ADDITIONAL NORTHWEST NEWS.

Special to the Globe. MASON CITY, Ia., Jan. 12.—The hog cholera, swine plague, or some other infectious disease, is still raging with unabated fury in this locality. In view of preventing the further spread of the disease the Farmers' alliance have passed the following resolutions:

Whereas, As it is a well-known fact that hog cholera is sweeping off the hogs by hundreds and thousands in Iowa, and being robbed of from $20,000 to $30,000 in their loss, and as the hog crop is one of our chief sources of revenue, and as it is generally believed that farmers and others are spreading this cruel scourge about the country to rendering tanks, soap factories and other places contrary to law, therefore, Resolved, That we hereby advise ourselves that we will obey the law to the letter, and that we will do what we can to have said law enforced against any person found violating any of the provisions of said law by instituting such legal proceedings as will bring such violators to justice, that we may thereby prevent the further spread of the disease; and we also earnestly request our friends and neighbors that may be so unfortunate as to have their swine diseased in their herd, now or may hereafter get it in their herd, to use all endeavors to prevent its spread, and as one of the means to keep away from all other hog farms, and to thoroughly disinfect and eradicate from their hogs, boxes, hog yards and their own boots and clothing.

WASHINGTON PERSONALS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Army leaves granted: First Lieut. William H. C. Bowen, Fifth Infantry, Fort Totten, Dak., one month; First Lieut. Robert J. C. Irvine, adjutant Eleventh Infantry, Fort Sully, Dak., one month. Gen. Henry E. Williams, agent of the carved Indian in Montana and one of the most capable officials in the service of the department, is now in the city consulting with the commissioner relative to the disposition of Indian lands in severity, and also in regard to the coal project and the Indian which promises to be very valuable. Dr. Thomas Heenan, of Minnesota, the consul at Odessa, in a special report on industries in Southern Russia, informs the state department that steps will probably soon be taken to construct a petroleum pipeline from Frantsovo to the Black Sea. The length will be about 550 miles, with an inside diameter of seven inches and its greatest elevation 3,000 feet. He thinks American manufacturers might compete successfully with those of Europe for supplying the necessary material.

MINNESOTA LEGISLATION.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Representatives Nelson and Senator Sabo had a conference with Springer Hancock, Joseph Bookwater, of Blue Earth; E. D. Child, of Crookston; Lyman Loring, of Moorhead; W. H. Fisher and Charles Moore, of Duluth, and James Smith, Jr., of St. Paul, to-day in regard to various items of legislation in Minnesota and the Northwest. Most of these gentlemen are visiting the city as delegates to the National farmers' convention. An informal discussion was had on the Duluth harbor improvement, the Soo canal and the Bois de Sioux and Grand Rapids drainage. The general opinion was that good results might be sought to assist in carrying on this work. A. H. Wilder landed yesterday from his European trip and came over here to see Col. Merriam and his wife.

TOBAGGANS.

Special to the Globe. ROCHESTER, Jan. 12.—The toboggan club has improved its slide, and now has a very fine course, which is well lighted and cared for.
