WASHINGTON HEIGHTS. Was the Name Decided on for the Village South of the City.

Quite a large meeting was held last evening at the McClung school house in Dakota county, just beyond the southern limit of West St. Paul, for the purpose of taking final action in regard to forming a town that has been heretofore called St. Dennis. The meeting seemed to be almost unanimous in regard to the project, and went through without much trouble. Judge Wood and Mr. Wilde made remarks. Several gentlemen expressed some mild opposition, but these were soon satisfied and came around quite readily to approve the proposition. Mr. J. W. Iverson made chairman of the meeting and William Burcher secretary. The committee appointed at a former meeting reported in favor of naming the proposed town Washington Heights, and in favor of including as the town the west half of section 16, and all of sections 17, 18, 19 and 20. The name of the town was readily adopted without much discussion. The amount of territory to be included was talked over more at length, but that too was adopted. The meeting proved to be a very harmonious one. It is said there is a population of about 3,000 people in that locality, who constitute a thrifty, well-to-do community. The town organization will do much for them, as they can now go to work and improve their streets, which they could not do before.

ALL IN A HURRY. Men at the Hotels, and Their Views on Current Events.

E. G. Holmes, Detroit, was an arrival yesterday. He said that political affairs in the Fifth Congressional district were not warming up as yet, although there was some talk as to Knute Nelson's successor. The latter, it was announced, was in the hands of his friends, which being politically interpreted, meant that he was in the race for a renomination provided it appeared possible that such renomination could be secured. Mr. Holmes thought that Senator Comstock of Moorhead was a candidate for the place, and others would find it convenient to seek a nomination before the time of the convention. He had heard that Senator Steenson of Crookston was thinking of making the canvass, and if he began the fight his candidacy would have a tendency to divide the Scandinavian forces now held by Nelson.

Dr. A. Guernon, the collector of customs at St. Vincent, who has been in the city on official business, returned to his home. He said that St. Vincent was the only port in the country which had a sub-port (St. Paul) which did a greater amount of business than itself, and the sub-port was growing in importance all the time, while St. Vincent failed to keep up. Dr. Guernon, before his appointment, resided at Little Falls, and his wife, who was in the present time. The town of Little Falls is not far distant from St. Cloud, and evidences of the recent cyclone were visible at Little Falls in the shape of debris of every character, blown there from Sauk Rapids and St. Cloud.

Clarence Bowen, Brooklyn, N. Y., was an arrival at the Merchants. He is the son of Henry Bowen, proprietor of the Independent, who figured quite extensively in the Bowen-Hilton scandal. Young Bowen is now in St. Paul, where he owns a large ranch, which he visits regularly every spring. He is in business in the East, and runs the ranch as a little outside speculation.

J. E. Hagart, Fargo, was registered among the yesterday's arrivals. He is sheriff of that county and has been for a number of years, having been re-elected several times. He is a very efficient officer and seems to have drawn attention to himself in Washington and was by the latter returned to its donor with the explanation that a president could not afford to receive gifts from anybody. The diamond merchant being different from his kind and character from the traditions of his race, took back the jewel and finally sold it to Minnie Palmer.

A. H. Bertram, Monticello, was in the city yesterday. He is known as the agricultural cartoonist who drew his salary with great regularity from the state treasury last winter as an attaché of the legislature. He draws a cartoon for publication and then goes out into the country and gets into his cyclone cellar. He rides for a day or two and then comes out and draws again. He did some valiant work for Dr. Ames, the Democratic mayor of Minneapolis, in the late municipal contest, by getting up cartoons for the Minneapolis Tribune.

THE RELIEF FUND. Statement of the Contributions Sent for Cyclone Sufferers.

The mayor of Winona writes to the governor that he has $400 in cash and $650 in lumber yet to be delivered, which is an addition to the $1,300 mentioned in the statement above.

STREET SAYINGS. Two lawyers from Kansas stood in the rotunda of the Ryan yesterday afternoon engaged in conversation. One was a man who would weigh 250 pounds. The other was hardly half his weight. They were against each other in a rather important case and the conversation waxed warm until at last the heavy man called the little fellow a hard name. It was no sooner out of his mouth, however, than the little man reached out and coupled his right fist with the heavy man's nose and the moon was immediately covered with blood. The friends of the big man took him into the lavatory and washed him up, while the little chap invited the crowd out to drink.

