

THE BLAINE BOOM.
Steve Elkins Has It In Charge
 Against the Lieutenants.
 Special to the Globe.
 New York, June 26.—S. B. Elkins, the big New Mexico capitalist, who has carried James G. Blaine's boom around in a hand basket for ten or twelve years, has taken quarters at the Hoffman house, and is holding caucuses now again that look suspiciously like the movements that preceded the Republican national convention of 1884. His family is at Deer Park, where he goes occasionally. He is now here. Within a day or two Blaine pilgrims have turned up here by the half dozen. Among others have been Powell Clayton of Arkansas, J. S. Sheldon of Iowa, who was a member of the Blaine executive committee; Garrett A. Hobart of New Jersey, another member; Samuel Fessenden of Connecticut, secretary of the committee; Alexander Sullivan of Chicago and Col. Mike Boland of Kentucky, two of Blaine's Irish adherents, and William Walter Phelps of New Jersey. Joe May of Maine is reported to be on his way from Maine to meet Elkins. Ex-Gov. Smith, Vermont, who is engaged in staking pins into the frigid form of Senator Edmunds has been here for several days, but it is not known whether he has met Elkins, although his presence here at the present time is suspicious. To-day Candidate J. R. Bodwell of Maine turned up for a talk with the Blaine manager. It is understood to be the Blaine program to boom Chancy N. Depew for president, in order to take the burden of discussion off the Maine man, where it rests pretty heavily. Foraker of Ohio is to be tackled on the Depew kite for present purposes, so as to keep Sherman down at home.

 A FEW SPECIAL BARGAINS IN UNREDEEMED PLEDGES:

GOLD WATCHES.
$175—COST $400—ELEGANT K. LOUIS XIV. 80-dwt. hunting gold case, artistically engraved, representing a wreath of flowers in raised engraving of different colors of gold. The front is perfectly smooth, with handsomely engraved border; trifling with real French ruby jewels; adjusted to heat, cold and position, set with real French ruby jewels in raised gold box settings, ruby post and ruby pallets; one of the handsomest watches you ever saw.
$290—COST $500—INDEPENDENT SPLIT and quarter-second fly-back horse timer, plain engine-turned, 80-dwt. 15k Jorgensen case, with nickel movement of the highest grade, set with thirty-nine genuine French jewels; adjusted to heat, cold and isochronism; Breguet hairspring, patent regulator, stem-winder and patent stem-setter; this is the finest watch movement made in America; it is encased in a solid 18k gold case, weighing 63 dwt; almost new and in perfect condition.
$90—COST $120—YOU CAN BUY THIS watch anywhere for $120; but remember that it is entirely new, only having been carried two weeks, to my certain knowledge, and you save $30. This is a staple size. The case is 16 size, bone, palace hinges, set with diamonds and artistically engraved, weigh 35 dwt., and of pure, fine, solid gold. The movement is the highest grade nickel Elgin. Full gold box set jewels top and bottom, ruby pallet, quick-train, patent regulator, adjusted to heat and cold, and guaranteed a hair-splitter for time.
$45—COST $90—VERY HEAVY SOLID GOLD Louis XIV. hunting, box case, nicely engraved, with full jeweled, full plate nickel Elgin movement, patent diamond stem-winder; warranted in perfect condition.
$40—COST $75—VERY HANDSOME LOUIS XIV. solid gold hunting case, engine-turned, top and bottom engraved, with "American Watch Company" Waltham movement, stem-winder, case heavy and solid, and looks so good as new; warranted as an accurate time-piece.
$30—COST $100—VERY HEAVY SOLID GOLD hunting case, with an excellent English full-jeweled movement; warranted a good time-keeper; the case is worth what we ask for the watch as old gold.
LADIES' WATCHES.
$80—WORTH $150—FINEST AMERICAN watch made; case is 15k, weighing 35 dwt., notched edges, artistically engraved with vines; case studded with mosaic work; movement, patent diamond stem-winder; warranted as a very handsome watch and an excellent time-keeper.
$18—WORTH $35—SOLID GOLD, PERFECTLY smooth gold hunting case, with nickel Swiss jeweled stem-winding movement in perfect condition.
$55—COST $100—VERY HEAVY SOLID GOLD hunting mansard case, ornamented with vines and flowers in raised engraving in gold of various colors, high grade stem-winding Elgin movement; a very handsome watch and an excellent time-keeper.
$20—WORTH $45—HANDSOME LITTLE watch; edge of case nicely engraved, jeweled movement in perfect condition.
WE HAVE A GREAT BARGAIN IN A FINE Waltham stem-wind lady's watch that we took in trade, entirely new, case is heavy solid gold hunting of the latest style, with fine stem-wind Waltham movement; watch cost $60, we will sell it for $35.
$25—COST $45—A Dainty time-piece, only slightly engraved and frosted; a most novel dial face with pretty diamonds on the tiny nickel Swiss movement, full jeweled; a pretty and valuable watch.
$18—WORTH $35—A CHARMING LITTLE open faced gem; smooth rich case of 14k gold; very small, but perfect, and reliable.
WE HAVE A MAGNIFICENT LADY'S watch, with a flower basket of diamonds set in case; one of highest grade Elgin movements; nickel stem-winder; watch got up at special order for $110, and almost entirely new; will sell for $100.
