

Daily Globe

Published every day in the year. Lewis Baker, Editor. ST. PAUL, MONDAY, NOV. 8, 1886.

TEDDY is the defeated candidate for mayor of New York city, and now TEDDY wants sympathy. He knows where to come to get it.

HENRY GEORGE'S AMBITION. It is now proposed to run HENRY GEORGE as the Labor candidate for governor of New York.

THE ST. PAUL GLOBE Has a Larger Circulation than that of Any Other Newspaper Printed Northwest of Chicago.

HOME FOR STREET ARABS. There is so much of this world's charity wasted in impracticable endeavors that it does the heart good to see a charitable movement inaugurated which appeals so forcibly to the practical good sense and charitable instincts of a people as does the proposition to establish in this city a home for our street Arabs.

STREET IMPROVEMENT. The inclination which now exists to beautify and improve the different avenues of the residence districts is one which should receive distinct encouragement.

THE REAL ESTATE BOOM. Whatever individual differences may exist regarding politics, there is complete unanimity among all classes of St. Paul citizens upon the fact that the wonderful real estate boom, which the city is now enjoying, is deserving of the fullest encouragement.

HON. P. H. KELLY authorizes the GLOBE to say that $1,000 awaits the man who can prove that a letter was ever written by him to the Dakota county postmaster threatening him with the loss of his position should he vote for DONNELLY.

HENRY GEORGE has at least the advantage of having gained for his candidacy an advertisement which will be of distinct benefit to him in the way of circulating his books, and thus put money in his purse.

MR. TUCKER seems to have something of a lead on the face of the returns, but it is not a showing, considering that former majority of 41,000, which the Republicans can be proud.

THE ring organs will now carefully place their vilest of wrath and abuse upon the shoulders of the railroad companies, who have been the victims of their abuse again at the first available opportunity.

solation is to combat the theory and practice of a horse commune, and to enforce the same on a race of horse titles and horse ownership.

Edwin Booth Still Refuses to Go to Washington on Account of the Great Tragedy.

The Dude Styles Indicate a Mild Winter--Autograph Flocks at the White House.

Washington Doings. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—A lady was riding on horseback, out on the Tenleytown road, when her hat blew off and went sailing down the dusty thoroughfare.

Forest Legislation. NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Canadians are wiser than the people of the United States in the management of their forests.

A Michigan Schedule. Detroit Free Press. They have tried it in Michigan, and the public at large can now safely judge that it takes just a pint of cider to make a ten-year-old boy drunk.

Sure of Home Rule Now. Philadelphia Press. The coming marriage of Michael Davitt to a millionaire girl of California will be a happy union of American beauty and boogie to Irish brains and biceps.

Operative Reports. N. Y. Morning Journal. The most of the songs and ballads are likely to be made so much of this winter that the poor European bird who declines to open her mouth under $500 an open may get slighted.

They Still Have Hunger. Philadelphia News. As a step toward rehabilitating the British navy, uniform is not allowed to carry umbrellas. It appears that they will now have to learn to go in when it rains.

Why Hossas is Jealous. Philadelphia Press. The mouth of Miss Bartholomew is just a yard wide. Hence O'Donovan Rossa's bitter jealousy.

As Usual. Dallas (Tex.) News. Bartholdi did not make a speech. As usual, the man who does the work has the least to say about it.

A True Profectionist. St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Salem, Pa., has an educated mouse. The animal is thought to be a rabid protectionist.

But They Want. Philadelphia Times. This would be a happy land if all the imitation stamen did.

Social Club Employment. The Capital City Social club gave their first entertainment of the season last evening at Seibert's hall, which was a great success.

Clearing House Statement. BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The following table, compiled from special dispatches to the Post from the managers of the leading clearing houses in the United States, gives the gross exchanges at each port for the week ending Nov. 1886, in comparison with those of the corresponding period in 1885:
