NO MORE PEN PICTURES.

Maj. Newson has had enough of his false friends.

Maj. T. M. Newson, late candidate for city treasurer, said in his office yesterday afternoon looking as smiling as if there had been no snowstorm the day before.

"I am now going to get back to my old lines of thought," he said to a GLOBE reporter who called, "and except that I have been thrown a little out of gear by the fact of my candidacy, I don't see that I am any the loser by the campaign. It has involved me in very little expense, my character has not been assailed, I have not been charged with being dishonest, and at my time of life, with the heavy responsibilities that are connected with the office of city treasurer, perhaps it is well that the election resulted as it did.

LOCAL LABOR.

Strikes, Old and New--The Cabinet-makers Keep Things Going.

"I want you to send a man up to the house right away," said a trim little lady, as she lunched into a plumber's shop yesterday afternoon.

A POSSIBLE CONTEST.

Alleged Reasons Why Aid. Long May Contest the Seventh Ward Aldermanic Election.

THE LAW TO GOVERN THE CASE IF STUDENTS VOTED LAID DOWN BY CONSTITUTION.

Statements of Two of the Election Judges in Which They Knew of No Fraud.

MR. LONG WILL SECURE LEGAL ADVICE BEFORE ASKING FOR AN INVESTIGATION.

THE ELECTION-DAY STORY.

There is possibility of a contest over the Seventh ward election. Aid. Long, who lost the election by forty-two votes, charges the judges at Hamline and Merriam Park with conspiring against him, and claims that the students of the colleges at Merriam Park were allowed to vote, when it was well known that they had no right to do so.

MR. LONG'S STATEMENT.

They worked against me at Hamline, St. Anthony Park and Merriam Park. At St. Anthony Park I was allowed to vote, and I don't think I have been treated right. In the first place, I was not allowed to vote in the spring that I was for two years, but City Attorney Murray decided against it. I was pushed into the field without being allowed to make preparation for the fight, and should have made, had I known that I was elected for only one year. I got a cold and my friends were unable to come to the election. Whether I shall or not I haven't yet decided. I shall think the matter over and get legal advice before I make any move.

THE JUDGES' STORY.

The report of the Merriam Park and called at St. Thomas college for the purpose of interviewing Father O'Gorman, who, it is charged, instructed the students to vote for Robbins. Father O'Gorman said he had been yesterday afternoon, and Thomas Prince and W. E. Chamberlain, who acted in the capacity of judges, were next seen. Mr. Chamberlain is a merchant at Merriam Park, and in connection with the election, conducts the affairs of the local post-office. He was found at his desk and expressed considerable surprise that the judges had been charged with fraud. When interviewed he said:

NEITHER NEW NOR STARTING.

Chicago Tribune. The New York Graphic tells of an island near St. Paul called "Paradise Island," where there is not a single school and never has been. The fact is tolerably interesting, but is not startling. There are a large number of islands in the Mississippi upon which no schools have ever been established--and where no people have ever lived.

THE BOSTON'S FURNISHING DEPARTMENT.

Sells more furnishing goods than any two stores in St. Paul put together, simply from the fact that all the nobbiest, most fashionable, stylish and latest novelties in Men's Furnishings of all kinds can be bought here for 25 per cent. less than elsewhere. It's ridiculous to suppose that you can't buy as nobby or fashionable goods here as at an exclusive furnishing house. Our Furnishing Department customers are as fastidious and particular as possible; they will have nothing but the best and latest, and we cannot afford to keep anything else. There is no Stock of Furnishing Goods in Chicago or New York that contains a better assortment than can be seen here. Every man in St. Paul can afford to dress well and dress fashionably, too, if he but patronizes our Furnishing Department. A comparison of our Furnishing Stock and prices with any similar stock in the city will convince any reasonable man that it is greatly to his advantage to purchase his furnishings here. It will be a saving of at least 25 per cent. on a man's furnishing goods bill. If you are not already a customer of our Furnishing Goods Department compare our prices with those you have been in the habit of paying and we are satisfied that we will have your trade.
