

Daily Globe. PUBLISHED EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR. LEWIS BAKER. ST. PAUL, SATURDAY, FEB. 5, 1887. ST. PAUL GLOBE SUBSCRIPTION RATES. DAILY (NOT INCLUDING SUNDAY) 17c. In advance, $4.00 3 mos., in advance, $12.00 6 mos., in advance, $22.00 1 year, in advance, $40.00 6 weeks, in advance, 1.00 One month, .75c.

the falsity of the charges and the disappointment of the country at the apparent slighting of Mr. THURMAN, he can prove his confidence in him by carrying out his primary intentions and will perform one of the most popular acts of his administration by inviting "the noblest Roman of them all" to a cabinet position, should the opportunity arise.

THE NEW PENSION BILL. The old soldiers, those who really fought for patriotic impulse for the preservation of the Union, will hardly favor the new pension bill when they fully understand what it involves. The proposition is to grant a pension of $12 per month to each person who ever served three months in the army during the war and who is now incapable of taking care of himself.

TO-DAY'S WEATHER. WASHINGTON, Feb. 5, 1 a. m.—Indications: For Michigan and Wisconsin: Snow, followed by fair weather, and warmer, southerly winds, becoming variable. For Minnesota, Iowa and Eastern Dakota: Snow, followed by fair weather, and warmer variable winds.

Table with 4 columns: Place of Observation, Bar., Therm., Wind, and State of Sky. Rows include Duluth, St. Paul, Crookston, Huron, Moorhead, Bismarck, Fort Snelling, Fort Foster, Helena, Fort Snelling, Minneapolis, and Qu'Appelle.

GOV. PIERCE'S BREAK. The GLOBE's advice to Gov. Pierce indicates that the high moral role which Gov. PIERCE was playing in regard to the appointment of territorial officers was more in the nature of a strategic trick than it was an act of good faith.

THE REPUBLICANS ARE UNEASY OVER THE attitude of the negro vote because of the rejection of the nomination of MacKEY by a Republican senate. But there is no occasion for uneasiness. The point is very clearly defined. The colored voters have decided quite conclusively that there is a wide difference between Republican professions and performances.

ST. LOUIS FINDS MURDERER MAXWELL such a drawing card that she really can't part with him. It is more than likely that the second respite he has secured will be extended at least long enough for him to take in the "Villed Prophets" show before he departs.

REPUBLICANS NOW SAY that if they get into power in 1889 their first business will be to turn out the Republicans whom the Democrats have retained. Wouldn't it be better for the administration to anticipate a little and save the Republicans possible trouble?

MR. WATTERSON could only comprehend through their representatives. Mr. MANNING has exhibited remarkable qualifications for the responsible post of secretary of the treasury, and has gained the confidence of the entire country to a remarkable degree.

THE PRESIDENT may soon have an opportunity of gratifying a large number of the Democrats of the country, if not of all citizens, irrespective of party, who admire ability, study honesty and true statesmanship.

STRAY SUNBEAMS. The inconsistency of the argument that high license would increase both public morality and the revenue was presented in such a clear light by Senator WHEATMAN yesterday that the high license advocates don't attempt to reply to his speech.

THE HIGH LICENSE BILL went through the senate yesterday under the operations of a gun law. The result was that the bill was not passed, but it was subjected to the test of argument, so they chafed off discussion by moving and carrying the previous question.

WHEN MINNIE HACK came to St. Paul on her last professional visit and found that she had been advertised to sing in the Exposition hall, she figuratively speaking, walked off on her ear.

THE WHEELS OF PROGRESS are certainly moving onward when the corporation attorneys in the senate are forced to respect public opinion sufficiently to go on record in favor of the Bill to provide for the escape of fugitives.

THE CONFIRMATION OF JUDGE CURRER settles the Dakota dispute. Inasmuch as the Republican senate had to come to it at last it looks like child's play that action should have been taken long ago.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE is a fixed fact after many years' hard struggle. The people are getting there. JONATHAN DONNELLY last night—The golden chariot of progress glides down the avenues of Time, laden with flowers and fruits and laughing children.

PLAIN AND TO THE POINT. The boiler inspection, as it has been conducted in this state, at least it has been pronounced a fraud by those best informed.

NO MORE BUDGET MONDAYS. The high license law is passed, and becomes a law in this state, with the Sunday clause attached, making it a state prison offense for any vendor of the ardent to sell or give away on the Sabbath.

TOO REFRESHINGLY REFRESHING. Anoka Union. Roger, a small-fry lawyer, a member of the legislature from Ramsey county, was the first of the legislature, tried to cope with Donnelly and got most beautifully set down.

WILL BE IN THE DUAL. Senator H. E. Howard, of Montevideo, was elected secretary of the State Agricultural society by a handsome majority.

ANNOUNCES THE KNIGHTS. Henry Ward Beecher Calls them an Abomination. Demands of the Chicago Printers—The New York Strike.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—In the course of his reply to the toast at the annual banquet of the Amherst Alumni association to-night, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher said: "This abomination, the Knights of Labor, is the result of a paternalistic government."

