

ITLIES WITH MR. KELLY

The Strength of the Democratic State Convention That Will be Held To-morrow.

A Showing of Counties That are Known to be for Kelly, With the Doubtful Ones.

Who the Delegates are That Will Nominate a Governor—The State Central Committee.

Gossip on the Situation—Who May Be the Man It Will Be Not Amos.

Mr. Kelly Has the Strength.

That Mr. Kelly will win the majority of the convention to-morrow there is no room for doubt. In fact, there does not seem to have been any organized opposition to him throughout the state, and only in isolated instances have instructions been given in opposition to him.

- Counties for Kelly: Aitkin, Becker, Big Lake, Blue Earth, Carver, Cass, Chisago, Clay, Cook, Douglas, Fillmore, Grant, Hennepin, Kandiyohi, Kittson, Lake, Lake Superior, Lincoln, Marshall, Martin, Murray, St. Louis, Stearns, Swift, Tazewell, Todd, Wabasha, Watonwan, Winona, Wright, Yellow Medicine, etc.

Some Political Candidates.

But Few Bids in for Minor Offices—P. H. Rahilly's Aspirations.

To-morrow morning at 10 o'clock the Democratic state convention will be called to order, and those whose names are cast into the political waters, anticipate one of the liveliest sessions that has ever taken place in St. Paul with a political brand on it.

It is expected that the delegates will begin to show up at the hotel early, and that the various candidates will be in the field in full uniform to marshal their forces into line, but all quiet, and not a delegate was in sight up to that hour.

Who the Delegate are.

As the county conventions have been held from time to time, the delegates to the state convention have been published in the GLOBE. A few counties have not elected delegates but will be represented to-day, one of the most important delegations yet to be chosen being from Winona.

In comparatively few counties the delegates have been instructed, Hennepin, the largest having a notable exception, the delegates there being instructed for Ames. The delegates to be in St. Paul in good numbers to-day. Below are the names of the delegates reported:

- Adams—J. F. Foley, T. J. McCarthy. Anoka—W. A. Greenwald, John Coleman, T. M. Sullivan. Beltrami—P. Beaudette, A. De Lacy Wood, Charles Van Erden. Benton—A. D. Wood, Philip Beaupre, Thomas Van Etch.

Notes.

For lieutenant-governor there are mentioned John C. Wise, of Mankato; M. W. Glenn, of Minneapolis; T. C. Krutz, of Moorhead; and John Ludwig, of Emerson. If Ames is not nominated for governor, the names of M. Doran, Mayor Rice, Judge Flanagan, H. W. Wells and George L. Becker are talked of.

Special to the Globe.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—In reply to a resolution of the house of representatives, Jan. 27, 1886, requesting the secretary of the treasury to transmit to the house a statement of balances due to and from the United States, acting Secretary Fairchild caused to be prepared an extensive and exhaustive statement, which the house ordered to be printed.

Bent the Government.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—In reply to a resolution of the house of representatives, Jan. 27, 1886, requesting the secretary of the treasury to transmit to the house a statement of balances due to and from the United States, acting Secretary Fairchild caused to be prepared an extensive and exhaustive statement, which the house ordered to be printed.

THE PENSION OFFICE.

Gen. Black's Able Administration of a Department That Was Run as a Republican Machine.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The attempt of the Pensioner Press to justify the administration of the pension office and to attack the present excellent and honest commissioner will be futile. It cannot be doubted that the commissioners of pensions for the past quarter of a century have been using their great and powerful office as a political machine.

THE SOLDIERS' BUREAU.

For political ends. But it will not do. Facts are facts, stubborn in their case. The records are on file, and cannot be gained. Commissioner Black has merely shown the records as he has found them, the best, bravest, and most reliable of men.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

To-day's Contest Expected to Result in Republican Success, as Usual.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 12.—The biennial Maine election occurs to-morrow. There are to be chosen a governor, congressmen, 31 state senators and 151 representatives, with county officials in all the counties.

A FIGHTERS' GAME.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—About three thousand people witnessed the ball game at Ridgewood park (Brooklyn) to-day between the Brooklyn and Metropolitan.

EL COYOTE'S MOVEMENTS.

EAGLE PASS, TEX., Sept. 12.—The Mexican cavalry that were dispatched after El Coyote returned to Piedras Negras to-day. They report that his men dispersed and crossed the Rio Grande into Texas before the troops could catch them.

AN HONEST MAN.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 12.—A bank containing over $7,000, lost by Walter Clerk Robson while riding on a street car yesterday, was found in the roadway by a taster named John Gallagher shortly after the car passed by, and was returned to the bank intact this afternoon.

OFFICERS LOST.

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—The bark Lizzie Carter, from Mantanzas, which arrived here to-day, reports having lost First Officer Samuel Reed, Second Officer David Livingston and a crew member.

THE COLLECTION SMALL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—The cabinet-makers had a meeting to-day in support of the eight-hour movement. A call for funds for support of the men now on the strike for eight hours a day's work brought forth just $12, and much of this sum was in nickels.

STORM SWEEP.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—During the heavy storm which prevailed here this evening, the wind had a clear sweep over the upper end of the city and did considerable damage. Signs and awnings were torn down and houses unroofed. The gale was felt more generally in Manhattanville, where several buildings were unroofed and the streets were entirely demolished.

DESTROYED SMALL HOUSES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—A severe storm passed over Westchester this evening destroying shade trees and wrecking buildings.

Bent by a Scratch.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 12.—St. Paul sustained its third consecutive defeat from Milwaukee to-day. The day was cold and windy and good playing was hardly expected, yet both sides played creditably.

A DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

In Which a Young Man Kills His Father and an Officer of the Law.

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 12.—The Oregonian's Spokane Falls, W. T., special gives particulars of a double tragedy which occurred on the 7th in Grand Coulee, half way between Spokane Falls and Okanagan.

MINNEAPOLIS BADLY TROUDED.

Eau Claire won from Minneapolis yesterday with hands down, outplaying the local team at all points. Nearly three thousand persons gathered in the stands and alternately applauded the good plays and gaped at the errors, which were frequent.

SCORE BY INNINGS.

Table with columns for Innings (1-9) and Runs, Hits, Errors (R, H, E) for Milwaukee and St. Paul.

FOR POLITICAL ENDS.

For political ends. But it will not do. Facts are facts, stubborn in their case. The records are on file, and cannot be gained. Commissioner Black has merely shown the records as he has found them, the best, bravest, and most reliable of men.

REFORMED CRIMINAL.

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—Claude B. Lasell, Jr., who was arrested in Chicago yesterday, is pardoned in Boston for forgery. After his pardon and release from the New Jersey state prison in 1885, he came to Boston, claiming to be a reformed criminal, and he secured the confidence of Y. M. C. A. officials and persuaded them to start a scheme of a reformed convict's home, with him as the manager.

ELLECTING A CHIEF.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 12.—The Times-Democrat Indian Territory special says: The canvass for principal chief is attracting general attention. Harris Robbitt Bunch and Joel B. Mays, the candidates of the general national assembly, are working quietly but effectively.

WHILEMEN ON TOUR.

FORT MONROE, Va., Sept. 12.—About fifty members of the American Wheelmen's association, on their annual tour, have arrived here from New York.

JAEHNE WAS PRETTY TOUGH.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—It is said that Convic Jaehne's friends despair of his pardon now. The rumor that Alter was a prisoner at police headquarters proved to be well founded. He returned from Canada about ten days ago and was arrested Thursday night by detectives.
