

TRIED TO BURN A TOWN

Desperate Attempt Made by Firebugs to Destroy the Thriving City of Wabasha.

A Dwight, Dak., Farmer Gets Drunk on Raw Alcohol and is Burned to Death.

The People of Fergus Falls Organize a Large Sized Boom for Ames.

Fires at Eau Claire and Douglas, Wis.—Republican County Conventions.

The Work of Firebugs.

WARASHA, Oct. 5.—About midnight last night the watchman at the Tuger furniture factory discovered the warehouse to be on fire. Before the flames could be reached they were beyond control. The fire started near the same spot where four weeks ago one had been extinguished. The warehouse was filled with finished furniture ready for shipment and was totally destroyed. The loss is estimated at $14,000; insured for $9,000. The hard wood lumber piled in the yard of the factory was saved. When this blaze was under control fire was discovered in McKenzie's grocery store, four blocks north, near the business portion of the town. This was totally destroyed, with most of its contents, including nine horses, McKenzie's residence, adjacent and the Central house opposite, were saved. The loss is estimated at $4,000; $1,500 insurance. Ingram, Kenney & Gill lost about 10,000 feet of lumber at the first fire. Both fires were the work of firebugs who were without question. At McKenzie's stables a man was seen to jump from the hayloft of the barn, which was almost immediately a mass of flames. While this fire was in progress two men were discovered near the McKenzie's boarding house, and a man was chased from the rear of Whitman's drug store. To destroy the town must have been the object. Had the northwest wind of a few days previous been blowing it would have been impossible to save the town, having nothing to fight firewith.

A Drunkard's Fate.

WABASHA, Dak., Oct. 5.—Last Sunday two Norwegian farmers named Hung and Bronson, living near Dwight in this county, got drunk on alcohol, laid down by a haystack and set a fire. The fire soon got enough sense left to get out of the fire, but Hung didn't and he was burned to death.

The Ames Boom.

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., Oct. 5.—The Democratic executive committee of Otter Tail's Democracy is working night and day. The Ames boom is increasing, and the prospects are very encouraging. Katie Nelson was in the city yesterday. He seemed to be very much aggrieved at McGill's prospects here. The Ames club has 350 enrolled members to date.

Fire at Eau Claire.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Oct. 5.—Fire broke out this afternoon at the lower residence portion of the East side, starting from a barn in which some boys were hiding while they smoked. Owing to the failure of the water supply on the East side, due to the breaking of the main across the Eau Claire river, the flames were uncontrollable until a fire engine was secured. About half a block was swept clean, the residences of Rev. William H. Lockwood and Fowler Ellison and four other buildings damaged. Total loss about seven thousand dollars; insurance about four thousand dollars.

A Fire at Douglas.

SUPERIOR, Wis., Oct. 5.—A fire at Douglas early this morning totally destroyed the planing mill and contents, owned by K. G. Staples, and also two cars of lumber situated near the mill. The fire originated from the engine room. Loss about four thousand dollars; no insurance.

St. Croix Republicans.

HUDSON, Wis., Oct. 5.—The Republican county convention for placing in nomination a ticket for a member of the assembly, and candidates for all the county offices met in this city this afternoon. All the towns in the county, excepting Erin Prairie, were represented. E. K. Arnold, of Springfield, was elected chairman, and S. U. Hawkins, of New Richmond, secretary. The first informal ballot for assemblyman resulted: Ed Connor 17, Thomas Porter 15, H. L. Humphrey 19. Mr. Porter withdrew, and Mr. Humphrey was nominated on the second ballot by a majority. For sheriff there were six candidates. The following are their names and the vote on the first ballot: Homer Eider 24, J. W. Hitchcock, G. W. Peck, J. S. Robert Higgins 8, S. Beebe 4. Thomas Young 1. Bidegar was nominated on the second ballot. The rest of the ticket is as follows: For treasurer, W. B. Andrews, of Hammond; county clerk, Charles Peterson, of Springfield; clerk of the court, Otto A. W. Amquist, of Hudson; district attorney, S. J. Bradford; register of deeds, Thomas Chinnichof, of Troy; superintendent, Miss Betsy M. Chapin, of Hudson; coroner, H. W. Crosby. The following county committee was appointed: S. Campbell, chairman; Armstrong Taylor, Ossian Williams, U. M. Johnson, J. E. G. Gifford. The campaign was opened by a meeting at Opera hall in the evening, addressed by Phil Check, Senator Spooner and others.

Little Interest in Gifford.

RAPID CITY, Dak., Oct. 5.—The Republican county convention, of Pennington county, held in this city, placed the following ticket in nomination: Register of deeds, James Long; sheriff, D. G. Ferguson; treasurer, Milton Fergus; probate judge, B. B. Benedict; district attorney, W. T. Coak; superintendent of schools, J. W. Meers; coroner, Abel Mathias; surveyor, C. W. Elyden; assessor, H. C. Crockett. The following delegates were chosen to attend the district convention held next week: A. J. Simmons, J. W. Fowler, W. H. Mitchell, J. F. Schramm, A. C. Boland, A. C. Tipton and E. E. Gifford. Hon. O. S. Gifford, of Canton, was present and made a short speech to the convention, the opening one of his stumping tour of the Black Hills. His presence here excites comparatively little interest.

