THE ST. PAUL GLOBE Has a Larger Circulation than that of Any Other Newspaper Printed Northwest of Chicago.

THE CITY'S PARKS. The energetic men who have in charge the city's parks should meet with the utmost possible liberality in their efforts to enlarge and beautify these green spots.

THAT SUBSIDY INQUIRY. The steamship subsidy bill doesn't rattle along through the house with the same rapidity that it did in the senate.

ROYAL BEGGARY. To an American nothing is more preposterous than the periodical requests made of the British parliament to vote large amounts to royal beggars.

THE CYCLONE. The frequency of cyclones this season has always on deck to explain what is phenomenal.

bodies of other European countries. In time, doubtless, it will be. A MERITORIOUS FASHION. Inasmuch as Paris is the center whence the decrees of that mighty tyrant, Fashion, holds all the feminine world in submission...

MINNEAPOLIS IS putting on her Sunday clothes and her good behavior. She will entertain a distinguished clerical gathering during the week, and doesn't intend that she shall carry away any other impression but that she is as straight-laced as any town need be.

LABOR AGITATION may have affected business conditions in other cities, but the real estate transfers of the twin cities demonstrate the fact that in the Northwest the hurry is only on the surface.

STANDS AT THE HEAD. The St. Paul Daily Globe, under the management of Lewis Baker, is today the leading Democratic newspaper of the Northwest.

RAILROAD MATTERS. The Northern Pacific road, the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, and the Helena & Jefferson county railroad, have made a new tariff between St. Paul, Minnesota, Duluth, Duluth and Superior, and between Duluth and Clancy, Jefferson, Corbin and Wickes.

"train of luminous vapor behind it." These elements are of all sizes, from half a grain to several tons, and are composed of chemical elements more or less volatile, as they are either free or in chemical combination with metallic bases.

Our next correspondent does not delve so deep into a scientific investigation of the constituent elements uniformly in the sun as he confines himself more strictly to the prophetic line with an evident touch of congratulation that the elemental disturbances of the sun have been so disturbed as to produce unusual agitation.

earth in fury with its fall. Having completed its work of death and destruction in the river bed, the storm cloud assumed a more orderly shape. The lower part of the furious funnel-shaped monster ceased its whirling, lashing motion, and seemed to be preparing itself for the work of pumping the water from the sky as it swept down its course.

Some of the newspapers have had Miss Folsom born in so many parts of the city that the Grover correspondent took the trouble to find the exact locality. Mr. Folsom, after he married Miss Emma Harman, daughter of Gen. Harman, a wealthy farmer of Wheatfield, Niagara county, N. Y., had a half frame dwelling on Edward street, near Virginia. The house was not numbered.

THE SOUTHERN METHODISTS. Yesterday's proceedings of the Richmond, Va., conference. The Richmond, Va., May 17.—In the Methodist conference to-day it was decided that a certificate of church membership shall be handed to some other organized body within one year, and that the presiding elder shall execute all the rules fully as required by the discipline.

The Reply of Steifel, the Brewer, to His Striking Employees. Four Thousand Men at Pullman Will Return to Work. Badly Treated.

CHICAGO, May 17.—The strike at Pullman is at an end. The 4,000 men will go to work to-morrow morning. The woodworkers and cabinetmakers met at Rosedale to-day and decided to go to work. Then the ironworkers held a meeting and decided the same way.
