

Daily Globe. PUBLISHED EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR. LEWIS BAKER. ST. PAUL, THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1886.

THE ST. PAUL GLOBE Has a Larger Circulation than that of Any Other Newspaper Printed Northwest of Chicago, and its Steadily and Rapidly Increasing Keeping Pace with the Growth of the Great City of which the GLOBE is Admittedly the Journalistic Representative.

THE CYCLONE HORROR. The cyclone has again marked out its path of desolation across Minnesota territory, and the horrors of New Ulm and Rochester have been repeated at St. Cloud and Sauk Rapids.

There is nothing on earth good enough for a Chicagoan. And there is a story that once upon a time a Chicago man was admitted to heaven, but it was done with fair warning from the keepers of the celestial gates that he wouldn't like it.

THE ST. LOUIS PLAN. A great deal has been spoken and written about the disturbed condition of our industrial system, and a great many arguments have been advanced in favor of various plans that have been suggested for a settlement of the differences which are constantly arising between those who pay wages and those who receive.

THE FOE OF MONOPOLY. In your issue of yesterday you say that the Republican party is directly responsible for the labor troubles. Did not monopolies exist and strikes occur under the fifty years of Democratic rule preceding the war?

AN INDEPENDENT VOTER. No. There was no occasion for strikes during the half century of Democratic supremacy, and there was no opportunity for the existence of monopolies. The Democratic party came into existence as a protest against the tendency of the old Federal party toward aristocracy.

POPULATION OF THE COUNTRY. To the Editor of the Globe: The first census report that was published was in 1790 when the population of the United States was 3,929,214.

CYCLONES. To the Editor of the Globe: Please explain to one who is ignorant of the true theory of cyclones, the scientific definition of a cyclone, where it originates and the cause of its origin.

IT WILL BE DONE. Recognizing the fact that St. Paul and Minneapolis have succeeded to the position that Chicago Eastern Trust and the Bismarck Journal express the opinion that the two cities will not gain all they might have until the Northern Pacific co-operates with them for the development of the traffic of Northern Dakota and Montana.

correctly described as an ascending spiral, and the wind moves in a circuit about the storm center. The peculiar funnel shape of a cyclone cloud is explained by REYE in the following manner: "While on the earth's surface the storm wind in spiral curves gradually flows inward, it forces the flying storm clouds in spiral curves outward, and removes them away from the axis of the cyclone."

AN INJURED PATRIOT. JAY GOULD complains that justice has been done him. He is right about it. Bishop BOWMAN says that in all justice somebody ought to be kicking Jay Gould around through the streets of New York.

AN EARLY CROP. The phenomenal condition of the elements at this season of the year will recall to Bible readers the predictions which have been made in holy writ concerning the end of time.

WESTERN LIBERALITY IS NOT A MISNOMER. St. Cloud and Sauk Rapids need aid. But to those who do not rely upon prophesies and who attribute all disturbances to natural causes, there will be an earnest effort to unravel the mysteries of the year's phenomena.

WARD TO PLEASE. There is nothing on earth good enough for a Chicagoan. And there is a story that once upon a time a Chicago man was admitted to heaven, but it was done with fair warning from the keepers of the celestial gates that he wouldn't like it.

MIDST THE MADDING THROG. Senator R. B. Langdon of Minnesota is not a believer in prohibition, and is particularly enthusiastic over patrol limits. Talking with me about prohibition he said ten or twelve years ago he had occasion to go back to his native state, Vermont, at the opening of the state campaign.

COMMENDABLE ENTERPRISE. The Dakota edition of the St. Paul Globe shows commendable enterprise. As the scope of the paper is a question of time and space, it would be a great triumph for woman suffrage.

THE MAN OF MEYER. NEW YORK, April 14.—The following correspondence is self explanatory: "Dear Sir, I received your letter of the 11th inst. and in reply to inform you that I have no objection to your using my name in your paper."

TO THE BITTER END. Master Workman Powderly Informs Jay Gould of the Probable Outcome of the Strike Unless He Settles It. Labor and Capital to Meet in a Struggle for Supremacy Which Shall Last for All Time.

THE COURTS SELECTED FOR THE COMBAT BETWEEN THE MONARCH OF MONEY AND THE MEN OF MUSCLE. A Challenge to the Great Financier to Meet the Knights of Labor in the Legal Ring.

AN APPEAL FROM POWDERLY. NEW YORK, April 14.—The following correspondence is self explanatory: "Dear Sir, I received your letter of the 11th inst. and in reply to inform you that I have no objection to your using my name in your paper."

THE PART OF WISDOM. To bring that question up in the settlement of the strike, when I was in the city that evening you had prepared, as the result of your understanding of the morning's work, to bring that question up in the settlement of the strike.

INASMUCH AS YESTERDAY'S real estate transfers footed up over $150,000, it looks very much as though the edge of the usual spring boom has reached St. Paul.

MR. GOULD'S REPLY. Mr. Gould's reply to the challenge of the Knights of Labor is a masterpiece of evasion. He says that he has no objection to the Knights of Labor using his name in their paper.

THE SITUATION AT ST. LOUIS. ST. LOUIS, April 14.—Master Workman Martin Irons is expected to arrive in this city tomorrow. He is the president of the Knights of Labor, and is expected to be the chief speaker at the meeting of the Knights of Labor in St. Louis.

THE LONDON LOYAL PATRIOTE UNION IN MASS MEETING. Meeting Inquires of Mr. Gladstone "Quis Separavit?" The Premier's Scheme for Irish Independence Denounced by Members of Parliament.

ENGLAND DECLARED TO BE STANDING FACE TO FACE WITH A GREAT NATIONAL CALAMITY. A Year, Which if the Bill Were Allowed to Pass, Would Mark the Decline of the Empire.

A BIG MASS MEETING. LONDON, April 14.—Extensive arrangements had been made for the meeting called by the Loyal Patriote Union, which was held in Her Majesty's opera house to-night for the purpose of denouncing Mr. Gladstone's Irish home rule scheme.

THE WRITERS DEMAND. The home-rule bill, saying it would be unworkable and would involve the kingdom in a series of dangers.
