Special to the Globe.

DULUTH, Feb. 5.—A sad case of desertion and elopement has just come to light. For the past two years Archie Brown and Capt. Antoine Paul have lived as neighbors on the east end of this city and for some time a great intimacy has existed between them. Paul's eldest daughter named Melvina, a rather pretty brunette, aged about 16 years, and Archie Brown, although nothing was thought about it until a day or so ago, when Brown converted all his available assets into cash and shipped out, taking Miss Melvina with him and leaving no trace of their whereabouts. The distressing Brown left a wife and two little children penniless and without a home for shelter. The girl's parents are highly respected in this community, and the blow falls very hard upon them.

A New and Costly Hotel.

DULUTH, Minn., Feb. 5.—A new hotel for Duluth is now an assured fact. Ground has been purchased at the corner of Superior street and Fifth avenue west, and a five-story hotel, costing $400,000, will be built. A stock company has been formed and the plans have been perfected, and the hotel will be finished by May 1, 1888. Among the stockholders are H. S. Munger, W. W. Spalding and H. B. Langdon, of Minneapolis; A. M. Miller, J. R. Myers, Neil MacLaughlin and others.

DAKOTA LEGISLATURE.

The Temperance Question Likely to Become a Leading Issue--Public Buildings.

Special to the Globe.

BISMARCK, Dak., Feb. 5.—The dove of peace rested in the halls of the Dakota legislature to-day. The only question that created any discussion in the house was the goopher bill, providing for the payment of a bounty on goophers' tails, and after more than an hour of debate the bill was passed. Several important bills were introduced, among which was the following: E. A. Williams, who asked that the rules be suspended and the bill read a second time. The motion was lost. The bill provided for an appropriation of $150,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, out of any money in the territorial treasury, for the purpose of purchasing seed grain for the benefit of needy settlers in the territory whose crops were destroyed by drought, hail or otherwise. In 1886. The governor shall appoint a commission to consist of three persons to investigate the needs and expend this money, their term to be 54 during the time actually employed. J. H. Fletcher introduced a substitute for house bill 48, entitled "an act to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors by retail option." The bill is an important one, as SAUK RAPIDS, Minn., Feb. 5.—A large meeting was held here last evening on the question of annexing Sauk Rapids to St. Cloud for municipal purposes, and strong speeches were made by a number of our best citizens on both sides of the question. Upon a vote being taken, the result was that the measure was defeated by 48 to 9. A resolution was then passed by a vote of 61 in favor and none against a measure to bond the village of Sauk Rapids not to exceed the sum of $50,000, to aid in improving the Sauk Rapids water power.

Seized a Carload of Beer.

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 5.—Constable Pierce this morning seized a carload of beer at the warehouse of Louis Fritz, located at the Rock Island track. The beer was from George Wagner's brewery at Rock Island. On investigation it was found that Wagner had no permit to ship into the city, and Fritz had no permit to sell or keep beer for sale, it having expired last October, and the board of supervisors having refused to renew the same. County Attorney Phillips advised Fritz to seize it, which he did after it had been unloaded.

Died at Cannon Falls.

CAHON, Minn., Feb. 5.—Hon. Gustavus Westman is dead. He had been confined to the house since Nov. 1 with cancer of the stomach. Mr. Westman was born in Sweden Jan. 18, 1828. At the age of 18 he joined the Swedish artillery, serving two years. He was married in Sweden Sept. 18, 1853, to Christine Johnson. In 1854 he came to Cannon Falls, Minn. He was of the well-known firm of G. Westman & Co., and highly respected by all.

She Was Not Married.

OSCONOWIC, Wis., Feb. 5.—The Catherwood-Phillips divorce case has been decided by Judge Sloan in favor of the defendant, William L. Catherwood. The decision of the court was that the marriage contract which the plaintiff, Nellie P. Phillips, claimed with defendant was not sustained by the evidence, and that, therefore, the parties never having been married there could be any divorce granted. This ends a somewhat celebrated case.

A Delinquent Dry Dock.

DULUTH, Feb. 5.—Capt. Alex McDougall, who has been East making arrangements to build a dry dock here, received a telegram to-day, saying that all arrangements are perfected, and as soon as spring comes the construction will begin. This dock is called the Groving dock and will accommodate the largest vessels on the lake.

Killed His Mother.

STOUX FALLS, Dak., Feb. 5.—Later developments prove that G. O. Dalenoe, the Scandinavian farmer who suicided near this city yesterday, was also guilty of matricide, having administered strychnine to his mother, who was a bedridden invalid, just before shooting himself. His fatal wound was premeditated, as Wednesday he deeded his 400 acre farm to his housekeeper and her daughter.

Fire at Fort Dodge.

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 5.—The large agricultural warehouse of D. W. Halstead at Fort Dodge burned this morning. Two houses and a large amount of agricultural implements were destroyed. The building is a total loss. The insurance is $10,400, which will fully cover the loss.

Huron Delighted.

HURON, Dak., Feb. 5.—The news of the confirmation of Judge Church as governor of Dakota is very gratifying to all classes here. It puts at rest all apprehension of what might have been the result of his unfitness on the part of some supposed to have been interested in the reported charges against Judge Church.

