

Daily Globe. PUBLISHED EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR. LEWIS BAKER. ST. PAUL, TUESDAY, NOV. 9, 1886.

ST. PAUL GLOBE SUBSCRIPTION RATES. DAILY (NOT INCLUDING SUNDAY). 37c. in advance, $3.00 3 mos., in advance, $7.50 6 mos., in advance, $12.00 1 year, in advance, $21.00

THEAT. PAUL GLOBE. Has a Larger Circulation than that of Any Other Newspaper Printed Northwest of Chicago, and is Steadily and Rapidly Increasing.

On the face of the official returns A. R. McGill has a plurality of a fraction of over 2,000, and will be the next governor of Minnesota.

THE RESULT. McGill has a plurality of a fraction of over 2,000, and will be the next governor of Minnesota.

THE SENATE. The New York Times figures out that in the next session of the United States senate the balance of power will be in the hands of the two independent senators.

BUSINESS LOOKING UP. The complete refutation of the cock-and-bull stories which our Republican friends delighted to tell of the direful things which would happen in the business world consequent upon the election of President Cleveland, is in no manner better illustrated than in the wonderful revival of unusual activity in all kinds of commercial transactions.

THE SOLDIERLY OUT. It is to be earnestly hoped there will be no occasion to make use of the services of the troops that have been ordered out in Chicago because of the strike at the stock yards.

THE HARVARD CELEBRATION. The entertainment of President Cleveland and unlimited champagne imported directly from the Maine apple orchards, Boston has a very swelled head, indeed, these mornings.

MINNEAPOLIS SHOULD USE THE EXPERIENCE HER EXPOSITION HAS GIVEN HER IN ABLY SECONDING ST. PAUL'S EFFORTS TO GIVE THE WORLD THE GREATEST MID-WINTER CARNAVAL EVER SAID.

THE RING IS NOW CONSIDERING THE ADVISABILITY OF PUTTING ITS TRADE-MARK OVER THE ENTRANCE TO THE STATE CAPITOL.

he will gladly assume the duties of the office for another term. But if the public fancies it would be better to enlist the services of a new man, then he will cheerfully retire.

IF SPEAKER CARLISLE really intends going to Kansas to live, as is rumored, the United States senatorship from that state may well consider itself corralled at once.

IT MAY BE GOV. MCGILL this time, but it will never, never be so again. In fact, the Republicans might as well from this term on bid a fond farewell to the title.

IT SEEMS that even inefficient naval contractors cannot always overcome a good run of luck.

NOW LET THE three Democratic members of congress from Minnesota agree upon the chairmanships they would like to have.

IT WILL be observed that, wise in their generation, the Republicans are not crowing much.

WHICH WAY THE WIND BLOWS. A St. Anthony Hill servant girl, who had for her lover the Earl of Bismarck, had a handsome son, who, called everything a Hercules, got off a 4-ply pun the other day, in all innocence.

HE MAY DAMAGE YOU, TOO. Under the laws of Iowa, if you call a man a "dumb-bell" or "haysack" it is a libel, for which he can sue and collect damages.

BLAINE'S DANGER. Mr. Blaine is getting dangerously near another "blow" to his political career.

WE DON'T WANT THEM. Detained at Castle Garden—two pauper immigrants, one of whom is a woman, please call and relieve Uncle Sam of their keep.

NO REFUGE FOR REDS. German Anarchists Advised That They Can Get Small Sympathy in the United States.

THE DISASTROUS EXPERIENCES OF MOST AND SCHENCK CITED AS SAD EXAMPLES. Arrest of Men Who Dared to Decorate French Soldiers' Tombs.

THE PRISONERS ENTHUSIASTICALLY RECEIVED EN ROUTE TO JAIL—THEIR RELEASE ADVISED.

NEWS FROM GERMANY. BERLIN, Nov. 8.—Emperor William has a slight cold, and is in consequence obliged to forego the proposed hunt at Spring.

THE EGYPTIAN QUESTION. PARIS, Nov. 8.—The Republic France says that in the interest of cordial relations between France and England, M. Waddington, French ambassador in London, has conveyed to Lord Salisbury the opinion of France that England would be well advised if she would take the initiative and fix a date for the evacuation of Egypt.

A FETTERED MAN WANTED. London Globe. We should like to see a fat man movement on this side of the Atlantic.

THE RIVON CONGRESS. ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 3.—(Press bygone was the subject of the morning session of the Georgia prison congress.

