

WATER EVERYWHERE.

Seven States Bordering on the Atlantic Suffering from an Aggravated Case of Liquid Torment.

Many Millions of Dollars' Worth of All Sorts of Property Destroyed by the Raging Floods.

Mills, Factories, Houses, Streets and Railways Inundated and Bridges Swept Away.

Five Hundred Boston People Forced to Live in the Second Stories of Their Houses.

Terrible Results of a Rainfall.

Boston, Feb. 13.—The rainfall in this city has been unprecedented. In the city the fall has been nearly six inches in two days, equal to the average fall of two months. A vast amount of minor damage has been done in many parts of New England, especially in roads and bridges, causing serious delays to travel.

MILLS HAVE SHUT DOWN. At Yonkers the Old Colton railroad refuses to sell tickets to most points on its line. Business men are moving their offices to the second stories of their buildings.

At East Weymouth every factory is closed. Whitman's pond dam is on the point of giving way. This will close the entire valley through which the flood is streaming.

At Concord, N. H., and further north the telephone and telegraph wires are all down. There is great ruin and damage on every hand. The snow is rapidly disappearing and the streets are flooded.

At Attleboro, Mass., the streets are full of water. Whitney's dam is gone and the dam at Mechanics mill probably go. No trains are running and no mail has arrived.

At New Haven, Conn., Feb. 13.—Not for years has such a severe storm occurred as that which began on Thursday last. The great expanse of low lands between this city and the sea was transformed into a lake by the overflowing of the Quinnipiac river.

At Trenton, N. J., Feb. 13.—The cellars in the business portion of the city are flooded and the damage to factories, residences, live stock and merchandise will reach $50,000.

CONSIGNED TO EARTH.

The Remains of Gen. Hancock Buried Beside Those of His Daughter Gene Before, at Norristown, Pa.

All of the Ceremonies of an Impressive Nature, Though Conducted Without Military Pageantry.

The Funeral of Ex-Gov. Seymour to Occur on Tuesday.—Telegrams from Cleveland and Tilden.

Tribute to the Memory of the Dead Statesman by the Congressmen of the Empire State.

Gen. Hancock Buried.

New York, Feb. 13.—The body of Gen. Hancock was brought over from Governor's Island this morning at 10 o'clock and the remains of the general, in the carriage containing the pall-bearers, arrived at Trinity church at 10 o'clock.

At Norristown, Pa., the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

At Trenton, N. J., the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

At New York, the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

At Philadelphia, the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

At Washington, the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

At Baltimore, the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

At New York, the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

At New York, the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

At New York, the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

At New York, the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

At New York, the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

At New York, the remains of Gen. Hancock were buried in the presence of a large number of friends.

LONDON QUIET AGAIN.

The Panic Caused by the Great Riot in the English Metropolis Beginning to Subside.

And Indignation Rising on Every Hand at the Imbecility of the Gladstone Ministry.

Parnell's Threat to Resign Believed to Be a Bluff—Churchill's Withering Ridicule.

King Milan Will Treat with Bulgaria for Peace With Consulting Greece.

Peace in London.

Monday, Feb. 13.—Three hours of riot Monday were followed by three days of panic. The riot, serious enough in itself, became much more serious owing to the incapacity of the police authorities and to the timidity of the public.

At Vienna, the situation is becoming more serious. The Austrian government is making every effort to maintain order.

At Berlin, the situation is becoming more serious. The Prussian government is making every effort to maintain order.

At Rome, the situation is becoming more serious. The Italian government is making every effort to maintain order.

At Paris, the situation is becoming more serious. The French government is making every effort to maintain order.

At London, the situation is becoming more serious. The British government is making every effort to maintain order.

At New York, the situation is becoming more serious. The American government is making every effort to maintain order.

At Boston, the situation is becoming more serious. The Massachusetts government is making every effort to maintain order.

At Philadelphia, the situation is becoming more serious. The Pennsylvania government is making every effort to maintain order.

At New York, the situation is becoming more serious. The New York government is making every effort to maintain order.

At New York, the situation is becoming more serious. The New York government is making every effort to maintain order.