Gen. McLaren tells a pretty good story of how he let a fortune slip through his fingers. When he was 21 years old he went to Portland, Or., and soon amassed the enormous sum of $80. He considered for a time what he should do with it and at last settled the question by walking into a real estate office and purchasing a lot with it. A few months after he discovered that he had lost the deed, and as he couldn't prove his property it soon fell into the hands of tax-title sharks, and the general forgot it. Twenty years later the courts of Oregon set aside the tax-title laws, and the general received a letter from Portland asking if he didn't own a certain lot there. He replied that he did, and found that it was covered by brick buildings and was worth between $25,000 and $30,000. He gave a quit-claim deed of the property for $2,100 cash.

Probably a Crank's Work. Postmaster Day has received a letter from one D. L. Thompson, postmarked Essex Junction, Vt. It embraces eight pages, written so closely that it requires a magnifying glass to read it with any comfort, and is a screed on the cyclone and divine revelation concerning the errors of humanity. Although there is no date on the manuscript, it has a flaming pictorial head of pen work by a very poor artist. No one has yet ventured to read the epistle, all the postoffice employees claiming that "life is too short." Dr. Day says he only knows it is from Essex Junction, Vt., and has a strong suspicion that there is a lunatic asylum near there which has suffered one of its inmates to get away.

Mrs. Mosher Set Right. Mr. and Mrs. Mosher, whose names have been mentioned in the GLOBE in connection with the arrest of the former lady, say that an injustice has been done them in the reports printed. They state that not only was Mrs. Mosher discharged when brought into the court, but that the judge took occasion to reprimand the prosecution for bringing action on such groundless charges. They have paid their rent at Mrs. Friend's boarding house, and propose to stay at their present quarters until the time expires.

Amateur Theatricals. Garfield Post hall was jammed last evening at the amateur rendition of "The Planter's Daughter," a drama written by G. A. Lafayette of St. Paul, who also sustained the leading part. The plot is an interesting one, and the play was well rendered and received. The cast of characters was as follows: Anita, Mrs. Eva Evans; lieutenant, Mr. G. A. Lafayette; doctor, Mr. J. L. Crosby; general, Mr. J. Sanders; Dana, Mrs. Kinney; planter's wife, Miss Hunter; servant, Mr. J. P. Lafayette; first ruffian, Mr. Austin; second ruffian, Mr. Morris.

GLOBULES. The Graceville Investment company has incorporated with a capital of $50,000. Health officer bulletin: scarlet fever, 919 De Soto and 877 Clark; births, 3; deaths, 11. The ladies of the Central W. C. T. U. will meet to-day at 3 p. m. at 58 East Seventh street.

The board of abatement will meet next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the county auditor's office.

The committee on uniform statistics continued its labors yesterday and will try to reach definite conclusions to-day.

The disorderly Chinaman, arrested by Officer Pat Gibbons on Tuesday, had his case continued until April 23 yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bailey of Igharot street, have been made happy by the appearance of an eight and one-half pound boy in their family.

The John Manufacturing company obtained judgment amounting to $325.95 against William F. Pickler in the district court yesterday by default.

A man catching, who was arrested for keeping a disorderly house on the corner of Commercial and Third was fined $20 yesterday by Judge Cory.

The railroad commissioners will visit Shakopee to-day to investigate the depot facilities at that place in response to complaints from citizens.

There will be a meeting of the Banner Guard Temperance society at the First Presbyterian church, corner Woodward and Lafayette avenues.

The one-story frame shanty of Mrs. Sallie Cook, situated on the corner of Park and 12th streets, caught fire last night. The blaze was put out with a loss of about $50.

The Junior Dancing club will give the receipts of their first annual concert on Monday evening, April 20, at the city hall, in aid of the cyclone sufferers of St. Cloud and Sauk Rapids.

The Milwaukee company has signified its intention to erect depots at Lakeland and Vermilion in accordance with orders recently issued by the railroad commissioners.

The charming portrait of Lill Lehmann, which has been the subject of so many windows. It is the picture of a lyric queen.

Mr. C. B. Gilbert will give a free lecture at Unity club rooms on Thursday evening next, April 22. His subject is the Mutual Obligations of the Governing and the Governed.

Bulldog Kelly made a friendly call on United States Marshal Denny yesterday morning, probably experimenting on walking into and about the building without being in custody.

Subscribers to the exposition popular may expect their seats for the concert on Monday at the Grand any time after this morning. The general sale will be open to-morrow morning.

