saloons recently enjoined are closed, and the proprietors are preparing to leave the city. Considerable excitement was occasioned to-night when the officers in trying to arrest two "bums," fired at them. The report circulated rapidly through the city that they were attempting to arrest the murderers of Rev. Mr. Haddock, and for a short time the city was feverish again. It was soon learned, however, that this was not the case, but the incident goes to show the state of feeling prevailing in Sioux City. Never before has the public pulse run so high as the mystery and surrounding diabolical deed is sufficient to keep every one on the alert.

The Montana Press Association. Special to the Globe. BOZEMAN, Mont., Aug. 19.—The Montana Press Association met in annual session here to-day. Representatives of nearly every paper in the territory are present.

Special to the Globe. Visited the Caves. CLINTON, Ia., Aug. 19.—A party of sixty-five of the leading gentlemen and ladies of Clinton and Lyons, the guests of Mrs. Artemus Lamb, went to the caves, ten miles from Maquoket, in Jackson county, yesterday. A train was chartered on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, which landed the party at Maquoket, where carriages were taken to the caves, which are wonderful. The party reached home late last night. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Lamb.
