

AMONG THE SPORTS.

Thomas Stevens, Making a Bicycle Tour Around the World, Arrives in Minneapolis.

The Des Moines Team to Play Early Games in New Orleans and Other Southern Cities.

Col. McLaughlin to Drop Railroad and Wrestling with Benjamin, of New York.

Sardiff in Chicago--A Correspondent Charges Him with Cowardice at Fargo.

Thomas Stevens, the bicyclist whose recent tour around the world has made famous, arrived in the city last evening from Portland, Or., on his way east. He had been snowbound at Glendive, on the Northern Pacific road, for two days, and was much fatigued by his long ride. He will remain in the city for two days, and then go to New York. The local bicyclists will properly entertain him during his stay in Minneapolis.

THE DES MOINES TEAM

To Begin the Season with Games in the South.

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 1.--The base ball team, which will represent Des Moines in the Northwestern league during the approaching season, expects to fly the pennant. W. C. Bryan, manager and short stop, W. C. Alvord, third baseman, and Sage, one of the catchers, are now in the city. Manager Bryan will start for New Orleans on Feb. 10, where he will go into training for a foot race which he intends to run on the 28th of that month. Alvord is putting in two hours a day at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, and will loom up in first-class condition when the season opens. He and Sage will start for New Orleans on the 20th, as will all the rest of the team from their respective homes. They will first appear in the field against the new Southern league club, of that city, March 6, in an engagement lasting two weeks, when they will play N. O. H., having secured dates for three games in Memphis, two or three in St. Louis, two in St. Joe, two in Leavenworth, two in Topeka and two in Kansas City, from which they will return to Des Moines and show our people how to do up Detroit on April 16 and Omaha a few days later. The team is as follows: W. C. Bryan, manager and short stop; F. Wells, J. H. Campbell and S. Bittle, pitchers; E. E. Stuefle, Sage and Alvord, catchers; St. La Roque, first base; T. Brosman, second base; W. C. Alvord, third base, with Whitely and Van Dyke in the field.

CHARGED WITH COWARDICE.

A Correspondent's View of Cardiff's Fight in Fargo.

To the Editor of the GLOBE.

I see by the GLOBE that Patsy Cardiff says that he will have nothing to do with Killen, because he hippodromed with Bradburn. I guess Patsy has forgotten what a coward he showed himself to be by making a hippodrome of his fight with one Jim Brady in Fargo a little over a year ago. They were to fight to a finish, Cardiff boasting that he could and would stop Brady in ten rounds. Well, the fight came off in the Fargo opera house before a large house and the first round showed to the people of Fargo that Cardiff had run against a better man than he thought he had, and it was evident that Brady would lick him. The first round was Brady's without any doubt, and the second and third were likewise his. By this time Cardiff saw Brady was too much for him, so during the rest after the third round Cardiff leaned over the ropes and told one of the city police to stop the fight, which he refused to do. So during the fourth round he fouled Brady twice, whereupon Brady claimed the fight, saying he did not come to Fargo to wrestle Cardiff, but the people shouted "go on, Brady, you coward, let us see more." So time for the fifth round was called and Brady had the best of this round. Cardiff had in the meantime done all in his power to have the fight stopped and called a draw but could not, so during the seventh round, when Brady kicked him under the ropes, he saw his last chance to save himself and threw his arm under the ropes and brought up hard enough to scratch it a little bit, whereupon he claimed the fight must stop, as he could not fight with a broken arm and that the fight should be called a draw, which, in spite of the hisses from the crowd and Brady's objections, the referee called a draw, much to the disgust of the people. I saw Cardiff after the fight and he said that the people of Fargo were the biggest lot of suckers he ever saw and that his arm was not broken at all. Yours truly, CHARLES A. MORTON, JR., Edinburgh, Dak., Jan. 31.

Minneapolis Gun Club.

The annual meeting of the Minneapolis Gun club was held yesterday evening, attended by Messrs. L. Harrison, Best, Engsig, Kennedy, Kreuger, Whitcomb and Pie. Arrangements were made to procure a club badge, to be shot for at every regular field meeting, and to be open to all members. Messrs. L. Harrison, Best, Engsig, and Pie were appointed a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws. The annual tournament of the club will be held the last week in May. The first two days of the tournament will be open to state shooters only, but the remainder of the week will be open to the world. The election of officers resulted: L. Harrison president; J. C. Joylin, vice president; C. H. Russell, secretary; M. Whitcomb, treasurer; E. W. Engsig, captain; H. Kreuger, Legs, Best, Pie and Kennedy, directors.

McLaughlin Accepts.

