15,000 Stillwater people attended the meeting...

THE COLD IN KENTUCKY.

We have had in Kentucky some three or four weeks of very bad weather, rain, snow and changes from mild to severe cold. At the best of times our climate is remarkable for its varied and rapid changes.

MISCELLANEOUS.

It is possible that Outbreaker and Bermuda, both of whom beat 2:30 last season two-year-olds, may come together this year in a match race. It would be a good deal of talk as to the respective merits of the colts, and in order to settle the question of superiority G. J. Fuller, the driver of Outbreaker, offers to bet $500 that his colt, who is to be entered in the match race, will be a better performer than Bermuda.

COOPED UP IN A COFFIN.

In a village not far from Boston an attempt was recently made to reform by fright a general old chap who was so strongly "in the grip" that he had to be carried to bed. Friends had labored with the erring brother in vain, and in despair he was left for any one to reform him who could, and in any way they chose.

THE BONES OF A BLOODY BATTLE.

Some two weeks since, at the foot of a lofty precipice, a Shoshone Indian found the skeletons of a man and a bear. In the grip of close and deadly combat they had toppled over the dizzy edge of the cliff to a crushed and mangled death on the jagged rocks below.
