

MINNEAPOLIS EVENTS.

The Council Reduces the Active Patrol Limits 25 Per Cent. by Almost a Party Vote.

Salaries of City Officers Considered, but Action Deferred to the Next Meeting.

Gallagher Again Rejected--Annual Police Instructions--New Pumping Station.

The Trades and Labor Assembly Re-buke a Council Committee--Other Matters.

NOBODY PLEASED. The Active Patrol Limits Reduced About 25 Per Cent.

The active patrol limits were amended in council last evening so as to increase the salient district about 25 per cent. The matter was brought up as unfinished business, and Ald. Eichenorn's ordinance abolishing the patrol line was called up. He made a speech in support of it, urging freedom, liberty and popular sentiment, as in favor of it. Ald. Johnson introduced a substitute providing for a modification of the patrol district ordinance, by increasing the territory. By an almost strict party vote it was adopted. Swanson voted against it because he was opposed to extending the territory. Marsack voted for it because his ward, the first, got most of the extension. Beyond that it was a purely party vote. The changes made increased the patrol territory about 25 per cent. The first ward is nearly half within the line. The second is unchanged. The third is largely increased, the western line running to Lyndale avenue. In the fourth both sides of Western avenue to the railroad are included. The fifth is little changed. The sixth and seventh are extended along the river and the eighth is untouched. The changes are entirely unsatisfactory to those who object to the patrol line principle, and at the same time will be objected to the rigid believers. An effort will be made hereafter to amend this ordinance, if the new ordinance was drawn by the city attorney, and presented by Ald. Johnson, who said he knew nothing about it. It was a curious arrangement, and when the whip cracked the Republicans fell into line. Ald. Johnson introduced a resolution declaring nine hours a day's work for June 1. It was referred to himself as a committee. Council having become weary by the long session, beer-garden scenes followed for an hour, and close upon midnight council adjourned until next Wednesday at 2 p. m.

CITY SALARIES. Accounts Reported--Action Delayed Until Next Meeting.

One of the important matters before the council last night was the report of the committees fixing the salaries for the current year. For several days the committee has wrestled with this subject, and has heard the claims and arguments of all interested. Ald. Downs, the chairman, is a contractor, and believes in low salaries, and many of the figures reported are higher than he personally was willing to go. The list as reported is as follows:

Table listing salaries for various city positions: General Officers, Fire Department, Police, etc.

Ald. Gibson wanted to raise several of them, principally the police staff, street commissioner and janitor, while Ald. Downs wanted the staff cut down. So many were the amendments proposed that it became evident that the night could be spent in nothing else. Accordingly council adopted Ald. Johnson's motion to defer action until next regular meeting.

ROUTINE WORK. New Pumping Station Proposed--Police Instructions.

Mayor Ames invited the council to be present at the council chamber on Wednesday next to hear his instruction to the police force, and to aid him by their advice and council, which was accepted. Licenses were granted several plumbers per recommendation of the water board. A large number of petitions were received and referred to appropriate committees. A long remonstrance against an ordinance closing the barber shops on Sundays, also went to committee. Several hundred citizens of the Seventh ward petitioned to have the streets and avenues opened through the old fair grounds, and also asked a bridge across the Mississippi at the foot of Twenty-sixth street. Citizens of Western avenue asked to have the street so arranged as to permit no saloons on that avenue beyond the viaduct over the Minneapolis & St. Louis road. Supt. Williams of the American District Territory requested the placing of district centers in the several school houses in accordance with the suggestion of the fire chief. Chief Stetson reported the list of firemen for the current year, which was referred to the committee on fire department. The list is about the same as the one now in force. The plat and file of the Minnesota & Northwestern railroad, with the map giving it right of way through the Sixth ward, were received and referred to the committee on ordinance and railroads. The regular monthly budget amounted to $7,835.13, for which warrant was ordered drawn. The report of the commissioners on the opening of Third street and Plymouth avenues north was confirmed. A wooden bridge was ordered built across Bassett's creek between Thomas and Upton avenues. The committee on fire department reported its annual inspection and highly complimented the department on its efficiency. It recommended the purchase of new apparatus, including a steamer each for the Eighth and First wards. The committee recommended the confirmation of Chief Stetson's appointments, which was accordingly done. The committee on water works recommended the establishment of an additional pumping station on the North side, and the appointment of Ald. Morse, Sly and Mills to report on the same. It was unanimously approved. The railroad companies were ordered to clear their tracks of the Washington avenue and Fourth and Fifth streets north for driveways and sidewalks. The proposition of the Minnesota Scavenger company was rejected. An ordinance designating where lumber and millwood shall not be piled was referred to the aldermen of the Seventh and Second wards, as those wards alone are affected. An ordinance was adopted establishing a grade, and ordering a boulevard on Second avenue south, from Seventeenth street to Franklin avenue east.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE BUSINESS. The joint committee on ordinances and fire department last night reported Ald. Cooley's new ordinance on the subject of underground wires. The subject matter has already been printed in the Globe, and the changes are slight and unimportant. June 1, 1887, is the limit of time for the permission of poles and brackets, but until then no new wires shall be strung on existing poles, and without express permission of council. The ordinance was read once and went over under the rules. The committee to investigate the Brackett block disaster submitted a report recommending Building Inspector Pardee and City Attorney Cross, as already published.

