

DEDICATED TO ST. PAUL

A Love Feast of Representatives of the Twin Cities at the Exposition.

What the Mayor of Minneapolis Said to the Mayor of St. Paul.

A Probability of a Combined Fat Stock, Citrus and Bench Show.

Programme for Next Week—The Orphans, Germans, Millers and Locomotive Firemen.

St. Paul Day at the Exposition. Yesterday was St. Paul day at the Minneapolis exposition, and the attendance was about equal to that of Friday, which was dedicated to the "other twin."

FRANK FARNSWORTH BURIED. A Sad Scene at the Grave—A Calamity Denied. The body of Frank Farnsworth, the victim of Frank Meade's revolver, arrived at Minneapolis at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and was followed by Layman's censure by two other sorrowing friends and relatives, among the latter being the widow and two young daughters of deceased Mrs. Strong.

MAJOR AMES, who in a characteristic and cordial address tendered the freedom of the city to the St. Paul visitors. He closed by saying that if the friendship of the two cities was as strong as that which existed between the mayors, that such a thing as a "cold wave" of feeling will never come between them.

THE DIRECTOR'S MEETING was held in the morning and Secretary Eryon read the following:

SAM. M. KENARK, President. J. H. JOHNSON, General Manager.

C. M. Palmer, from the committee on advertising, reported having seen notice on two large excursions to leave Ohio on the 15th and 24th for the Exposition; also that excursion tickets are being sold from Columbus, O., at $26.20; Cincinnati, $25.85; Indianapolis, $22.50. These tickets are good for forty days, and the committee report that large parties can be expected.

THE PROGRAMME FOR THE COMING WEEK was next discussed and decided upon as follows:

Monday, German Day—Visit of the Milwaukee Leidekrantz society and attendance of all German musical and civic organizations. Grand chorus by the Leidekrantz and Harmonia societies.

Tuesday, Millers' Day—Visit by the Millers' National association, Pennsylvania State Millers' association and millers from Minnesota and adjoining states.

Wednesday, Orphans' Day—Visit of all inmates of orphan asylums of Minneapolis as guests of Reagan Bros.' special programme afternoon and evening for the benefit of the little ones.

Thursday, Second Minneapolis Day—Monster parade of military and civic societies in the evening.

Friday, Railroad Day—Visit of National Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Saturday, Masonic and Secret Society Day—Attendance of local and Northwestern commanderies of Knights Templar, before departure to attend the triennial convocate at St. Louis.

MONDAY'S PROGRAMME is especially elaborate in honor of the reception of the Milwaukee Leidekrantz band. A grand chorus composed of the Leidekrantz and Harmonia societies will render several selections. The Mexican band will also render the following programme:

Wanderlust, (march), Curth; Der Freyschutz, (overture), Weber; Klage von Rhein, (gavotte), C. Lamant. Thirty minutes intermission. Rev. J. J. Mackey, pastor, Supper; Blane Danan, (waltz), Strauss; Homage a Vienna, (polka), Strauss. Thirty minutes intermission. Farnsworth, (patriotic), Wagner; Faust, (fantasia), Gounod; Schubert's serenade.

THE ORGAN BECTAL will include the following numbers: Swedish Wedding March, Sodermann; grand chorale for full organ, Julius Andrae; petit offertoire in C minor, Bapstiste; credo from Hayden's mass; "The Organized Banner."

ENERGETIC efforts are being put forth to secure an attraction for the winter season that will create another big exhibition. It is planned to have a combined fat stock, citrus and bench show. A portion of the building will be enclosed and fitted up for the exhibits.

Col. Hibbard left last evening on a trip to Chicago, expecting to return Tuesday. All the orphans of the various asylums of the city will be supplied with tickets on Wednesday by the kindness of Reagan Bros. Owner, the restaurateur, will also furnish the children with a lunch. It is expected that about two hundred orphans will be present.

The pregnant next Thursday night will be dismissed at the doors of the Exposition. All the civic and military societies will participate.

HEARD IN COURT.

