The matter at issue between the been satisfactorily settled half a dozen times within the last few days, but are in bad shape again. Just how bad it is is difficult to find out. At the stock yards the dressed beef shippers were all notified that trouble was pending and that they had best send their goods East by some other line. A heavy down town shipper who wanted to make arrangements to send goods East to-morrow was advised to try some other route as the company were expecting its men to go out. The real question at issue now is the terms of settlement made two months ago on the occasion of that strike. The settlement was made by the intervention of At Philadelphia—