A Strong Ticket.

JACKSON, Minn., Oct. 5.—The Democratic and Independent Republicans of Jackson county, Minnesota, met at Lakefield Oct. 2 and put in nomination a John A. Stafford; treasurer, John Fredericks; register of deeds, L. B. Lund; clerk of court, John B. Brakke; county attorney, D. M. DeVore; superintendent of schools, Miss Flora Frost; sheriff, Michael Miller; court commissioner, S. C. East; coroner, J. C. Portman; county commissioners, John Baldwin, First district; Henry Anderson, Second district; A. D. Palmer, Third district; John Pawlisch, Fourth district; and Gustave Mellicke, Sixth district. The ticket is a strong one, and will bring out a full vote.

For the Legislature.

MORRIS, Minn., Oct. 5.—The Democratic convention for the Forty-second legislative district was held here to-day. George I. Becker, of Brown Valley, and Loren E. Pearce, of Morris, were unanimously nominated for senator and representative respectively.

A Flour Mill Enterprise.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 5.—The Eau Claire Roller Mill company has filed articles of association with the secretary of state. The object is to construct a flour mill at that place. The incorporators are M. W. Harris, T. E. Stockard, and J. C. Culver. The capital stock is $50,000.

A Hunter's Death.

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., Oct. 5.—Coroner Bedford returned to-day from near Perham, where he was summoned to look into the death of George Keeth. The body was found in the foot of two large trees in the woods, a mile and a half from Keeth's shanty. Keeth had erected a platform between the two trees, about fifteen feet up, reached by cross bars nailed to the trees. It was on this platform that he was undoubtedly occupied by him while shooting a deer which passed below. The supposition is that in climbing up to his platform one of the hammers of his gun caught on a cross-bar and was discharged. The charge struck him in the right cheek and passed upward, literally tearing away the entire top of his head.

OFFENDED AT "JACK."

The Traveling Men's Protective Association Resolves Against Him.

Special to the Globe. ABERDEEN, Oct. 5.—A number of members of the Traveling Men's Protective association met here recently and passed resolutions condemning a writer on the Minneapolis Tribune, signing himself "Jack," and assuming to represent the association. H. Brooks was chairman and L. L. K. secretary. C. Hawley, J. D. Jones, S. T. Johnson, W. C. March, S. F. Spencer and M. E. Curtis drafted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted: Whereas, We, as members of the Traveling Men's Protective association of the United States, and other commercial travelers assembled in normal session at Aberdeen, Dak., have occasion to take exception to certain articles published in the Minneapolis Tribune directed to the T. P. A. as an organization, and to certain of its officers, as well as to other estimable men not members of the T. P. A. we therefore...

Resolved, That while we grant to all men the privilege of discussing and criticizing all organizations, the T. P. A. excepted, yet we condemn and denounce the evident attempts of Jack, under the sanction of the Minneapolis Tribune, to malign the T. P. A. in the manner herein set forth.

Resolved, That we, as members of the T. P. A., do hereby advise all our members to sever all connections with Jack, and to advise all other members of the T. P. A. to do the same.

Resolved, That we, as members of the T. P. A., do hereby advise all our members to sever all connections with Jack, and to advise all other members of the T. P. A. to do the same.

judge of probate, Robert J. Wells; coroner, W. E. Traxer; superintendent of schools, D. McDaniel; surveyor, George Robinson; court commissioner, J. E. Pettit.

Dr. Ames' Dates.

Dr. A. A. Ames, Democratic candidate for governor, will address the people at Pine City to-night (Wednesday), Rush City to-morrow night, Duluth Saturday night.

Killed by the Cars.

MARSHFIELD, Wis., Oct. 5.—A laborer named Miller, from near Stevens Point, employed on a work train, was killed near here to-day by attempting to jump from a flat-car to a detached engine. He fell and the wheels passed over him. Deceased was a married man. It was his first day on the road.

Red Wing.

Red Wing, Oct. 5.—Bernard Loogren, aged 25 years, died at 5 o'clock this morning at his residence on Fourth street. He leaves a wife and family to mourn the loss. Funeral services will be held at Christ church at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. A Republican campaign club of which he was a member, will have charge. The interment will take place in Oakwood cemetery. Articles of incorporation of the German Evangelical Lutheran Grace congregation have been filed with the register of deeds. The location of the society is Goodhue street. A Republican campaign club has been organized here, with Elmer F. B. Howe as president. A religious meeting of the congregation at B. Herbert was held at the Casino last evening. Addresses were made by local speakers. The chances of electing two county commissioners in the coming election are very bright. Rev. C. H. Plummer and Judge Wilder are in Chicago at the Episcopal conference. Rev. John St. John, of Stockholm, Wis., has been called to the pastorate of the Swedish Lutheran church in Minneapolis. He will probably accept. It is expected to have trains running into Mankato over the Cannon Valley railroad by Jan. 1. The Red Wing fire department of which he was a member, will have charge. The interment will take place in Oakwood cemetery. Articles of incorporation of the German Evangelical Lutheran Grace congregation have been filed with the register of deeds.