AGAIN REJECTED. The nomination of Chris A. Gallagher to be a member of the board of water commissioners was placed on the table at the last meeting of the council. On motion of Ald. Sly it was taken from the table and a motion to reject was adopted by a strictly party vote.

TRADES AND LABOR ASSEMBLY. A Council Committee to Be Rebuked--Water Board Contracts.

At the regular meeting of the Trades and Labor assembly last evening delegates were received from the Musicians' union for the first time. The committee appointed to wait upon the city council jointly with a committee from the Plumbers' union and request the appointment of a competent journeyman plumber as an inspector of plumbing, reported that the committee on ordinances, of which Ald. Johnson is chairman, ignored the request entirely. Considerable indignation was expressed at this slight, and a committee was appointed to draw up resolutions censuring the council committee. The need of a practical plumber as an inspector was explained by several plumbers, one relating an instance in which two girls employed by Dale, Barnes & Morse fainted away because of the noxious gas escaping into the room by reason of defective plumbing, which was done by incompetent jobbers. A resolution was also passed indorsing the plumbers' strike.

AFTER THE WATER BOARD. The following resolutions were passed in relation to the letting of city work by the water board, and copies are to be circulated for signatures and are then to be presented to the board.

Whereas, for a long time it has been customary to let contracts to Eastern parties for city work in connection with our water system, and PERSONAL COMMENT. Col. Rogers--There was simply nothing at all in the hidden wheat stories. It was merely the difference between regular and irregular or private storage. No, I don't think that the reports influenced the market in the least.

Rev. Dr. Crosby--The theaters are the gateways to hell, and the Sunday newspapers are nearly as bad. We cannot naturally take them into our families, nor can we read them and preserve our purity.

Johnson Politely Banned. A special meeting of the board of education was held yesterday afternoon, at which the list of principals and teachers for the ensuing year was reported. After some discussion the report went over until a special meeting to be held next Tuesday.

W. S. Pierson was elected secretary of the board. He will eventually take E. M. Johnson's place entirely, and the latter's multifarious connection with the board will cease. The board has arranged for permanent quarters in the Temple Court and the secretary will be constantly there under the new arrangement--an arrangement by the way, which should have been made long ago.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES. Bank clearings yesterday amounted to $369,068.

Teachers of the public schools will meet at 10 a. m. to-day.

Joseph Hill was fined $25 for striking his wife yesterday.

The Minneapolis Poultry club was formed Thursday evening at the Grand Hotel.

The First Congregational Church society has decided to build on the corner of Fifth street and Eighth avenue southeast, in case the parish rallies the selection.

Detective Lawrence arrested two men yesterday who gave their names as Snyder and Rogers. They had some $400 worth of brass work in their possession which it is thought they stole.

Peter Broberg was in the municipal court yesterday on a charge of larceny preferred by Julia H. Stay. The examination was set for Friday, but the matter was compromised by marriage.

Thomas Saeger and Albert Nichols yesterday purchased of Mary J. Mayhew fifteen acres on Park avenue, between Thirty-second and Thirty-third streets, for $6,500. It will be platted on to-day.

The Tribune has settled its libel suit with Matt Clark of Stillwater. Mr. Clark was satisfied after the Tribune's apology, there was no malice in the publication. As he was not after blood money he allowed the case to drop.

While Mrs. Isaac McNairst was riding in a University avenue car Thursday, her pocket-book containing $10 was snatched by a man who jumped from the car. Detective Foley, who is working the case, thinks the fellow worked the false alarm game.

A. W. Sullivan, a deaf mute, was found in an intoxicated condition with one of his legs protruding in a hole on the pavement at Twenty-ninth street, early Thursday morning, by Officer Weston of the mounted police force. The man is now at the hospital.

W. M. Ryan stated yesterday that up to the present time twenty-one states were represented in the exposition, and that applications for space kept coming in at a rate that is truly astonishing. The applicants for the past few days have been from the machine men. All railroads have made special rates for the Masons, who will take part in the laying of the corner stone, May 29. A large attendance is expected on that day.

The mysterious robbery which occurred May 2, Portland avenue, when Mrs. Schaefer's buggy was run into, overturned and $100 in money and a gold watch taken, has at last been cleared up. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, 629 Tenth avenue south, are the persons to whom the articles of value were handed, by Frank Reed, the burglar.

The young ladies of Centenary church last evening gave a social entertainment at the church, which was very unique. The ladies interested in foreign missions presented a program which set forth many features of the work by character and costume. The "Heaton's Request" was presented, introducing the people dressed in the costumes of the following countries: Mexico, Japan, Africa and America. Among those taking part in the program were Messrs. Hall, Johnson, Mains, Van Duzee and Prof. Carlisle, and Misses Hall and Marsh. The evening was an enjoyable one.

"IN FULL BLOOM!" Nature, true to herself, puts forth in May the promise of Summer Harvest. The eager and expectant Lad and Lassie enjoy the effort. The "BIG BOSTON'S" stock is now in full bloom and you are invited to roam over the various departments and inspect the various stocks which have been in course of preparation for months. Notably among these is our
