

SAINT PAUL MATTERS.

The Board of Public Works Declares Mr. Dunnigan Has Violated the Plumbing Ordinance.

Topics of the Pastors in Many of the City Churches This Sabbath Morning.

A Summary of Local Events on a Rainy Saturday - Interesting Stories Briefly Told.

DUNNIGAN DECLARED GUILTY.

A plumber severely censured by the Board of Public Works - Each illegal plumbing. The board of public works in open session yesterday returned its verdict in the Dunnigan case, in which Messrs. Heineemann and Seeger had preferred charges of violation of the ordinance.

BEWITCHINGLY BEAUTIFUL. The Excellent Judgment Displayed by Many Ardent St. Paulites. Surprises are in store in the near future for quite a number who are generally well posted on society affairs in St. Paul.

ON BEHALF OF THE PLUMBERS. On behalf of the plumbers Mr. Dunnigan last night sent a communication to the Globe, in which he makes the points that a committee from the plumbers, to make suggestions, when the ordinance was drawn, was not given a hearing.

TO-DAY'S CHURCH SERVICES.

Rev. A. W. Edwards will speak this morning on "Reveries" at the Central Avenue M. E. church, and in the evening his subject will be "God's Universal Fatherhood."

8 o'clock to-morrow morning at Whitney's music rooms.

The ladies of St. Luke's Aid society, of St. Paul's church, will give a sale at the rectory of aprons, dolls, fancy articles, etc., on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of this week.

The building inspector yesterday notified H. H. Schroeder, whose building on Sixth street was burned Friday, that the west part of the structure must be taken down at once.

A meeting of the North Star Toboggan club has been called for Tuesday night at the rooms of the St. George Snow Shoe club, under the chamber of commerce building.

Col. Alexander Hogebrand formed a procession of about eighty newsmen yesterday afternoon and marched them about the streets of the city, each of them was decorated with a ribbon, provided by the colonel, after which he addressed them at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

Yesterday morning Charles Tarbox, while leaving the store of Forepaugh & Tarbox, miraculously escaped being crushed to death by the falling of a mass of ice from the roof of the Gothic building.

The drawing for the horse, cutter and harness cabinet organ, hanging parlor lamp and four sacks of flour, for which tickets were lately sold at the French fair, will take place at the French school, Tenth street near Cedar, next Tuesday at 7:30 o'clock.

The Columbia Snow Shoe club will meet at the municipal court rooms to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. The attendance of every member is urgently requested, as important matters will come up before the meeting.

James B. Quinn, captain of engineers in charge of waterways improvements at Duluth, says that owing to the date of the passage of the last river and harbor appropriation bill and his change of station no work in his department has been possible this season.

M. C. McCaffery, of the Globe, while coming from Wabasha yesterday, dropped his pocketbook. It contained $10 in money, a check for $100, a check for $25, drawn on Germania bank, and three passes, on Omaha, Manitoba and Northern Pacific railways.

An Important Move.

The progress in art is evidently greatly on the increase in this city, especially in matters relating to pictures and interior decorations.

They intend, from this date, to carry a full line of artists' materials, steel engravings, imported German photographs, oil paintings and water colors; also framing materials of all grades.

This firm has already won for itself an enviable reputation in its smaller quarters, and in its new venture, which will be a credit to St. Paul, it is certainly deserving of the support and patronage of all lovers of art in this section.

Notice of the formal opening of the new store will be given later.
