THE PRESIDENT'S WEDDING. The marriage ceremony is over, and a nation's congratulations go out to the newly-wedded pair.

HER MOSTS' CONVICTION. The conviction of Herr Most and his sentence to the state prison will have a salutary effect. As the judge who pronounced the sentence said, it is a matter of regret that the law did not permit a heavier punishment.

THE RATE WAR. The passenger rate war which has been finally inaugurated with much earnestness on both sides seems to be the legitimate outcome of the railway situation which has recently shaped itself.

THE MARRIAGE QUESTION. The marriage question is a subject which has long been a source of contention between the various nations of the world.

fact it barely suffices for the decent upholding of the dignity of the office, and is scarcely more than a fair recompense for the work which such a conscientious occupant of the office as the present executive performs regarding the present incumbent of the office, there would be an especial hardship in any reduction of salary.

ADAM'S CREATION. In these days, when church denominations are so prone to dodge or compromise on the issues which science is constantly raising, it is quite refreshing to find one church organization that is not a bit mealy-mouthed in giving expression to its opinions.

THE WOMEN OF THE COUNTRY. The women of the country may feel that the location of the wedding ceremony in the White house was a special concession to the sex. It was an opportunity to grand to be missed, and Mrs. Cleveland will receive the approval of every woman in the land for grasping it.

to some, all must concede that he is right in this new departure. The miserable practice of blackmailing places of ill-fame under the hypocritical pretense that a part of the revenues were to be devoted to a charitable institution, a policy that prevailed under former administrations, was a disgrace. Nor is there any reason why beer and liquor should be permitted to be sold at such places without payment of the regular license. It looks as though Mayor Ames was going to make a reputation as a reformer.

Rest in the World. The Globe is the best paper in the world for Dakotians. Blue Eyed and Persistent. President Cleveland continues to veto pro-bill. The union of lovers. Brethren in Lamentation. Kansas City Times. Twenty-seven Luchinavars, who went out of the West, came to grief yesterday. And Do Other Work. Sing Sing is chiefly tough on an alderman because he has to go to church there every Sunday. Didn't Feel Like Talking. He stood beneath her window there. The Home Rule Issue. A FRAGMENT. What if, while I sit here alone, A voice I have not heard for years? Should I greet me with sweet tones That once was music to my ears? And I should start from memory's sway, And home near this place, this morning. He participated in the Decoration day exercises, acting with the Old Guard as an escort to President Cleveland.

Going to Hot Springs. WASHINGTON, June 2.—It is understood that Secretary and Mrs. Manning will leave Washington Saturday afternoon for Hot Springs, where they will probably remain about a month.

Wholesale Assassination. COFFEYVILLE, Kan., June 2.—Dr. George W. Pyle, his wife, two children, and a hired man were all murdered or left for dead in their house at Carr's ranch on Coney river, twenty miles southwest of here in the Cherokee nation Sunday night. Mrs. Pyle and the hired man were shot and were found by the neighbors, though unconscious, and they will probably die. The fiendish work bears evidence of having been done with an axe or some other heavy sharp instrument. Upon the same farm, about a half-mile from where Mr. Pyle lived, a widow and her son were found killed in their house on the same night as the Pyles were shot. They were also killed with an axe. No cause is assigned for these murders, and so far as is learned, there is no clue to the perpetrators. Mr. Pyle formerly lived in Sedan, Chautauque county, and was a respectable citizen. The widow woman and her son are supposed to have been formerly residents of this county. Both of these families were white settlers.

Charged With a Capital Crime. LOUISVILLE, June 2.—The arrest of Thomas Antle last night has caused some excitement in police circles. Antle is a busy fellow of an early day, and is a watchman at the Fidelity Trust company. The charge against him is rape, and the complainant are three little girls, all under 12 years of age. They say that Antle has enticed them into his room from time to time. It is also said that there are three other little girls who have been unwillingly seduced by the same man and a friend of his, a drummer. The offense is a capital crime under the laws of Kentucky and Antle is held without bail.

Expelling the Princess. PARIS, June 2.—Premier DeFreycinet yesterday, in announcing the decision of the government to expel the princess, said that there was no fear of danger, but that the attitude of the princess had disturbed public opinion, and their presence afforded a rallying point for enemies of the republic. The chamber of deputies, by a vote of 362 to 250, has agreed to consider the repeal of the law of 1802, regulating the relations of the church and state. The committee of the chamber of deputies having the government in charge, has reported that the repeal of the law is compulsory and not permissive; that it be applied to all members of all families which at any time reigned in France; that the decree be retroactive to the date of the law by the legislature and not by the executive.

Maine Democratic Convention. BANGOR, Me., June 2.—The Democratic state convention in session here this afternoon passed resolutions of sympathy with Mr. Gladstone in his home rule struggle, and nominated Chas. S. Edwards of Bangor as the party's candidate for governor. The platform emphasizes labor, industrial worth, and individual greatness. It affirms that the benefits of the mineral and timber industries belong to the people, and that the legislature is to secure to labor the just rewards of its efforts. A law establishing ten hours for a day's labor is demanded, and the prohibition of child labor is insisted on. It arraigns the Republican party for defeating the ten hour bill in the legislature, and demands that the Federal government shall protect American fishermen in all their just rights at all hazards. The address of President Cleveland, and pledges the earnest support of the Democratic party. The principles of the Chicago platform of 1884 are reaffirmed. Adjourned.

The Marriage Question. WASHINGTON, June 2.—Senator Cullom introduced in the senate a joint resolution proposing the following amendment to the constitution: Section 1. The only institution or contract of marriage within the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction shall be that of the union in marriage of a man and a woman, and the same shall be forever prohibited, any law, custom, form or ceremony, civil or religious, to the contrary notwithstanding. Sec. 2. No state shall pass any law or any custom, form or ceremony of marriage, or any law, custom, form or ceremony, civil or religious, to the contrary notwithstanding, which shall be in violation of the institution of marriage as herein defined and established, but otherwise the regulation of marriage shall be left to the several states as heretofore. Sec. 3. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

The Stove Men. CLEVELAND, O., June 2.—The corridors and rooms of the Stillman hotel were crowded to-day with business men. They were the delegates to the semi-annual convention of the National Association of Stove Manufacturers. The organization is a big one, and almost 300 delegates from every part of the compass are present. An effort will be made to form a national organization, the details of which will be decided by the president and executive board. If this is carried out, the members will be obliged to stick to the price agreed upon, and a failure to do so will result in expulsion from the organization. It is a settled fact that the price of stoves will be materially advanced, as the members are united on this question. The convention went into session at 1 o'clock this afternoon with closed doors. J. L. Syer of Louisville presiding.

Collapsed Buildings. CLEVELAND, O., June 2.—At a late hour this afternoon Marchand's opera house at Alliance, O., a four-story brick building, eighty feet square, fell with a crash. At the time of the accident there were about 100 people in the building, all escaped unhurt. An adjoining two-story frame building, owned by W. M. Ewing, and occupied by James Richards, grocer, was completely crushed. Several persons were injured, and a large quantity of property was destroyed. A track in the rear, were ruined. The loss will foot up $40,000.

Instrumental Music Wins. HAMILTON, O., June 2.—The United Presbyterian general assembly, after a long debate, adopted the majority report upon the question of the use of instrumental music in church worship by a large majority. This report was in favor of the use of instrumental music.

Death of Henry Haverly. BABYLON, L. I., June 2.—Henry Haverly, the sugar refiner, died suddenly at his home near this place, this morning. He had participated in the Decoration day exercises, acting with the Old Guard as an escort to President Cleveland.