CONCERNING NEGRO-ANARCHISTS. A well-meaning and earnest gentleman, who claimed to be an old resident of Haska county, was evidently in a state of honor and good name—called at the Globe office yesterday and entered a protest against a published report of the editor of the "Globe" that Mr. W. W. W. had been arrested.

NEW ENSAKS ON HAN. Now are the days when the husband yearns for his wife's company, and she for his.

THE BISHOP DEAD. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 8.—Right Rev. John McLean, Bishop of Saskatchewan and one of the most prominent men of the Northwest territories, died at his residence at Prince Albert yesterday from the result of injuries received a few weeks ago, aged 65.

FAIR HARVARD'S SONS. Continued From First Page. "Star Spangled Banner" from the band, President Devins then introduced to the audience in turn Secretaries Bayard, Lamar, Whitte, and Endicott, who were received with DEAFENING cheers.

THE PRESIDENT and cabinet officers then withdrew to attend the reception at Faneuil hall. They were escorted by the Lancers, and reached the hall about 5 p. m.

THE OFFICIAL CANVASS OF THE VOTE—RICE RUNS TWO HUNDRED AHEAD OF AMES. The official canvass of the vote of Hennessee county began bright and early yesterday morning at the office of Auditor F. S. McDonald, who had appointed Justices Bailey and Woodward to assist him.

THE CANVASS OF THE VOTE—RICE RUNS TWO HUNDRED AHEAD OF AMES. Not a great change in this district, the result being as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Vote. Includes Senator, Representative, and various candidates.

THE HONORARY DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF LAWS WAS conferred by Harvard college on George D. Robinson, governor of Massachusetts.

OSCONA, Mich., Nov. 8.—There is great excitement in this neighborhood over the escape of Dr. David H. Weir, who is accused of criminally assaulting Mabel Clark.

WANTS HER SON RELEASED. ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Lizzie Roots, the mother of David S. Root, captain of the Adams express messenger, who was recently robbed on the St. Louis San Francisco railroad, a few miles from this city, applied today, through his attorneys, to Judge Thayer, who is in charge of the trial of her son, who has petitioned for his release, for a writ of habeas corpus.

THE MANHATTAN SAFE. GREENPORT, L. I., Nov. 8.—The revenue cutter Manhattan, which was reported lost, arrived here yesterday afternoon and will leave to-day on a cruise.

ST. LOUIS, Ky., Nov. 8.—At a negro festival near St. Stephens, Ky., Saturday night, Will Bondurant and John Nelson quarreled about a woman and Nelson was shot and killed.

THE PRESIDENT and cabinet officers then withdrew to attend the reception at Faneuil hall. They were escorted by the Lancers, and reached the hall about 5 p. m.

THE OFFICIAL CANVASS OF THE VOTE—RICE RUNS TWO HUNDRED AHEAD OF AMES. The official canvass of the vote of Hennessee county began bright and early yesterday morning at the office of Auditor F. S. McDonald, who had appointed Justices Bailey and Woodward to assist him.

THE CANVASS OF THE VOTE—RICE RUNS TWO HUNDRED AHEAD OF AMES. Not a great change in this district, the result being as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Vote. Includes Senator, Representative, and various candidates.

THE HONORARY DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF LAWS WAS conferred by Harvard college on George D. Robinson, governor of Massachusetts.

OSCONA, Mich., Nov. 8.—There is great excitement in this neighborhood over the escape of Dr. David H. Weir, who is accused of criminally assaulting Mabel Clark.

WANTS HER SON RELEASED. ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Lizzie Roots, the mother of David S. Root, captain of the Adams express messenger, who was recently robbed on the St. Louis San Francisco railroad, a few miles from this city, applied today, through his attorneys, to Judge Thayer, who is in charge of the trial of her son, who has petitioned for his release, for a writ of habeas corpus.

THE MANHATTAN SAFE. GREENPORT, L. I., Nov. 8.—The revenue cutter Manhattan, which was reported lost, arrived here yesterday afternoon and will leave to-day on a cruise.

ST. LOUIS, Ky., Nov. 8.—At a negro festival near St. Stephens, Ky., Saturday night, Will Bondurant and John Nelson quarreled about a woman and Nelson was shot and killed.

THE PRESIDENT and cabinet officers then withdrew to attend the reception at Faneuil hall. They were escorted by the Lancers, and reached the hall about 5 p. m.