

THE RIOTOUS RIVERS.

Yesterday's Developments Regarding the Big Flood Now Raising Havoc in Dakota.

Pierre Has a Visitation, and the Situation is but Little Changed at Bismarck.

A Few Venturesome People Managed to Get Away From Mandan.

The Broken Deadwood National Bank to Resume With Good Prospects.

Special to the Globe. PIERRE, Dak., March 21.—The river at this point began to rise at 11 o'clock this morning at the rate of a foot an hour.

Special to the Globe. BISMARCK, Dak., March 21.—A foggy morning was succeeded by a clear, warm day.

Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, March 21.—Representatives of the Merchants' National Bank, of Deadwood, Dak., spent yesterday with Comptroller of the Currency, Trenholm, at his residence near the British minister's, for the purpose of discussing the future prospects of the institution, which suspended a few weeks ago.

Special to the Globe. MANDAN, March 21.—A party of six men, one of whom is a Frenchman, were taken from Mandan to Rock Haven, and came over from there a yawl boat.

Special to the Globe. MADISON, Wis., March 21.—The senate to-night passed a bill providing for the appointment of game wardens at an annual salary of $600, whose duty it shall be to see to the enforcement of the several statutes relating to the protection of fish and game.

Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, March 21.—Representatives of the Merchants' National Bank, of Deadwood, Dak., spent yesterday with Comptroller of the Currency, Trenholm, at his residence near the British minister's, for the purpose of discussing the future prospects of the institution, which suspended a few weeks ago.

Special to the Globe. PIERRE, Dak., March 21.—The river at this point began to rise at 11 o'clock this morning at the rate of a foot an hour.

Special to the Globe. MANDAN, March 21.—A party of six men, one of whom is a Frenchman, were taken from Mandan to Rock Haven, and came over from there a yawl boat.

Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, March 21.—Representatives of the Merchants' National Bank, of Deadwood, Dak., spent yesterday with Comptroller of the Currency, Trenholm, at his residence near the British minister's, for the purpose of discussing the future prospects of the institution, which suspended a few weeks ago.

Special to the Globe. PIERRE, Dak., March 21.—The river at this point began to rise at 11 o'clock this morning at the rate of a foot an hour.

Special to the Globe. MANDAN, March 21.—A party of six men, one of whom is a Frenchman, were taken from Mandan to Rock Haven, and came over from there a yawl boat.

Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, March 21.—Representatives of the Merchants' National Bank, of Deadwood, Dak., spent yesterday with Comptroller of the Currency, Trenholm, at his residence near the British minister's, for the purpose of discussing the future prospects of the institution, which suspended a few weeks ago.

Special to the Globe. PIERRE, Dak., March 21.—The river at this point began to rise at 11 o'clock this morning at the rate of a foot an hour.

Special to the Globe. MANDAN, March 21.—A party of six men, one of whom is a Frenchman, were taken from Mandan to Rock Haven, and came over from there a yawl boat.

Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, March 21.—Representatives of the Merchants' National Bank, of Deadwood, Dak., spent yesterday with Comptroller of the Currency, Trenholm, at his residence near the British minister's, for the purpose of discussing the future prospects of the institution, which suspended a few weeks ago.

New offices established at Buffalo Centre, Frank B. Howe, postmaster; Bureh, Marshall county, Ed. M. Mott, Ward county, Patrick H. Hoemann, Clearwater, Brown county, Henry C. Hamilton; Conal, Spink county, Emory R. Holliday; Tatchers, Dekey county, Henry R. Ferness; Huffman, Kingsbury county, L. D. Shaw.

A Freight Wreck. DES MOINES, Ia., March 21.—There was a collision of freight trains two miles west of Creston at 11 o'clock last night.

An Elevator Attached. SPRINGFIELD, March 21.—Late Saturday night W. F. Meader & Co.'s elevator at this place, was attached by the Chamber of Commerce bank, of Minneapolis, for the sum of $5,000.

The River at La Crosse. LA CROSSE, Wis., March 21.—As far as can be judged, the river is entirely clear below this point.

Two Election Contest Cases. HERMAN, Minn., March 21.—The contested election case of E. U. Ziebart vs. F. McNabb for the office of county commissioner of the Fifth district of this county, which came before Judge Collins at a special term of court in February, has been decided in favor of McNabb on the ground that the contestant neglected to file the affidavits of proof on the contest.

Wisconsin Legislature. MADISON, Wis., March 21.—The senate to-night passed a bill providing for the appointment of game wardens at an annual salary of $600, whose duty it shall be to see to the enforcement of the several statutes relating to the protection of fish and game.

The Bank Will Resume. ARRANGEMENTS PERFECTED FOR THE RESUMPTION OF BUSINESS OF DEADWOOD MERCHANTS, OF DEADWOOD, ON ITS FEET.

In the Farmers' Interest. EASTON, Minn., March 21.—The Farmers' Warehouse association, which was recently organized here, has commenced business and gives promises of good success.

