

SAINT PAUL MATTERS.

A Boycotted Baker Will Ask the Grand Jury to Indict the Boycotting Union Men.

The Remains of the Late Capt. Barney Successfully Cremated in Pittsburg, Pa.

How Sam McFarland Started for Stillwater—Enthusiastic Republicans.

West St. Paul Improvements—Burglars Detected by a Boy—Hotel Visitors—Notes.

FIGHTING THE BOYCOTT.

Mr. Ducius Will Ask the Grand Jury to Indict for Conspiracy.

To-day Ferdinand Ducius and a number of friends and witnesses will appear before the grand jury, and on their evidence they expect that an indictment will be issued against certain members of the Bakers' union for intimidation and conspiracy.

REDUCED TO ASHES.

The Remains of Capt. Barney Successfully Cremated.

Special to the Globe. PITTSBURG, Pa., May 7.—The remains of Capt. Thomas J. Barney of St. Paul, Minn., were cremated to-day at the Sanson crematory on Sixth avenue.

CAUGHT BY A BOY.

Two Men in the Act of Breaking into a Car.

Yesterday afternoon two men, supposed to be cigarmakers from tools they carried with them were discovered by a ten-year-old boy named Ole Davis, in the act of breaking into a sealed car in the yards of the Manitoba company.

AT THE HOTELS.

Guests Who Come on Business and on Pleasure.

R. C. Mitchell, Duluth, registered yesterday. He is the editor and proprietor of the Duluth Tribune which he has carried through some very trying ordeals.

FOR SEVEN YEARS.

Sam McFarland Says "Good-By" and is Off for Prison.

When Sam McFarland, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Clusett, walked out of the Ramsey county jail yesterday, he looked like a free man more than one who was just about to begin a seven year's service in the state prison for manslaughter.

A TOUCHING SCENE.

That followed. The sheriff took Sam by one arm and they went half way up the block, while some dozens of the colored people crowded around and said "good-by."

MAJ. J. PINNEY, FARGO, WAS AN ARRIVAL.

He is an attorney at that place, being nearly interested in the business and has quite an extensive practice in that particular.

CHARLES SWEATT, FARGO, WAS ABOUT THE HOTELS.

He is president of the First National bank of that thriving Dakota town and is interested in other schemes.

W. S. POWELL, JEFFERSON CITY, MONT., AND C. K. COLE, HELENA, MONT., ARE IN THE CITY.

They are interested in the cattle business and their visit to St. Paul was for the purpose of purchasing a herd of Holsteins and other fancy breeds.

CAPT. JONES AS A SOLDIER.

A Brief Sketch of the Once Brilliant Soldier Now Dead.

Capt. John Jones, who died in this city a day or two ago, had an eventful history, some points of which are of interest.

RABID YOUNG REPUBLICANS.

They Propose to Organize and Save the Party.

Twenty-three Republicans, young, middle-aged and aged, sat in Carnival headquarters last night and wrestled over the organization of a Young Men's Republican club.

handful of new and undisciplined troops, who had just been enlisted to the South. It was a very critical time, but the brave Sergt. Jones did not flinch.

WEST SIDE IMPROVEMENTS.

The Citizens' Union Takes Action on Several Points.

The regular weekly meeting of the West Side Citizens' Union, at Rebolth's hall, was quite well attended last night, and several matters of considerable importance to the people of that section were brought up and acted upon.

POLICE APPOINTMENTS.

New Coppers Appointed Yesterday for Regular Duty.

Mayor Rice yesterday appointed ten additional policemen, which swells the regular police force of St. Paul to 100.

ENTERTAINMENT BY LITTLE FOLKS.

At Turner hall last evening the assembled party a large audience of the friends and parents of the Sunday school children of the Goodrich Avenue Presbyterian church, to witness an entertainment given for the benefit of the church.

ONE OF THE CYCLONE SUFFERERS.

Dr. H. D. Jenckes, accompanied by Mrs. Jenckes, is a guest of the Lyndon.

A NEW STOCK COMPANY.

Articles were yesterday filed incorporating the Montana Stock company for dealing in live stock and for the construction of all necessary buildings, etc., in connection with a business.

A COMPOUND FRACTURE.

It was learned yesterday that Lizzie Haley, who, together with George Eisenberg, was thrown from a carriage on West Seventh street Thursday evening, was more seriously hurt than was at first supposed.

ARILLERY MASTER.

The Emory Light Artillery company underwent its annual inspection of the company last evening.

MORTON IN COURT.

In the municipal court yesterday, in addition to the arraignment of three women for disorderly conduct, the supposed forger, Charles M. Morton, was brought before the court.

SUPREME COURT—APRIL TERM.

The Supreme Court, respondent vs. Michael Richmond, appellant, submitted on briefs.

OFFICERS SERENADED.

About 500 residents of the neighborhood of Post Street, and other workers turned out with the North Star band last evening, and gave Ald. Starkey and School Inspector Curtis an enthusiastic serenade.

STOVE REPAIRS.

