ANARCHISTS IN 'ST. PAUL.

A Socialist Says He Has Been Threatened by Them.

"I wish to protest against the newspaper allusions to the Chicago Lehr and Wehr Verein as a socialistic society," said Otto Haese, an intelligent German, and one of the leaders of the socialistic society in St. Paul.

"If it had not been for the trouble in Chicago we would have taken part in the coming campaign, but it would be foolish for us to try to do so now with the public and the redskins we considered dangerous animals. There are not more than six anarchists in St. Paul, and only three are very radical.

THE NEEDS OF I.O.

Bishop Whipple Talks on the Indian Before the Chamber.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce yesterday morning the resolution offered at the last meeting, asking the council to pass an ordinance, to take effect on the 1st of March next, to effectually prevent the sale of ice in the city limits taken from the Mississippi river, or any of its lakes, sloughs or bayous, was adopted.

FOR A BRIEF SEASON.

Men Who Are Temporarily in the City—Their Many Missions.

C. Van Campen, Rochester, is an arrival at the Merchants. He is the secretary of the Southern Minnesota Fair association, and is most enthusiastic over the coming exhibition under the auspices of that society.

A Call Upon Gen. Hayes.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon about forty members of the Loyal Legion resident in St. Paul, and a few from Minneapolis, paid their respects to ex-President Hayes, commander-in-chief of the Loyal Legion, at the residence of the Hon. Alexander Ramsey, who is temporarily residing here in the city.

ON DAYTON'S BLUFF

Will Soon be More Police, Street Cars and a Bridge.

At the opening of the regular meeting of the Dayton's Bluff union last evening the committee appointed to examine into the Ontario or installment plan of public assessments reported in favor of the plan and suggested that steps be taken to further the interests of the movement.

SANITARY MEASURES.

Stockyards at the Transfer—Sewerage on the Bluff.

Chairman Sterrett, Drs. Nichols and Eddy and Messrs. Hinkle and Bartlett of the sanitary committee of section 1, of the Seventh ward appeared before the board of health yesterday afternoon, with reference to securing some dumping ground for the offal and refuse of the slaughter houses at the Minnesota Transfer. An interesting discussion of an informal nature was indulged in by these gentlemen who represented that a number of property owners had been furnished with septic tanks for their premises, so as to reach the river to deposit the offal, but this has been unsuccessful.

A SEWER SYSTEM

To drain the zymotic district, on Dayton's bluff in the Forest street section—a section where scarlet fever and diphtheria are more prevalent than in any other part of the city, because of the innumerable standing pools of stagnant water.

Sewers were also recommended for Farmington avenue, from Nelson avenue to Carroll street, and for East Seventh street, from Hope to Margaret streets. Notices are to be served on property owners to have the pools filled in before thirty days at the corner of Winter street and Brewster avenue, and the one near the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Arch street.

A LIFE FOR A SCALP.

An Indian Shot Dead While Scalping Dick Warner.

It is not generally known that Dick Warner, the well-known lacrosse player, whose face is familiar to every old settler in St. Paul, was scalped by a real live Indian, painted red, but such is a fact. It was the 25th of July, 1876, nearly ten years ago, that Dick and a party of friends were prospecting in the Black Hills for "color."

CHEFFER WILL NOT FIGHT.

He Says He Has no Time to Give up to Politics.

Lieut. Gov. Gilman was walking around the rotunda of the Merchants last night with a spry step and cheerful countenance. When a Globe reporter asked him if there was anything new, he replied, "Nothing new, except that Scheffer has withdrawn from the field and I have only Gibbs and McGill to look out for."

IMPROVING THE OLYMPIC.

Ald. Conley says he will throw the doors of his popular resort, the Olympic, open about Aug. 21, and that he will give the people of St. Paul a class of entertainment next winter that they will take pleasure in patronizing.