The infidelities of Married Couples Passed Upon by Law. The list of divorces granted here in the district court yesterday was not large. The most important one was that of Martha Ann Brown against William John Brown, whom she charged with using abusive language and treating her in a cruel and heartless manner. The parties were married the 22d of June, 1864, and lived together until 1884, when the plaintiff left the defendant. She stated that her husband had always treated her in a cruel and heartless manner, and especially after her two children were born. She said he never contributed anything toward the support of herself or the children. According to Mrs. Brown, Mr. Brown was of a very jealous disposition, and one day, meeting her on Nicollet avenue, stopped her and openly accused her of infidelity and wanted to know who the man was, in order that he might kill him. When Mr. Brown came home in the evening he drew a revolver and threatened to kill his wife, and said he would have done so had he had it with him when he met her on the street. Mrs. Brown said that, although her husband made considerable money as an express man, she had been obliged to support herself since their marriage. Mrs. Brown taught school part of the time, and while so doing her husband drew her salary and spent it on himself. Ben, Carr, the father of Mrs. Brown, testified that on one occasion he had seen Mr. Brown strike at Mrs. Brown with a pair of brass knuckles. The divorce was granted.

OTHER CASES.

A divorce was granted Frances B. Palmer from Willis H. Palmer on the ground of desertion and failure to support. The parties were married in Minneapolis Sept. 15, 1871, and after Mrs. Palmer's child was born her husband left her and has since refused to provide for her. Mrs. Palmer is a handsome young lady of 21 years and feels her affliction very deeply.

OUR GERMAN GUESTS.

Arrival of the Milwaukee Leidekrantz—"To-Day's" Programme. The Leidekrantz society of Milwaukee is in the city, the guest of the Harmonia Singing society. The first delegation arrived by the Milwaukee road yesterday, and was met at the depot by a reception committee from Harmonia, the Danz band and a delegation of citizens. A platoon of police, in command of Capt. Buertgening and Sergt. Notman, headed the procession, which marched through the streets and ended at Harmonia hall, where Mayor Ames delivered an address of welcome and tendered the hospitality of the city to the Cream City singers. This morning a second delegation will arrive, and to-morrow night a grand concert will be given at Harmonia hall, under the leadership of W. Wilhelm Borchert, of Milwaukee, and Richard Stempf, of Minneapolis. Following is the programme:

Overture, Ruy Blas, Mendelssohn, Danz Orchestra; "Spring Wassel," a Yuletide, The Asra, b. Louing, Rubenstein, Mr. Joseph Benedetti; Swedish Wedding March, Sodermann; Harmonia Ladies Chorus; Aria from "The Forest," Haeser, Milwaukee Liederkranz; duet, "Wanderer's Night Song," Rubenstein, Messrs. J. G. Boyer and J. Bonstedt; male chorus, "Lamentation," Giusok, mass chorus, Liederkranz and Harmonia.

On Monday the Liederkranz will visit the Exposition, where German day will be celebrated in their honor. In the evening the Liederkranz, accompanied by Harmonia friends, called at the city hall and tendered Mayor Ames a serenade. The mayor responded with a few remarks, and then invited all to adjourn to the council chamber, where several songs were sung, light refreshments served, etc.

FRANK FARNSWORTH BURIED.

A Sad Scene at the Grave—A Calamity Denied. The body of Frank Farnsworth, the victim of Frank Meade's revolver, arrived at Minneapolis at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and was followed by Layman's censure by two other sorrowing friends and relatives, among the latter being the widow and two young daughters of deceased Mrs. Strong.

The widow nearly threw herself upon the coffin, and could hardly be prevailed upon to leave it. The little girls cried for their "papa" piously, and the last farewell was a most sad one. Friends called at a most sad one. Friends called at a most sad one.

John S. Kenney, a hatter in the employ of P. J. Lawler, was brought into the police station last night suffering from a severe wound just back of his right ear. His story is that about 12:30, while in the alley near Terrell's saloon on Second street, he was knocked down by some person to him unknown. On attempting to rise he was again struck a blow on the forehead, which rendered him unconscious. People who heard the noise rushed out and carried him into the St. James hotel, from whence he was removed to the lock-up. The wound in his head was sewed up and no serious results will follow.

When Detective Hoy stepped up to R. M. Tenman in South Minneapolis, late last evening, and placed him under arrest, Tenman changed color, but said not a word. The citizen who was arrested was committed Friday. Tenman has for some time past been employed by the Northwest Oil company, and handled considerable of the company's funds. Friday morning he collected several large bills, for which he was given. These he indorsed and converted them into money. Instead of turning the money over to the firm, he proceeded to a gambling house on Nicollet avenue and there dropped the whole roll. As soon as this was lost he left and went to South Minneapolis, where he has since been in hiding. He has a wife and four small children residing at 515 Fourth avenue southeast. His wife is making a strong endeavor to settle the matter. About a year ago Tenman was caught in a similar crime while working for one of the former proprietors of the same company, but the matter was settled without publicity.

