QUARTET OF LIEUTENANTS.

The Four Officers in Command at the Police Precincts.

It goes without saying that the new police force will soon make itself known to the people of the city. No one who knows Mayor Ames will doubt this. But before that time the four officers in command at the police precincts will gradually introduce themselves to the public.

John M. Hoy, lieutenant of the Second precinct, is now a clerk in Janney, Scoville & Co.'s, and though accustomed to hard work, is not quite certain whether he could endure the hard wear of a policeman's lot.

Swan Walton, as his name implies, is a Swede, and well represents that nationality on the force. Ever since the mounted patrol was established he has been a member of it, and as a good officer he earned promotion.

FROM SCIENCE'S STANDPOINT. An Entertainment for the Benefit of Cyclone Sufferers. An audience, not large in numbers, but composed of the representative people of the city, assembled at Leland rink last evening to hear the recited cyclone at Sauk Rapids and St. Cloud discussed by able and scientific means.
