WEEK OF OCTOBER 18!

A HURRICANE OF NOVELTIES

An All-Overpowering of Startling Sensational Surprises!

By special dispensation of the municipal authorities of Chicago, A STARTLING FEATURE!

8 AUDACIOUS ANARCHISTS! 8

$10,000 Reward. The Chicago Sheriff Outwitted. The Gallows Chanted or its Prey. 8 CONDEMNED CHICAGO ANARCHISTS. Reproduced in wax with vivid fidelity to life. Their colossal crimes familiar to every one. The horrors of the inquisition were more pleasurable, and hell itself a ravishing delight, compared to the bloodthirsty villainies which they aimed to perpetrate.

The management of this museum, in furtherance of the determination already expressed to make it the foremost in the country, will offer a greater attraction than ever during the week. This will be the life-like reproduction in wax of the eight condemned Chicago anarchists. The opinion may be expressed with the highest degree of confidence that never in the history of dime museums in the United States has a more novel or startling attraction been offered than this latest managerial enterprise. The absorbing interest with which the whole civilized world has watched the course of the anarchist disturbances in Chicago has been truly participated in by the citizens of St. Paul. With these circumstances in view it may be said that no other attraction could possibly have been procured that would possess the same peculiar and sensational interest for St. Paul. As regards the figures themselves, their intrinsic value is very great. They were executed by artists famous in this particular branch and they are claimed to be perfect likenesses. This applies not only to features, but the proportion and build of the men and every detail of clothing is the SAME as worn at the trial; in fact, a portion of their clothing was purchased, and where impossible on account of the intended regenerators of the human race having ONE set of wearing apparel, that set has been copied with scrupulous exactness. The figures were made at great expense, and we feel sure we will be amply repaid for the outlay by the crowds of visitors during the week. Although fate has insured them to silence and conversation forbade, spectators can give them a critical examination.
