

MINNEAPOLIS EVENTS.

A Young Man Hailing from Chicago Cools Cabbages Nearly $3,000 in Notes and Bonds.

Mayor Ames Expresses Surprise That the Republican Press Should See So Much Social Evil.

Col. Charlie Johnson Thinks Maj. Henderson Will Get the Postoffice Permissives.

The Thompson Damage Suit—An Eccentric Journey into the Mississippi Other Notes.

A BOLD ATTEMPT.

A Thief Nearly Escapes With $3,000 in Notes and Bonds.

One of the boldest robberies committed for some time took place in this city yesterday morning, and but for the presence of two workmen the thief would have walked away with some $3,000 in negotiable bonds and notes.

UNDER GOOD CONTROL.

Mayor Ames Expresses Himself on the Social-Evil Question.

A reporter of the GLOBE met Mayor Ames last evening and asked him what he had to say in reference to the Journal's opening gun on the social evil question.

THE POSTOFFICE WAR.

Col. C. W. Johnson, secretary of the United States senate, wrote a letter on the postoffice question which reached here yesterday.

BEST FOR THE WEARY.

Marin Rude, Tired of Life, Jumps Into the River and Dies.

For a week past police headquarters and the various city offices have been visited by a man giving his name as Martin Sorenson Rude, who wanted employment.

THIRTEENTH TRIAL.

The Thompson Case Still On—A St. Paul Attorney Files.

brought into court and fined $5 and costs.

The suit is brought by Donaldson to recover $200 which he claims to have given to Turner to pay to George W. Post, the "con" man, who in return was to surrender certain jewelry.

The suit of August Oberg vs. John Falton, to recover $1,000 damages, was tried and a verdict for $200 returned.

The damage suit of Mary Gerin vs. Nils Martensen is now on trial before Judge Lovvorn.

TWO PRICES TO ENTER.

One for Exposition and One for Art Gallery—Valuable Acquisitions.

The directors of the Industrial Exposition met yesterday afternoon, and after ordering the paying of numerous bills, took up the question of whether admission fees should be charged to the Exposition and art gallery.

VALUABLE WORKS OF ART.

W. M. Regan, chairman of the committee on exhibits, has received from Notre Dame University, Indiana, a letter, an extract from which reads as follows:

There are some works of art here which are at your service when required. We have a number of them in former years to the Cincinnati exhibition.

THE ANDERSON WILL CASE.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Ueland admitted to probate the will of Col. Anderson D. Nelson, in which the deceased bequeathed his property to his widow.

Engineers' Association.

The Minneapolis Association of Stationary Engineers No. 2 of Minnesota has incorporated and proposes to found and maintain industrial and scientific schools and libraries for the education of engineers.

Walked to His Death.

Train No. 9 on the Minneapolis & St. Louis road yesterday, struck and killed a man who was walking on the track near Eden Prairie.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES.

Thirteen new electric lights are wanted in New Boston.

You can dance from 7 to 11 p. m. on the steamer flut for 25 cents.

The city council committee on claims and claims against the city is resting this week.

Motor trains leave Washington avenue for Lake Calhoun every twenty minutes.

Music and dancing on the steamer Hattie tomorrow evening.

In the municipal court yesterday John Crowe was committed for thirty days for wife beating.

The excursion club gave its regular monthly social at Curtis' hall, which was well attended.

Lieut. Swan Walton received word yesterday morning of the death of his father in Guttenberg, Sweden.

Go to Calhoun to-night and take a trip around the lake on the steamer Hattie. Ride all night for 25 cents.

The council committee on roads and bridges will meet to-day to consider several matters of importance.

The Presbyterian alliance met last evening at Andrew Presbyterian church, and discussed the liquor question.

The fat women's convention and the Memphis students are still attracting large audiences at the dime museum.

Col. Chase now goes on duty at 7 o'clock and serves until the afternoon, when he is relieved by Maj. Landberg.

The mayor yesterday requested the city attorney to draft an ordinance prohibiting storing fire works inside the fire limits, and the same will be presented at the regular meeting Friday night.

The directors of the First National bank will meet this afternoon to ratify the action increasing its capital stock from $60,000 to $100,000.

A reunion of the scholars of the Second National school will be held this evening at Curtis' hall. A sumptuous banquet will be served.

The Algonquin club held a meeting last evening at Apollo hall. The club is now in a flourishing condition and has at present 22 members.

The horses attached to Hannan's grocery cart created a sensation on Third street yesterday by running away, resulting in a general smash-up at First avenue south.

Col. Chase now goes on duty at 7 o'clock and serves until the afternoon, when he is relieved by Maj. Landberg.