We have on hand repairs for all stoves made; also a full line of wood and coal stoves. Stoves stored. Orders by mail will receive prompt attention.

AMERICAN STOVE REPAIR WORKS.

184 West Seventh St., Seven Corner

BUILDERS' EXCHANGE.

An adjourned meeting of the exchange will be held at 8 o'clock, N. W. Third street, Saturday, May 8, at 8 p. m.

FOR ALL.

Interior Architecture

TERRA COTTA LUMBER.

Corner Third and Robert Streets, ST. PAUL.

INSURANCE.

It is unsurpassed. It is absolutely FIRE PROOF, adds to the warmth and comfort of buildings and effects a reduction in the rates of insurance.

H. A. BOARDMAN, Manager.

363 Jackson street, St. Paul.

MINNESOTA BAPTISTS.

MONROE, Ala., May 7.—The Southern Baptist convention met today and Rev. D. Mill was elected president. The following vice presidents were elected:

M. Manley, of Kentucky; I. B. Hawthorne, of Georgia; G. B. Taylor, of Virginia; J. C.

three deaths and four marriages were reported.

The usual musical and literary entertainment will be given at the Temperance rooms this evening.

The commutation system at Westlake very popular. Six dollars for five.

A matinee will be given this afternoon, and the engagement of the Kraljy's "Hatchcatcher" at the Grand Opera will be continued.

The grand jury lacked one of a quorum yesterday morning, and another special venire, returnable this morning, was issued.

In the case of Elizabeth Zorn, by her guardian, against the St. Paul & Duluth railroad, Judge Wilkin yesterday filed an order directing a new trial.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Thayer filed a petition in the district court yesterday for leave to adopt Jennie Bullis, a little girl of 5 years, whose mother is dead.

Bishop Ireland was in Chicago during the late socialist trouble, and will lecture in the cathedral to-morrow morning at 10:30 o'clock on the subject of Socialism.

The Domestic Sewing Machine company are represented in St. Paul at 65 East Third street, and put a large stock of this justly popular machine than ever before.

Diphtheria was reported, at the Health office yesterday, at 320 East Third street, near the corner of the street.

In the case of Charles F. Tabor against the city of St. Paul, Judge Simon yesterday filed an order denying the motion of the defendant for a new trial.

The hydrants on St. Anthony hill will be fixed by the city engineers, and a high service should draw enough water to-day to last them until Sunday afternoon.

Plano and house furniture removed very cheaply, domestic, furnished on short notice, at Kent's package delivery and employment office, 206 West Seventh street.

Judge Simon yesterday filed a decision in the case of Mary Ringwald against Charles Koch, granting to the plaintiff the right to the two-hundred woman of lot 1, block 1, in Winslow addition.

The two-headed woman, Millie Christine, will make her last appearance at the Seventh street and Broadway bridge. Next week, Lizzie Sturgeon the pedestrian, will be the feature.

President Smalley has called a meeting of the directors of the Wisconsin relief fund for the cyclone relief fund $216.25 from citizens of Allert Lea, $100 from citizens of Montevideo, $100 from citizens of Centre and $109.75 from citizens of New Ulm.

The California Wine House, corner of Cedar and Seventh, is the only house in the city that has the genuine California wine.

The railroad commissioners have made out a schedule for official visits the last half of this month as follows: Austin, May 13; Jackson, May 18; Fairmont, May 18; Jacksonville, May 20; Pipestone, May 19; Luverne, May 21; St. James, May 21; Mankato, May 22.

In the case of Lucio Maes against John J. Boney, the plaintiff proposed to file a decision, in which he holds that service of summons by a private individual, accompanied by proper affidavits, will hold the same as if they were served by a deputy sheriff.

The Ramsey County Pioneer association has closed an arrangement with the Merchants hotel for their annual banquet on Tuesday evening, May 12, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Henry Weber, the newly-elected alderman from the Third district of the Fourth ward, was surrounded by a large number, assisted by the First Regiment band, at his residence on Igbarth street Thursday evening.

Jerome Goodrich of New York began a suit against Frederic Rice, Albert Goetzke, August and Julius Kowalski, the Iowa States circuit, to recover lots 1, 2 and the north half of the northeast quarter of section 1, town 10 north, range 10 west, in Ramsey county, valued at $10,000.

Articles were yesterday filed with the secretary of state incorporating the Lake Superior, Ortonville & Southwestern Railway to supply the route from Ortonville, Minn., to the city of Duluth, Minn.

The capital stock is fixed at $4,000,000. The corporation are Paul Hauser, Sr., St. Paul; C. E. Brooks and Samuel Burdock, Ortonville; Fred Waterson and J. K. Riley, St. Paul.

ADDITIONAL ST. PAUL NEWS ON THE FIFTH PAGE.

PERSONALS.

