THE LABOR LYCEUM. An Address by C. W. Stevenson—The Political Past.

The labor lyceum was opened last evening by C. W. Stevenson, state organizer of the Knights of Labor, who made a very interesting and entertaining address. He said there was one plank in the Knights of Labor platform that every man should take to himself and endeavor to inculcate in others. That sentiment is that moral worth and true character are the basis of individual and national greatness.

total abstinence, and if at the lowest rung of the ladder of life is not to be a member of the very men who on election day put pencils in the ballot boxes, taking the part of capital, but wish to put labor in a condition to command the attention of capital. The church expects much of her children in this crisis which is not yet over, and when victory comes let you bear yourselves so that the cause of victory shall be the conservative doctrine and conscience of the Catholic church.

The Boss Cotton Planter. Since the death of Col. Edward Richardson of Mississippi, Mr. C. M. Neil of Pine Bluff, Ark., is, perhaps, the largest cotton planter in the south. He was born in Alabama, and is only 28 years of age. In 1860 he bought 12,000 acres of land, and went to work on a farm. He is now president of the First National bank of Pine Bluff and has 12,000 acres of cotton in cultivation. He owns three large stores and a railroad twenty-six miles in length, all of which runs through his plantation. The moment he heard that the Hot Springs fair was forwarded 300 barrels of flour, 200 barrels of cornmeal, 20,000 pounds of beef, besides clothing, etc., for the benefit of the sufferers.

"BLOWN IN" AT BACCARAT.

Thousands Lost at the Great Game in This City.

A French Nobleman and His Gold Parthing—Some Winners.

For some time past there has been a good deal of baccarat playing going on in New York. Baccarat, which is in origin a French game, became the fashion in Paris and London gambling halls a little over two years ago.
