ST. PAUL GLOBE SUBSCRIPTION TABLE. DAILY (NOT INCLUDING SUNDAY). 17c. In advance, $4.00. 12 mos. in advance, $42.00.

THE ST. PAUL GLOBE. Has a Larger Circulation than that of Any Other Newspaper Printed North-west of Chicago.

MR. POWDERLY INDIGNANT. The New York city authorities are pushing matters a little too far in their attempt to suppress anarchism.

THE ENGLISH ELECTIONS. While the English election returns are not particularly encouraging to the Gladstone party, still they have no special reason to be discouraged.

AS TO HOTEL BILLS. A correspondent desires the GLOBE to inform him whether a hotelkeeper can retain the baggage of a guest who does not settle his bill.

RACKETS OF THE PLANETS. A correspondent who claims to be well up in the science of astrology informs the GLOBE that the unusually hot weather during the past week has resulted from the conjunction of Mars and Jupiter which took place last Monday morning.

AMERICAN OPERA REPORT. The directors of the American opera have just submitted their report to the stockholders. It appears that their first season has been a successful one.

RISE IN WHEAT. It is long time that has no turn. Wheat had been dropping and dropping in prices until everybody knew that bed-rock must be struck shortly.

not entirely so. The time had come for wheat to take a rise. The price was advanced a little faster than the natural course of trade warranted.

MISS CLEVELAND'S SAIR CASTLES. Miss Cleveland says that when society takes to its sofas and easy chairs the blood-poisoning process begins.

THE NORTHWEST. The Northwest diversifies her amusements, if she does not her crops. The Northwest may not take much stock in a fireworks' celebration.

SPURGEON'S LACK OF SYMPATHY. A correspondent wants us to tell why it is that Mr. Spurgeon, who has always been identified with the Liberal party in England.

POSTMASTER ANKENTY. Bridgeman Cleveland and the New York aldermen who escaped to Canada will celebrate with special fervor.

THE BELLE CONQUERED. A young woman, whose name is not known, but who is somewhat beautiful and bright.

Mrs. Cleveland's Cordial Greeting. Cleveland Leader. An old stager who has shaken hands with many a lady of the White house.

Advice to the Farmers. The Farmers Alliance should nominate such a man for congress as the Democrats can endorse.

A PLAY IN THREE ACTS. A hotel at the seaside. Some music and a ball. A comic and "Come and call."

years the company will be American in fact as well as in name. All honor is due Mrs. Thurber and her enthusiastic associates for the success already achieved.

It has been demonstrated that the Twin Cities can successfully compete even with a circus when they offer excellent races at a circus. And, by the way, why wouldn't it be as well to have a number of running events next year?

It will be a difficult person to please indeed who cannot find some form of healthful amusement with which to spend his holiday to-morrow enjoyable.

It will be a week or so yet before the acquaintance of casualties from the pistols and the premature explosions of fireworks begin to come in. But they will come along in good time.

There is one explanation of the defeat of the St. Paul lacrosse team by the Winnipeggers which may have occurred to the general public. The game was played on to-morrow's ground with the ambitious New Yorkers.

It is definitely settled that Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland will enter Journalism in Chicago. So Chicago may be saved, after all.

It seems strange to the summer visitor that St. Paul, a city built upon a rock foundation, and a city in which rock is as easily secured as in any city of the United States.

There was a man, a visitor to St. Paul, who came up for the express purpose of investigating the sidewalk question. He walked over the city. He climbed up the sidewalk.

A row upon the harbor. A row upon the harbor. A row upon the harbor. A row upon the harbor.

investigate the matter on his own book, and later reported at the home office of his paper that there was no foundation whatever for the article charging a double license to be visiting circus.

Several years ago, so the story goes, before the present high license was charged circuses, St. Paul was the scene of a similar season by numerous "greatest shows on earth."

It was Christmas day in Chicago. The bell in the board of trade tower had tolled off the hour of noon, as the reporters of one of the dailies began scrambling up the long and narrow stairways that led up to the board of trade tower.

It was not empty. From the bottom of the vehicle was hailed out the body of a man. The body was covered with blood and appeared to be that of an old man.

A REPORTER'S ROMANCE. A young man, with papers. A desk, littered up with papers. Written and printed manuscripts, a photograph of a bright but thoughtful looking young woman standing on the deck.

It is a story of the experiences that sometimes come to the reporter. It is an unwritten story. Although one of the chief actors in the little drama is daily engaged in writing all the quaint incidents and uncommon occurrences that he sees, hears of or can think up.

MINNESOTA POLITICS. What the Sentiment of State Editors is Regarding the Different Candidates for Governor.

A Pretty General Impression That Gilman Leads in the Republican Race. Pressed by McGILL.

Something Regarding Congressional Plums—Assertions That Democrats Have Good Prospects.

Where Credit is Due. Congressmen Strait, Nelson and Wakefield are not going to be forgotten as quickly as they themselves suppose by many of the constituents for their noble and manly vote on the tariff measure.

Can't Be Elected. Charley Gilman can never be elected governor of Minnesota, even if he should receive the Republican nomination.

Bright and Popular. Albert Loeb Standard. A letter coming from St. Paul is definitely announced a candidate for governor.

Gilman Wanted. With Albert Scheffer not a candidate for congress, Loren Fletcher cannot consistently enter the contest, which leaves the decision for J. B. Gilman.

Sweeping the Field. John Lind of New Ulm appears to be sweeping the field as a candidate for congress in the Second district.

One Sure, Three Possible. Le Sueur Sentinel. Should ex-Judge Thomas Wilson, of Wisconsin, be the Democratic candidate for congress in the First district?

Confident Mr. Lind. The Pinestone Star. John Lind was here to see us on Friday. Since leaving Mr. Turner's county Mr. Lind feels more confident than ever that he will go into the convention at Mankato on the 7th of July with enough votes to nominate him upon the first ballot.

Cush's Davis for Senator. Glencoe Register. An expression of opinion by the state press in favor of C. K. Davis for United States senator is remarkable.

Deservingly Popular. Henderson Independent. We see that Judge J. L. Macdonald of Shakopee, is prominently spoken of as the Democratic candidate for congress in the Third district.

Another Candidate. Winnebago Press-News. The Mankato Free Press, in its last issue, mentions the name of E. Freeman for congress.

Everything Lovely. Mankato Free Press. Freeborn county is lovely for congress. Mr. Lovely is a strong man, and his nomination would meet with general approval in the First district.

One County for Gibbs. Pinestone Republican. M. D. Gibbs' name is receiving favorable mention for the nomination for governor on the Republican ticket.

A General Scramble. Duluth Herald. Now is a favorable for state offices will commence in earnest. Scheffer, Gilman, Gibbs and McGill are now scratching gravel and are making every effort to get first place.

Necessary Qualifications. Elk River Star-News. Let's see, has Albert Scheffer got a hen, a Polled Angus calf, a pig, or anything of that kind that he can offer in sympathy with the "tillers of the soil"?

Gilman in the Lead. Mr. Gilman and his friends are working extra hard to secure the nomination for him for the gubernatorial nomination.

McGill Looming Up. Arlington Enterprise. A. R. McGill is looming up as the leading candidate for Gov. Hubbard's position, and from all appearances he will capture the Republican nomination.

Why He is Supported. Glencoe Enterprise. An exchange says that Gen. Barrett is being supported for governorship because he is a farmer. This is all wrong.

Mr. White Called Down. Spring Valley Advertiser. It's among the under a shames of the tin. That just at present the political atmosphere is not very bracing for C. A. Gilman.

A Remarkable Show. Waseon County Herald. If the newspaper comments of the state are any indication of popular feeling, Hon. A. R. McGill stands a reasonable chance of being the Republican nominee for governor.