Col. J. H. McLaughlin has stood as long as forbearance was a virtue, and has now determined to drop business and give J. J. Benjamin the wrestling match he has been burden to McLaughlin, flooding him and the local newspapers with challenges to a collar-and-elbow match. McLaughlin had decided to abandon sport and pursue his regular business, but Benjamin was so persistent that he finally wrote his brother, B. Hooper, of Detroit, that he would wrestle. Hooper has replied and already started for New York to make a match for $2,500 a side, best three in five, the match to come off in Minneapolis within thirty days from the signing of articles.

"Now, then," said Col. McLaughlin last evening, "I will apply for a leave of absence for two months, and while I am at it I will give all comers a chance. Then I want them all to let me alone, and I will drop wrestling and stick to railroad."

Fabey is Confident.

Mart Fabey is training vigorously for his ten-round contest with Dunn C. McDonald, which takes place next Monday night at the Exposition rink, St. Paul. Although he is somewhat inexperienced in ring tactics, his friends think he can best McDonald. Jerry Murphy and Prof. Clark are also going to try to knock out Fabey, but he has volunteered, including Patsy Mellen, Jack Keefe, the Black Pearl, Charles Hadley and Dan Manning.

Queer Kind of Champion.

Said a well-known sporting man last evening: Cardiff should either meet Killen or give up his pretensions to holding the Northwestern championship. Did he hear of a champion refusing to meet men who have good reputations and plenty of money back to meet any one before he is bound not to meet them? The champion will not be named until June 1, and it's time enough for him to get into training now. He has money deposited, and I understand Shady did not ask that Cardiff should make no other matches. Here's a fellow cracking away at him, too, and has deposited $1,000 with Frank Shaw, but Cardiff bangs back. This kind of a champion makes me weary.

Cardiff in Chicago.

Patsy Cardiff, of Minneapolis, who stood up before Sullivan for six rounds recently, and had the proud distinction of proving that his head was harder than the champion's left arm, arrived in the city yesterday. He called on "Parson" Davies, and will in all probability act as referee at the Lewis-Acton wrestling match Feb. 7, in Battery D. Cardiff looked to be in good condition.

Won by Straub.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE.

FARIBAULT, Feb. 1.--The twelve-hour bicycle race between Fred Straub, the champion light-weight bicycle rider, and A. M. Tenney, at the rink, Saturday, for a purse of $100 and gate money, was won by Straub; distance, 142 miles and 10 laps.

STILLWATER NEWS.

C. A. Ludwig has been confined to his house ever since his return from Milwaukee, some three weeks ago, with inflammatory rheumatism.

C. H. Smith, of Bartley Campbell's "Cluo," was in the city yesterday perfecting arrangements for its production on Monday evening next at the Grand Opera house.

The house of French powder bakers will be on hand at the G. A. R. entertainment to-night and will furnish hot rolls, cake and coffee for those who are present.

A defective water pipe in the new Torinus block burst on Monday evening, flooding that structure and freezing the elevator so as to impede its action yesterday forenoon.

A letter received by Mayor Supt. yesterday afternoon from his wife, who is now in Chicago, states her health is very much improved by the change of air and scene.

Five pieces of French plate glass designed for the front of the Mower block were cracked while being unloaded on Monday by an unfortunate twist being given the box. They measured 24x14 inches square and were valued at $400.

James Mackey came down from the scene of his logging operations on Bear brook on Monday. He reports 1,000,000 of the 1,500,000 feet he expects to bank as already at the landing, and that logging operations are brisk everywhere.

The Home club met on Monday evening and arranged for another social dance on Friday evening, Feb. 11, 1887. All invitations issued by the club are for the entire series of entertainments, which will run through the balance of the winter.

The entertainment to-night at Musie hall, given by the G. A. R. boys for the benefit of a needy comrade will consist of a concert, supper and dance. The concert will be given by the Van Waters orchestra, Miss Scherz and the Lindholm male quartette.

G. Swanson, an employee at the prison, took his daughter, aged 5 years, to St. Paul yesterday to consult an oculist regarding a painful accident the little one met with by thrusting a table-fork into her eye while playing. She has suffered intensely since the accident and not much hope of saving the eye remains.

A masquerade for Feb. 21 at Musie hall is announced by Messrs. Korn, Holbach and Brenner. Tickets can be had upon presentation of invitation to the committee, or at the store of A. Korbach, or Korn & Co. No tickets sold at the door.

The Yars club was entertained at the Northwestern on Monday evening by C. A. Bennett, and proved, as usual, a most enjoyable occasion. Many of the gentlemen were accompanied by ladies, who were entertained by themselves while their leige lords contested for the two prizes, which were won by Henry Heisel and Charles Boo. A neat little lunch was served by the host. The club will be entertained on the 7 inst. by J. A. Tenner, Esq.