At New York, the situation is becoming more serious. The New York government is making every effort to maintain order.

At New York, the situation is becoming more serious. The New York government is making every effort to maintain order.

THE DEAD STATESMAN.

Feeling Letters From President Cleveland and Mr. Tilden.

Utica, N. Y., Feb. 13.—The funeral of ex-Gov. Seymour will take place from Trinity church, Utica, at 3 p. m. Tuesday.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 13.—I wish the grief of the people who mourn a citizen of national fame and a Christian gentleman in the past example might be a source of bereavement and assuage the sorrow of his stricken wife.

Hon. S. J. Tilden telegraphs as follows: New York, Feb. 13.—I learn this morning the sorrowful news of the death of your illustrious brother.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That in the private walks of life, as well as in the performance of public duty, he was distinguished by his high character and his unselfish devotion to the interests of his fellow-citizens.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

Resolved, That the representatives of the state of New York in congress have received with profound sorrow the news of the irreparable loss of our fellow citizen, the late Hon. Seymour.

HER HONOR ASSAILED.

A Pretty Indiana Blonde Charged by a Rejected Suitor With Being a Bad Character.

The Whole Community Excited and the Accuser Threatened With a Coat of Tar and Feathers.

A Suit for Slander Instituted by the Enraged Father of the Defamed Young Lady.

The Salvation Army the Indirect Cause of the Union of a Pair of Interesting Dwarfs.

Accused of Being Unethical.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 13.—The people of Riley township, several miles south of this city, are greatly excited by some recent developments, and fears are entertained by the friends of the originator of the trouble that he may be roughly dealt with before an action to determine the merits of the case can be tried in the courts.

The cause of the trouble, which has a very peculiar origin, is as follows, as near as could be ascertained this afternoon when the matter first became public.

Threatened to Resign. Mr. Parnell at Galway threatened that if Mr. Healey and Mr. Biggar did not permit him to have his own way in giving the party nomination to Capt. O'Shea, instead of Mr. Lynch, the local choice, he would resign and retire from political life.

Significant of War. Vienna, Feb. 13.—Herr Hausner, a Galician deputy in the reichstag, last evening made a violent attack upon Prince Bismarck's policy of expulsion of the Poles from Prussia.

Friendship Between Nations. Berlin, Feb. 13.—A meeting was held in the committee room of the reichstag today for the purpose of forming a Prussian society the object of which is to promote friendly understanding between nations.

King Milan Tired of War. London, Feb. 13.—A dispatch from Vienna to the Times says: Official information has reached here from Belgrade to the effect that King Milan has resolved to sign a treaty of peace with Bulgaria, no matter what the conditions.

Foreign Finishes. Quiet prevailed in London throughout yesterday. There are no signs of fresh rioting. The great firm of engineers, John Penn & Sons of Greenwich, and Deftford, Pierce, S. & Co. of London, have been engaged to erect a mansion house relief fund for unemployed workmen.

Late Minneapolis News. Washington Rink Kept Open with a Fine Program of Sports. Washington rink was reopened last night under the management of T. W. Eck, the cyclist.

Wounded and Bleeding. A few minutes before 3 o'clock this morning Frank Butler, laborer, was found by Officers Anderson and Helrich lying at the corner of Fourth street and Sixteenth avenue north badly cut about the head and bleeding quite freely.

Should Not be Divided. Dakota is the only territory at present populous enough to merit admission, and it should come in, if at all, as one state. To divide it would be to add another rotten borough.

Melting in Midwinter. Chicago Herald. It is a very fortunate circumstance that a cool breeze should spring up in St. Paul this morning in time to save the ice palace from melting.

Two Men Burned to Death. St. George, Ont., Feb. 13.—Fire broke out in Cumming's hotel about 4 o'clock this morning, completely demolishing it, together with its contents.

Demands an Investigation. Louisville, Ky., Feb. 13.—The publication of the Daily News and Telegraph, charging that Senator Boies of Warren county lived openly with his negro mistress at Frankfort, Ky., caused that senator to demand an investigation to-day.