The committees in charge of the arrangements for next Thursday night's parade are engaged in collecting sufficient money to defray expenses. Mayor Ames states that no parades or processions are allowed on the streets during the pageantry—especially the streets selected for the line of march.

While a Northern Pacific train was entering the city last evening a thief secured a quantity of jewelry from a passenger and made his escape. Detective Lawrence was out on the case, and the thief was captured near the depot. They are now at police headquarters. The thief was not captured.

Six Persons Drowned. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 11.—A letter from Fountain Run, Ky., gives the particulars of an accident near that place by which six persons lost their lives. A party consisting of the wife and child of Roy Turner, two sons of Nelson Turner and two young men named Hood, were fording Green river in a wagon when the horses became frightened and ran down stream into deep water. The wagon upset, and as none of the occupants could swim, the entire party was drowned.

Kansas City 9, St. Louis. KANSAS CITY, Sept. 11.—The Maroons played very badly to-day, and it was only through errors of the home team that they made a run. The Cowboys outplayed them at all points. The game was called at the eighth inning on account of darkness.

THE GUN CLUB'S GUEST.

The sad accident while hunting, resulting in the death of ex-Mayor C. Hooper Phillips, of Nashville, Tenn., near Aberdeen, Dak., when he was detailed in yesterday's Globe, Mr. Phillips was a member of the Interstate Hunting club, of Tennessee and Kentucky, which was spending a season in Dakota.

While duck-hunting, James Raines, another member of the club, accidentally discharged his gun at Mr. Phillips, blowing the top of his head off. The sun was at once abandoned and overcast, and the party started homeward. They reached here yesterday and were received by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Road and Gun club, the remains of Mr. Phillips were embalmed, placed in an elegant casket and forwarded to Nashville. A meeting of the two clubs was held in the afternoon, and the local club adopted memorial resolutions, setting forth its grief at the lamentable affair and its sympathy for the unfortunate, but blameless casualty of the accident. These were handsomely endorsed and signed by A. B. Chamberlain, president, and S. S. Klotz, secretary.

After the mournful ceremony was over the guests were escorted about the city, taken to the Exposition, and finally accompanied to the evening train on their way home.

A Close Call.

Officer John Schroeder had a narrow escape from a terrible death Saturday evening. He was just getting into the patrol wagon with a drunken woman when some one gave the order to go ahead. At that moment the woman made a jump to get out, and the officer was partially thrown out, his feet catching on the step of his club and he fell under the wheels. John clung to his prisoner, however. The wagon was stopped and the officer relieved from his dangerous position.

An Ames Club.

The Democrats of Minneapolis are enthusiastic in their support of Mayor Ames for governor, and they propose to go to St. Paul on Tuesday, united and determined, to secure to him the nomination if possible. Last night they organized an Ames club, which will go through the entire campaign in the event that should prove the choice of the state. The attendance was large and the feeling, as expressed by the speakers, most sanguine. Aid. E. T. Gibson was elected chief marshal and J. N. Priesler, James McFadden, George W. Harbitz and Aid. E. J. L'Hercule were chosen aids. The club will assemble at the city hall on Monday evening for the purpose of arranging further details.

Glenn Wants Nothing.

Commenting upon a review of the political situation as to the candidacy of Mayor Ames for governor that appeared in yesterday's Globe, Col. M. W. Glenn said to a reporter: "I have nothing to say. The friends of Dr. Ames all over the state need not be worried by the fear that I am a candidate for any position within the gift of the state Democratic convention. I will not be nominated. The only interest I have in this fight is to see that my friend, Mayor Ames, is elected for governor. I wish to see Democracy of the state carried out to the chairmanship of the state executive committee or any position or office within the gift of the convention."

Knocked Down.

John S. Kenney, a hatter in the employ of P. J. Lawler, was brought into the police station last night suffering from a severe wound just back of his right ear. His story is that about 12:30, while in the alley near Terrell's saloon on Second street, he was knocked down by some person to him unknown. Lost in a Gambling House.

The citizen who was arrested was committed Friday. Tenman has for some time past been employed by the Northwest Oil company, and handled considerable of the company's funds.