Hall's Appointment. WASHINGTON, March 21.—The commissioner of patents said this morning that he had received a letter in which the representative Hall, of Iowa, in which he states he would come on to this city about the middle of April and would take charge as commissioner of patents about May 1.

Land in Severalty. WASHINGTON, March 21.—The commissioner of Indian affairs will call upon the agents of the various Indian tribes for information as to the condition of the Indians at their respective agencies, with special reference to the land-in-severalty law, which was passed at the last session of congress.

Chicago. CHICAGO, March 21.—Suits were begun in the United States circuit court this morning against Dwight M. Sabin, United States senator from Minnesota, by the following parties: Henry H. Porter, $200,000; Ransom R. Cable, $50,000, and William Coffin, $2,475. Messrs. Porter and Cable were formerly stockholders in the Northwestern Manufacturing and Ice company, of Stillwater, and their suits are brought against Senator Sabin, the former president of the company, to recover damages for the loss of their stock arising from mismanagement of the affairs of the company. The attachment suit of Coffin is upon a claim against J. H. Townsend & Co., of which firm Sabin was a member. In this case they have garnished D. B. Dilley, of the American Exchange bank.

Chicago. CHICAGO, March 21.—Suits were begun in the United States circuit court this morning against Dwight M. Sabin, United States senator from Minnesota, by the following parties: Henry H. Porter, $200,000; Ransom R. Cable, $50,000, and William Coffin, $2,475. Messrs. Porter and Cable were formerly stockholders in the Northwestern Manufacturing and Ice company, of Stillwater, and their suits are brought against Senator Sabin, the former president of the company, to recover damages for the loss of their stock arising from mismanagement of the affairs of the company.

Chicago. CHICAGO, March 21.—Suits were begun in the United States circuit court this morning against Dwight M. Sabin, United States senator from Minnesota, by the following parties: Henry H. Porter, $200,000; Ransom R. Cable, $50,000, and William Coffin, $2,475. Messrs. Porter and Cable were formerly stockholders in the Northwestern Manufacturing and Ice company, of Stillwater, and their suits are brought against Senator Sabin, the former president of the company, to recover damages for the loss of their stock arising from mismanagement of the affairs of the company.

Chicago. CHICAGO, March 21.—Suits were begun in the United States circuit court this morning against Dwight M. Sabin, United States senator from Minnesota, by the following parties: Henry H. Porter, $200,000; Ransom R. Cable, $50,000, and William Coffin, $2,475. Messrs. Porter and Cable were formerly stockholders in the Northwestern Manufacturing and Ice company, of Stillwater, and their suits are brought against Senator Sabin, the former president of the company, to recover damages for the loss of their stock arising from mismanagement of the affairs of the company.

Chicago. CHICAGO, March 21.—Suits were begun in the United States circuit court this morning against Dwight M. Sabin, United States senator from Minnesota, by the following parties: Henry H. Porter, $200,000; Ransom R. Cable, $50,000, and William Coffin, $2,475. Messrs. Porter and Cable were formerly stockholders in the Northwestern Manufacturing and Ice company, of Stillwater, and their suits are brought against Senator Sabin, the former president of the company, to recover damages for the loss of their stock arising from mismanagement of the affairs of the company.

Chicago. CHICAGO, March 21.—Suits were begun in the United States circuit court this morning against Dwight M. Sabin, United States senator from Minnesota, by the following parties: Henry H. Porter, $200,000; Ransom R. Cable, $50,000, and William Coffin, $2,475. Messrs. Porter and Cable were formerly stockholders in the Northwestern Manufacturing and Ice company, of Stillwater, and their suits are brought against Senator Sabin, the former president of the company, to recover damages for the loss of their stock arising from mismanagement of the affairs of the company.

Chicago. CHICAGO, March 21.—Suits were begun in the United States circuit court this morning against Dwight M. Sabin, United States senator from Minnesota, by the following parties: Henry H. Porter, $200,000; Ransom R. Cable, $50,000, and William Coffin, $2,475. Messrs. Porter and Cable were formerly stockholders in the Northwestern Manufacturing and Ice company, of Stillwater, and their suits are brought against Senator Sabin, the former president of the company, to recover damages for the loss of their stock arising from mismanagement of the affairs of the company.

Chicago. CHICAGO, March 21.—Suits were begun in the United States circuit court this morning against Dwight M. Sabin, United States senator from Minnesota, by the following parties: Henry H. Porter, $200,000; Ransom R. Cable, $50,000, and William Coffin, $2,475. Messrs. Porter and Cable were formerly stockholders in the Northwestern Manufacturing and Ice company, of Stillwater, and their suits are brought against Senator Sabin, the former president of the company, to recover damages for the loss of their stock arising from mismanagement of the affairs of the company.

CLEVELAND MAY DIE.