G. R. Wentworth, Oshkosh, is at the Ryan. A. W. Wome, New York, is a guest at the Ryan.

B. R. Harris, Chicago, is stopping at the Ryan. B. S. Lewis and son, Wasca, are guests at the Ryan.

W. P. Sawyer, Stillwater, is stopping at the Merchants. C. W. Ben, Jamestown, Dak., is at the Merchants.

J. H. Stevenson, Zumbrota, is registered at the Merchants. S. L. Ghess, Jamestown, Dak., is putting up at the Ryan.

T. D. Neoway, Norwich, Conn., is putting up at the Ryan. D. D. Westward, wife and child, Colfax, W. T., are stopping at the Merchants.

At the Clarendon: J. H. Spencer, Stillwater; Dr. H. D. Jenckes and wife, Sank Rapids; P. Watson, Loyalton; J. L. Mahan, Denver, Col.

CHURCH REPRESENTATIVES.

Methodist Episcopal and Southern Baptist churches, St. Paul.

RICHMOND, Va., May 7.—This was the third day of the Methodist Episcopal conference, and after the usual devotional services and reading of yesterday's minutes, the conference concluded the consideration of the rules of order for the government of the body.

The organization of the standing committees was announced and additional special committees were appointed. Dr. McFerrin, publishing agent, submitted his own report and those of the business manager and book committee.

Dr. Young, secretary of the board of missions, submitted the fourth annual report of the board. The centenary conference committee, which undertook to raise $2,000,000 for various church purposes, made a most satisfactory report.

It has received $1,382,771, and there are influences at work which will result in the collection of even a larger sum than first mentioned. A number of large bequests have been made. Dr. E. W. Brown of Missouri has given $30,000 to the church, and Dr. Moses W. Payne $25,000 to the Institute of Christian Studies. A number of other bequests range from $10,000 to $20,000. Dr. McFerrin, publishing agent, reported a number of requests to be presented through him to the church regarding the DEPOSITION OF THESE FUNDS. They were referred to the finance committee and to a special committee of five. The following are chairmen of the standing committees as far as organized:

On Episcopacy: Dr. A. G. Haygood of Georgia; Samuel Rogers of Baltimore; Conference, Publishing Interests, David Morton of Louisville; Conference Education, A. S. Andrews of Alabama; Missions, Joseph Key, of Georgia; Church Extension, Dr. D. C. Kelly of Tennessee; Boundaries, R. H. Mahou of Tennessee.

The special committee and their chairman are as follows:

On Temperance—P. H. Whittier of Maryland; Fraternal Correspondence, W. B. Bond of Virginia. Divorce—B. F. Tarber of Tennessee. On Quarterly Review—Samuel A. Weber of South Carolina. On Introduction—E. E. Wiley of Virginia. On Hymn Books—J. H. Carline of South Carolina. On Plan for Deacons—J. H. Carline of South Carolina. On Tucker of Kentucky. On Bible Cause—C. W. Carter of Louisiana.

Dr. R. A. Young of Tennessee presented a memorial of the Western States Missions in regard to changing the constitution of the board and the session adjourned.

MONROE, Ala., May 7.—The Southern Baptist convention met today and Rev. D. Mill was elected president. The following vice presidents were elected:

M. Manley, of Kentucky; I. B. Hawthorne, of Georgia; G. B. Taylor, of Virginia; J. C.

City Treasurer Rebs yesterday paid $4,000 on interest coupons on city bonds.

Asst. Supt. Pendergast will attend the World's Fair at St. Louis, on August 19, the Sioux outbreak occurred, at a time when the fort was manned only by a mere

OUR TWINS!

Hand in hand, always together, they have made THE BOSTON what it is, the largest Retail Clothing House in the West. Large Sales and Small Profits. That's the secret of our success. THE BOSTON is always on the alert for

Novelties and Bargains

In fine Clothing. A Novelty secured this week is a light-colored Homespun Suit for summer wear for young men. Nothing quite so nobby as the Homespun for summer. The coat of this Suit has silk sleeve linings and is lined throughout with silk, also the back of the Vest is lined with silk. It's made for a light, cool, nobby Suit for summer wear. We speak of it this early as we have only a few made and such choice novelties don't last long. They are soon picked up. A bargain is the Scotch Tweed Suit we are SELLING FOR $15.00.

CHEAP FUEL!

Another bargain is that All-Wool Blue Flannel Suit FOR $9.00. Still another bargain is a genteel All-Wool Blue Overcoat for $6. We might mention a thousand other Bargains that are in our stock, but we haven't the space. Not a garment in our stock that is not a bargain. No matter whether it's a high price or a low price garment, it's a bargain at the price we sell for.

JEFFERSON & KASSON, LUMBER DEALERS.

City Office—363 Jackson Street, Corner Fifth. YARDS: Corner Bagle and Franklin streets. STOVE REPAIRS. We have on hand repairs for all stoves made; also a full line of wood and coal stoves. Stoves stored. Orders by mail will receive prompt attention.

BOSTON

Corner Third and Robert Streets, ST. PAUL. In business blocks or residences. TERRA COTTA LUMBER. It is unsurpassed. It is absolutely FIRE PROOF, adds to the warmth and comfort of buildings and effects a reduction in the rates of insurance.

Clothing House

N. B.—Send for our fifty-two page catalogue containing rules for self-measurement and fashion plates.