The mayor received $25 yesterday, contributed by various persons for the relief of the cyclone sufferers. R. A. Taylor, secretary of the New York association, sent a check for $50.

Dr. H. and Owens have returned from St. Cloud and reported to Mayor Rice that their services were no longer required. Dr. Day will continue on the grounds for a few days further.

Yellowstone Vic and Montana Bill, the scouter, who has returned for a week's engagement, are drawing large houses at the Seventh street museum.

Services will be held on Good Friday at the church of the Good Shepherd at 9 o'clock a. m., noon, and 7:30 p. m. The subject of the address at the services will be the "Magnetism of the Cross."

The committee on printing of the county commissioner will open bids on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the county supply of stationery and for the necessary printing for the ensuing year.

Joseph O'Gorman was appointed special administrator of the estate of James E. Grady in probate court yesterday. Paulina A. Anderson will be examined on information of Lill Lehmann as to the opening of the Cincinatti festival. The sale opened in that city to the largest receipts in the history of the society. This great artist sings at the last exposition which occurs at the Grand on Monday evening.

The sale of seats for subscribers to the third concert of the popular series of Lill Lehmann, Franz Hummel and Ovide Musin will begin at the Grand opera house box office this morning. "Shadows of a Great City" again this evening.

Ann Powers, through her attorneys, S. P. Crosby and Rogers & Howley, has sued the city of St. Paul for $10,000 because of injuries received by falling into a hole in the sidewalk on McNeal street near Forbes, on the 11th day of September, 1884. She alleges that she sustained injuries from which she is a cripple for life.

Judge Brill filed a decision yesterday in the case of James E. Glass et al. vs. Thomas Neeter, a complicated suit over the failure to transport some lumber as per contract. The decision is that the plaintiffs are not entitled to recover anything and that defendant is to his costs and disbursements.

Mrs. Julia A. Wood, postmistress at Sauk Rapids, has written a letter to Postmaster Day of this city, stating that her postoffice outfit was entirely destroyed by the cyclone, and asking if the postmaster here and at Minneapolis cannot do something toward purchasing her a new one. Dr. Day has inclosed her letter to the Yale & Towne Manufacturing company, at Stamford, Conn., giving them an opportunity to contribute an outfit of boxes.

NORTHWESTERN RATES.

The Roads Agree to Restore the Old Rates.

Northern Pacific Changes-Transcontinental Advance.

Restoring Rates. CHICAGO, April 21.—The general freight agents of the Northwestern lines met here to-day and after consultation agreed that instead of the eight and ten-cent rates in vogue on all classes for some time past, the tariff should be as follows:

First-class, 50 cents; second, 35 cents; third, 20 cents; fourth, 15 cents; fifth, 12 1/2 cents; D, 10 cents; agricultural implements, 5 cents per 100 lbs; cattle, $40; sheep, $32; same, tiered, $50; locomotives, $40; coal, pig and railroad iron, $2 per ton.

These rates are west-bound. The east-bound rates were left untouched. The action, it is understood, was taken more with a view to maintaining Omaha rates than with the expectation that at present any thing more than a nominal advance could be made in the Northwestern tariff. None of the questions that brought about the recent break-up were discussed.

Changes on the Northern Pacific. J. T. Odell, assistant general manager of the Northern Pacific railway, has issued a circular, which makes the following changes and appointments, to take effect May 1:

M. C. Kimberly, superintendent St. Paul division, and L. F. & D. R. R.; office, Minneapolis; depot, St. R. Alsie, superintendent East and West Minnesota and Wisconsin divisions and N. P. & B. H. R. R.; office, Brainerd, Minn.; F. W. D. Holbrook, superintendent Montana division and branches; office, Livingston, Mont.; F. W. Wilsey, lease agent, Eastern divisions; office, St. Paul, Minn.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC. Measures Being Taken for a Big Celebration of the Opening.

Special to the Globe. OTTAWA, Ont., April 21.—It is proposed that the Canadian Pacific railway should be opened with all the pomp and parade of a national celebration. Mr. Tasse, member of the house from Ottawa, has given notice of a motion.

That the Pacific railway, which is now at the point of completion, will furnish an interrupted line of communication across the continent; that the railway is a bond of commercial and political union between the provinces of the dominion; that it will be the creator of prosperous provinces, the most fertile and fertile of the continent, the crown of confederation; that this railway is the greatest continuous line in existence; that no other enterprise so colossal has ever been undertaken by a people of four millions, and that this chamber is of the opinion that measures should be taken to celebrate in a fitting manner the inauguration of the Canadian Pacific railway by taking one of the great public works of the country.