CHICAGO TYPO-ASK AN ADVANCE. CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—There are premonitions of difficulty between the publishers of the Chicago daily papers and the Typographical union. The union has advanced the price of composition from 37 cents per line on the afternoon papers to 40 cents.

THE GREAT STRIKE. Yesterday's Developments at New York—Aiding the Idle Men. NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—At the headquarters of the Ocean association to-day it was said that Smith & McNeil, restaurant keepers, had agreed to supply a quantity of provisions for the families of the strikers.

HIGH LICENSE WINS. Continued from First Page. The bill for the establishment and regulation of the common schools of Stillwater was passed under suspension of the rules.

REVERSED CONDITIONS. How Man Exists for Woman—And She Knows It. The advance of civilization has reversed many accepted conditions of life. Originally woman was made for man.

Reduction of Salaries. Mr. Ryan gave the house a dose of general economy yesterday—a bill to reduce the salaries of nearly all the state officers. The reductions and changes proposed by the bill are as follows:

Reports of Committees. The following committee reports were adopted on favorable recommendations: Agriculture, Commerce and Finance, and the Board of Managers.

Chaff and Chat. Mr. Baker did not clearly comprehend the force and effect of Mr. Severson's bill in relation to service of domestic animals.

Montezuma (Ga.) Record. Golden moments once lost can never be recalled. It is astonishing how little some young men and women read.

Lady correspondents are desired in the following towns: Stillwater, Northfield, Mankato, New Ulm, Wabasha, Fairmont, Blue Earth City, Bismarck, Rochester, Le Sueur, Glenwood, Alexandria, Duluth, Sioux Falls, Brainerd, Crookston, Waseca.

MINNESOTA. Among those in attendance from this city at the musical evening given by Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bushnell, in St. Paul, on Friday night last, were: Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Truax and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thompson.

Miss Hattie Van Campen, of Cannon Falls, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. John South Jr. Miss Lebbie Gleason is here from Thompson, Ill., on a visit with her sister, Mrs. Dolly Tapin.

Among the musical events of the week were in piano recital given by the pupils of G. Albrecht, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The pupils participating were Misses H. Hillie, Leta Foster, D. Hughes, E. Pender, R. Miller, M. McLaughlin, M. Hillier, O. Tull, M. Dixon, H. Frank, N. Gilliland, L. Hunt, L. Barnes, C. Wahler, Mrs. C. Boyer, Misses H. Kratz, Horace Mues, E. Leitch and M. Gerdtzen.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Porter and Mr. and Mrs. William D. Chandler held a reception at the residence of Mr. Porter on East Broadway. The guests were received in the drawing room by Mr. and Mrs. Porter.

Where She Got Her Flowers. A thing that amazes young men more than the downfall of the theater has been the progress of a fashion inaugurated three years ago by Miss West, eldest daughter of the British minister.

Where She Got Her Flowers. Mrs. Calvin Neal returned home from St. Paul last evening, the guests of the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Hawley.

Where She Got Her Flowers. Mrs. George Barton gave a d'oclock tea at her home on Tuesday evening. The guests were Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Reba McNary, of Campbell, Minn.

Where She Got Her Flowers. Mrs. W. F. Truesdell, of St. Louis, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Lilla Truesdell, is visiting with her brother, Mr. M. H. Truesdell, and attending the dairymen's convention.

ing her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Dwight, a long visit, started for home last week. Mrs. C. D. Kievin is selling chances on some paintings of her own work.

On Monday a party of twenty or more young people at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. Elliott. Mrs. Markham, Miss Mary Markham and Miss Dolly Markham, started Tuesday on a visit to friends in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Rush City.

Miss G. W. Alderson and her sister, Sarah E. Bird, went to St. Paul to visit Miss Alice Woodward and take a view of the ice palace. Miss Frank Garrett, of this city, and Miss Clara Ellison, of Salem, have been in Minneapolis and St. Paul, this week.

Miss Kate Elder is visiting relatives in St. Paul. Mrs. R. Searf entertained a number of her friends on Friday with an "Old Lad's Tea Party" given in honor of her mother, Mrs. E. Cook.

Miss Jennie Rober, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. W. Hober, the past several months, has returned to her home at Freeport, Ill. Mrs. E. M. Bass, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. A. Black, the past winter, has returned to her home at Denton Harbor, Mich.

Miss Sarah Marcellus, of Huron, Dak., is the guest of her parents in Fountain Prairie township. Mrs. and Mrs. J. I. Bernard left Monday for a visit with friends and relatives in St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Miss Cora Weghlin, of Grange township, has returned from Dakota. Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Bernard are in St. Paul this week. Miss Addie Smith has returned from St. Paul.

St. Peter. Mrs. J. A. Lambertson, accompanied by her son Charlie, went to St. Paul on Monday. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Kelly, who were visiting from St. Peter.

Fergus Falls. On Wednesday evening Mrs. Hattie Hutton gave a musicale at the residence of C. D. Bakken, of Fergus Falls. A number of parents and friends of the pupils were present.

Wadena. Mrs. Lackey, of Pelican Rapids, has been visiting with her friends in Wadena. Mrs. C. A. Couillard, of this place, during the past week.