THE TEACHERS. County Superintendent Wraaman Calls the Next Institute.

Prof. W. W. Wraaman, county superintendent of schools, has issued the following address to the teachers of the county: Your attention is called to the early examination of pupils who have completed the elementary course of study.

In school not having "A" classes, the teacher is cautioned to allow no person to see the questions until the examination in the county is closed. The closing oral examinations and commencements will be held as follows: Richfield school district, No. 6, Wednesday, March 2; Maple Plain school district, No. 1, Friday, March 3; Woodbury school district, No. 49, Tuesday, March 9; Osseo school district, No. 43, Friday, March 13.

The following notice is also issued for the coming teachers' institute. The institute for the coming season will, according to the advancement of teachers in the several counties, be organized for both elementary and advanced methods. The general plan will be to give instruction in two classes, for a part of each half day, and for the other part to discuss the various subjects of general application, as school management, drawing, penmanship and general lessons.

Thomas Lowry to Chicago News.—The thing most talked of in our city at present is the industrial exposition which is being organized for next fall. It is not to be established for next year, but is to be a permanent institution, just like the exposition here in Chicago, and we shall try to make it outrun yours in point of variety of display and general interest.

Col. King, on North American Telegraph Company.—Our contracts with the United States has been revised and definitely agreed upon. The new rates are most likely to be favorable to the North American company than the original draft presented to our stockholders.

Hotel Gossip. The Clark house on Sunday evening had a session. One of the girls of the juvenile "Mikado" company, a young blonde who is considerably under twenty years of age, suddenly disappeared.

District Court Briefs. The Record of a Quiet Day.—Hitt About Paulson was yesterday committed by Probate Judge Ueland to the Rochester asylum as insane.

Minneapolis Sports. BASE BALL. There is now little doubt that the Northwestern base ball league will be organized. Ted Sullivan is a rustier, and he has gone to work in dead earnest.

They Held the Fort. QUINCY, Feb. 16.—The postoffice here is still in operation. Postmaster Walters was driven from his office some time ago by a party of men to whom he had become obnoxious, but his relatives still hold the office against a large party of besiegers, who seem determined to gain possession of the premises.

General Political Gossip. William McArdle, who has been mentioned in connection with the Third ward federal campaign, has announced that he is not a candidate. He had one struggle, and is tired of politics.

Various Aldermanic Contests and General Gossip of the Political Arena. With the Republicans in the Minneapolis mayoralty contest, it is merely a question whether Mayor Pillsbury will maintain his spinal column in its present rigid perpendicularity, or whether he will hearken to the Macedonian cry for aid that is going up all along the line.

Police Gatherings. Emma Wyman, Mattie Jones and Ella Palmer for keeping houses of ill-fame paid fines of $25.50 each yesterday.

Company B's Election. Company B, First regiment, M. N. G., held its annual meeting last night, and after disposing of its routine business elected officers as follows: Captain, V. G. Welch; first lieutenant, S. G. Williams; second lieutenant, G. E. Austin.

CAMPAIGN CLATTER.

Democrats United and Hopeful, Republicans Divided and Desperate.

The piece of Republican bombast to the effect that this is to be a campaign to decide whether the city government shall be run on a "wide-open" policy or not, will not wash. The issue is grossly exaggerated. Literally, it is whether it shall be a liberal or a narrow-gauge or iron-clad government.

Col. King Declines, and a Howl for the Pillsbury Gold Goes Out. The Paperhangers' Protectional association held its second meeting last evening at the Northwestern permanent exhibit and builders exchange.