The belief exists here that if the resolutions are adopted the government will provide a celebration on a grand scale, that will include the presence of English, Scotch, and Irish noblemen, and probably the Prince and Princess of Wales. Were it not for the poor condition of Sir John's health, the chances for the event would be much better than they are now. The Canadian Pacific railway is much in favor of the proposed celebration, so also are the French Canadians, one of the most popular of whom is promoting the motion. The English conservatives favor the idea, but the reformers—some of them at least—strongly oppose it. It is a fitting climax to the reckless expenditures, which have characterized the government's Canadian Pacific management throughout.

FARGO, April 21.—The charter of the Fargo & Northern railroad has been received from the secretary's office and the following directors, all money men of Fargo, were elected to-night: Charles Swartz, J. B. Folsom, R. S. Tyler, W. R. Roberts, J. S. Woodruff, C. G. Roberts, O. W. Francis, A. McElish and T. E. Yerxa. They elected as officers: Charles Swartz, president; J. S. Woodruff, vice president; W. B. Douglas, secretary; R. S. Tyler, treasurer. The object of this company is to buy one or more railroads in the northeast of Fargo in the interest of the trade of the city, especially jobbing. The men at the head of it are amply able to build and it is said that work will commence very soon. President Monroe of the Missouri River system is in the city and states that he has secured the interest and will build this season from Pierre to La Moure.

Investigating a Scandal. OTTAWA, Ont., April 21.—To-day at a meeting of the railway committee who are investigating the Northwest Central railway scandal, which involves charges made against Mr. Beatty, member of parliament for Toronto, and others, to the effect that they had accepted stock in the Northwest Central railway for using their influence to obtain a land grant for the road.

Mr. Woodworth, M. P., read a letter he had received from E. A. C. Pew of New York, who contained the statement that a certain person in New York had made Mr. Beatty an offer to build the road, and in considering the offer Mr. Beatty had remarked in the offer for himself and his associates, and that if the contractor in question would agree to pay a cash bonus of $1,500 per mile to him, making the aggregate $675,000, he would accept the offer.

The Texas Pacific. PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—The committee for the reorganization of the Texas Pacific railroad met in this city to-day. After a long session it was decided that it would be impossible to reach a plan of reorganization that even the committee could recommend. It was then resolved that a call should be made for a meeting of bondholders at an early day to consider a proposition for the purchase of the Eastern division of the Texas Pacific system. They were asked to accept, it is stated, a new 5 per cent. for their present 6 per cent. bonds and second mortgage bonds for their past due interest. Their bonds are secured by the Eastern division, which has always earned its interest.

Looking After Lumber Rates. CHICAGO, April 21.—Members of the Iowa Central railway association were in session to-day, attempting to form a pool to cover lumber business into Des Moines. An agreement was submitted and provided that the percentage of the several roads should be arbitrated. An effort was then made to appoint arbitrators, but proved unsuccessful, and action was deferred to the present.

Transcontinental Rates. CHICAGO, April 21.—The Union Pacific and the Burlington & Missouri River roads to-day gave notice of another advance in transcontinental passenger rates, to take effect to-morrow. The advance is equivalent to an increase of $8 to the net rates, both first and second class.

Rail Notes. Twenty-five people from Putnam county, Missouri, left for the eastern part of Washington Territory by the Northern Pacific yesterday morning. They were accompanied by Sheriff Bogart. The water registers ten feet three inches above low water mark at this point. Mortimer Morse received a fifty-four-inch bicycle this morning from Boston.

Easter Supper and Sociable. Thursday evening, April 23, you can pass a very pleasant evening at the Woodland Park Baptist church. The ladies propose to serve a magnificent supper, while the musical committee will see that a nice program is arranged. You can procure supper from 6 to 9. You will be welcomed by pleasant friends at the door and made to feel at home. You will only pay for what you eat and will not be asked to make any subscriptions, nor will any collection be taken. This is a purely social affair. Come and bring your friends.

Steamship Arrivals. London—Fennland from New York for Antwerp. New York—Belgenland from Antwerp.

Rupture radically cured, also piles tumors and fistula. Pamphlet of particulars 10 cents in stamps. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