The mayor yesterday requested the city attorney to draft an ordinance prohibiting storing fire works inside the fire limits, and the same will be presented at the regular meeting Friday night.

The local military companies do not like the order requiring three rolls a day while in camp, claiming that it will prevent many from attending by being compelled to be present at noon call.

The father of E. J. Flint, arrested Monday by Detective Hoy for stealing a watch and other jewelry from the residence of Mrs. E. J. Flint, 415 Second street, is a prominent St. Paul lawyer.

The unknown man who committed suicide by hanging himself back of the Minneapolis mill Saturday night has not been identified and his body was yesterday buried in the Potter's field by order of the coroner.

The attorney who has made Maj. Landberg the purchasing agent for the police department. He keeps a full record of every article purchased, and turns it over, after approved,

Ald. Cooley, chairman of the council committee on police, has submitted a report to the council.

Ald. Lawrence is greatly surprised that it should be shown that the drug stores in the eighth ward have done a lively business since the passage of the law.

The Hon. John L. McMillan of Chicago, will arrive on the limited this morning. He is to make the address at the anniversary of the Young Men's Christian association in Hennepin Avenue Methodist church this evening.

Matters have arrived at such a stage in the board of education matters that prompt and decisive action is necessary on the part of the board to prevent general

At the meeting of the Head Millers' association last evening, a large sale of tickets for the annual picnic next Saturday was reported.

Kerriss and Clark, the men arrested in St. Paul by Lieut. Col. Hill and Detective Hankinson, on a charge of robbing W. W. Stock in the city, were brought over to the 17, under bonds of $500 each.

A telegram was yesterday received from Milwaukee which states that the panorama of the battle of Atlanta, occupying two flat cars was shipped last evening and will arrive in Minneapolis Friday evening.

This afternoon the council committee on taxes and water works will meet with the city engineer and other members of the committee.

Additional Minneapolis News on the Sixth Page.

MINNEAPOLIS PERSONALS.

G. Ellison, the Montevideo banker, is at the National hotel.

H. A. Harvey, auditor of the Milwaukee road, was in the city yesterday.

S. A. Shalhbarger, the Staples lumberman, is at the Nicollet.

Col. John T. Moore, Jr., a leading wholesale grocer of New Orleans, is the guest of Col. John T. Bohn.

W. F. West of St. Louis, editor of the Overland, published in the weekly, are expected to arrive in the city, attending the convention of the order.

Theodore R. Davis, the war correspondent of Harper's Weekly, arrived in the city yesterday, and is expected to attend the convention of the order.

IS IT SAFE?

Architects Claim the Exposition Building is Lightly Made.

Figures Which Will Show the Proposed Floors Are Unsafe.

For some days past a number of prominent architects have been investigating the plans and specifications being used in the erection of the Exposition building, and have come to the conclusion that it will be unsafe.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

STILL HARPING.

The Charges Against the School Board on the Increase.

Physicians' Certificates—A Chance for Austin—Steam Heating.

Matters have arrived at such a stage in the board of education matters that prompt and decisive action is necessary on the part of the board to prevent general

At the meeting of the Head Millers' association last evening, a large sale of tickets for the annual picnic next Saturday was reported.

Kerriss and Clark, the men arrested in St. Paul by Lieut. Col. Hill and Detective Hankinson, on a charge of robbing W. W. Stock in the city, were brought over to the 17, under bonds of $500 each.

A telegram was yesterday received from Milwaukee which states that the panorama of the battle of Atlanta, occupying two flat cars was shipped last evening and will arrive in Minneapolis Friday evening.

This afternoon the council committee on taxes and water works will meet with the city engineer and other members of the committee.

Additional Minneapolis News on the Sixth Page.

MINNEAPOLIS PERSONALS.

G. Ellison, the Montevideo banker, is at the National hotel.

H. A. Harvey, auditor of the Milwaukee road, was in the city yesterday.

S. A. Shalhbarger, the Staples lumberman, is at the Nicollet.

Col. John T. Moore, Jr., a leading wholesale grocer of New Orleans, is the guest of Col. John T. Bohn.

W. F. West of St. Louis, editor of the Overland, published in the weekly, are expected to arrive in the city, attending the convention of the order.

Theodore R. Davis, the war correspondent of Harper's Weekly, arrived in the city yesterday, and is expected to attend the convention of the order.

IS IT SAFE?

Architects Claim the Exposition Building is Lightly Made.

Figures Which Will Show the Proposed Floors Are Unsafe.

For some days past a number of prominent architects have been investigating the plans and specifications being used in the erection of the Exposition building, and have come to the conclusion that it will be unsafe.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.

The architect of to-day will publish a letter from a correspondent, in which he goes into figures to prove that the floors are not being built on a manner as they should be and intimates that they will be positively dangerous.