Gene to Monticello.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., Feb. 5.—Members of the St. Cloud Cyclone and Relic Tubogran clubs, the ladies' Snow Shoe club and the newly organized snow shoe club left this afternoon for Monticello. They will return on the midnight train.

A Lumberman Killed.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Feb. 5.—Hans Gunderson, a woodsman in the employ of Allen Campbell, was killed to-day at a logging camp near Canby by a falling tree. The body was sent here to-night. He leaves a wife and family in this city.

Shocking Charges Preferred Against a Swedish Episcopal Minister at Chicago by His Flock.

Allegations That He Has Attempted to Conduct Religious Services While Riotously Drunk.

Also That He Has Corrupted the Morals of Females in His Parish.

And is a Frequent of Houses of Ill Reputation--No Reply Offered.

Special to the Globe.

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—The parishioners of St. Augustus Swedish Episcopal church are in a troubled state over the alleged doings of their pastor, Rev. Dr. Hedman. Bishop McTearne has been requested to unroof him, unless he takes his leave by March 13 he will be summarily expelled. The following letter was received by Bishop McTearne yesterday, upon which the complaint is based:

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 4.—Rev. Dr. Bishop McTearne, D. D. Right Reverend Bishop and Father in God: We the undersigned, members of the church of St. Augustus, of the parish of St. Augustus, do hereby prefer the following charges against you:

First—Incompetence and gross neglect in the discharge of his pastoral duties.

Second—Misappropriation of the church books and money.

Third—Persecution and lying.

Fourth—Drunkenness.

Fifth—Undue familiarity with the young women of the parish.

Sixth—Visiting houses of ill fame.

Furthermore, Rev. Dr. Hedman has been and is a public scandal and an eye sore to his parishioners and decent society. The members of St. Augustus cathedral do now pray your lordship to graciously grant this petition and cause an investigation into the charges preferred against Rev. Dr. Hedman by them and to remove him from the pastorate of their parish for the sake of their and their children's souls.

With this paper affidavits were lodged supporting the various specifications. A Lyngstrom deposited before P. H. Hawklin, notary, on Jan. 17, that on one occasion he was visited at home by Mr. Hedman, to whom he TENDERED WINE. This was rejected and cognac requested instead. So much of the latter was "covered" that the affiant and a friend were obliged to help the pastor aboard the street car. Affiant was also made by Nels H. Ostergren, janitor of St. Augustus chapel, on Jan. 15, that he had seen Mr. Hedman under the influence of liquor; had seen him drink wine, beer and whiskey; had seen him intoxicated on several occasions, or under the influence of liquor. Specifically he affirmed that Mr. Hedman, on Sunday, of All Saints' day, 1885, was so drunk that he could not preach intelligibly, and on the same day he saw Hedman take another drink of whiskey and beer. Also, on a certain Sunday in the summer of 1885, he knew Hedman to have been out all the previous night. He was STILL DRUNK ON SUNDAY when holding service. He has been repeatedly drunk on other occasions to the degree of helplessness. He is a frequenter of saloons in the neighborhood, and sustains the reputation of a regular drunkard. John Cling and C. H. Anderson made affidavit that on the week preceding Christmas, 1885, they were working on the house now numbered 514 North Clark street and saw Mr. Hedman enter the next house, No. 512 or 512 1/2, which house they knew to be inhabited by prostitutes. He remained in it fifteen or twenty minutes. Regarding the fifth specification it is learned from a gentleman familiar with the entire case that relations exist between Hedman and a certain unmarried woman by which she exercises absolute power over his actions in certain directions. He is very intimate with this woman, and when she became a mother, without having been a wife, he was unusually solicitous about her. This gentleman further says that Mr. Hedman would have married one of four women in the last three years, but

THE FIRST WOMAN would not let him. One of these four is said to be an excellent and excellent woman who was led to believe that Hedman intended to propose marriage he having told her that as soon as he could gain the bishop's consent the ceremony would be performed. Under pretenses of this sort he borrowed about $600 from the lady. When he cast her aside she put her financial account into the hands of a prominent attorney for settlement. Mr. Hedman is above medium height and of dignified mien, courteous in his bearing and a genial conversationalist. He is a good public orator, has a finished education and is the editor of a small Swedish paper. He is about 32 years of age. Mr. Hedman declined to make any answer to the charges when called upon this evening.

EAU CLAIRE COUNTY OLD SETTLERS. Special to the Globe.

EAU CLAIRE, Feb. 5.—A large number of the members of the Eau Claire county Old Settlers' association, which is now being revived and reorganized, met last evening at the office of W. P. Bartlett, the meeting being presided over by Capt. John T. Tinker. The society had not held a meeting for several years, but the utmost enthusiasm prevailed at the gathering last night, and it was decided to place the organization on a permanent basis, for which purpose another meeting will be held next Friday evening. Arrangements are also being made for a banquet to be held in the near future, and an endeavor will be made to assemble around the banquet board all the old settlers in the county, and to hold a reunion of the pioneers of the county, which will long be remembered as a landmark in the history of the valley.

HOT FOR SALOON MEN. Special to the Globe.

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 5.—The new Marshall county grand jury, composed of seven members, all from the county, is indicting all the Marshalltown saloonkeepers who have been in business since they were then under arrest and several more have skipped.