A Washington Physician Says the President Cannot Live Out His Term of Office, Unless He Takes More Physical Exercise and Ceases Overworking His Brain.

Senator Cockrell Means Business in His Departmental Investigation.

He Proposes to Sift All Pending Charges—General Washington Intelligence.

WASHINGTON, March 21. Dr. Z. T. Sowers, one of the most prominent physicians of Washington, in an interview to-day declared that there is danger that President Cleveland will not live through his term unless he ceases to overwork his brain.

Washington. WASHINGTON, March 21.—The new cable ferry was launched and put in operation yesterday, the ice in the channel, between the sand bar and this side, having been broken up to allow it to run.

Mail Weighers. ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 21.—E. R. Behm, H. B. Kerrill, H. H. Hanger, B. Waughal, G. W. Thompson and J. W. Keel have been appointed by J. E. White as mail weighers.

Manakato's New Hotel. MANAKATO, March 21.—The board of trade committee appointed to solicit subscriptions for the $5,000 bonus to the new hotel, report that the sum has been secured.

A Wedding. IOWA CITY, Ia., March 21.—Society circles were quite taken by surprise here by the marriage on Saturday evening last, of T. S. Balbridge and Mrs. Ida May Pryor.

A Bakery Fails. EAU CLAIRE, Wis., March 21.—The attachment filed some days ago against the Eau Claire Bakery company resulted in an assignment Saturday evening to W. M. Owens. The liabilities are placed at $100.

A Light Sentence. CHASKA, March 20.—Frank Seliger, who was indicted by the grand jury last week, charged with embezzling money from the Hamner, pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Edson, and the judge sentenced him to one month's confinement in the county jail.

Distric Sunday School Convention. ZUMBROTA, March 20.—A district Sunday school convention for Southeastern Minnesota will be held at the Congregational church on Wednesday and Thursday.

Taken Home For Burial. EASTON, Minn., March 21.—The body of W. H. Seaman, of Long Island, N. Y., who died at this place of consumption last week, was taken back to his former home for interment. It was accompanied by the daughter of the deceased.

A Fargo Post. FARGO, March 21.—A post of G. A. R., called John A. Logan post, was organized in Fargo to-night, with Gen. Tyler as post commander, and twenty-six members.

Fire Bugs at Fairbault. FAIRBULT, March 21.—The almost simultaneous breaking out of fire in two small bars Saturday night suggests the idea of fire bugs. No damage was done.

An Engine Explodes. EMBURY, Ia., March 21.—A portable engine while being operated on the farm of E. F. Perry, about four miles southeast of this city, exploded this morning.

Removing a Newspaper. HERMAN, March 21.—A. C. Belyea, publisher of the Herman Herald, has decided to remove his plant to Elbow Lake about May 1, where he will publish the Grant County Leader.

One of the Pullmans. HERMAN, March 21.—Rev. N. Pullman, father of Charles Pullman, of Hotel Pullman, and uncle of the Pullmans of palace car fame, has been quite low with affliction of the heart. He is over 80 years of age.

Alderman Nominated. NEW ULM, March 21.—At a people's caucus of the Third ward, Hon. J. C. Rudolph and I. Schwegler were nominated for aldermen; another victory for the Democrats.

MAY BE A NEW HORROR

Testimony of a Civil Engineer Regarding the Recent Railway Wreck at Rosindale, Me.

He Predicted the Accident Long Before Any One Dreamed Its Occurrence Possible.

He Now Looks for a Catastrophe on the Curve at Forest Hill Station.

A Large Number of Buildings Destroyed by the Blaze at Chautauqua.

BOSTON, March 21.—The railroad commission resumed their investigation this evening into the cause of the recent accident at Rosindale. Henry A. Powers, of West Roxbury, a civil engineer and formerly a superintendent of the New York & New England road, said that on the morning of the accident he found on the south abutment of the bridge a brake rod bent like a horse-shoe, with its points towards the abutment, and at the time he thought it might have been the cause of the accident.

THE CHAUTAQUA FIRE. ERIC, Pa., March 21.—A fire at the Chautauqua assembly grounds early this morning destroyed eighty buildings, including several large boarding houses.

A Photograph War. NEW YORK, March 21.—As a result of some misunderstanding between the Western Union Telegraph company and the French Cable company a gang of linemen employed by the latter company are now going over the route of the American Union lines from New York to the West.

On Trial For Murder. MORRIS, Ill., March 21.—The trial of Schwartz and Watt for the murder of Express Messenger Nichols commenced this morning at the county court house.

A Theater Burned. TROY, N. Y., March 21.—The Grand Central theater, corner of Broadway and Fourth streets, was destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock this morning.

The Lawton Collaps. NEW YORK, March 21.—Abraham Kling, counsel for a number of the creditors of the missing Walter E. Lawton, the guano magnate, made the first estimate to-day that has been attempted of how much the creditors will receive out of the wreck.

A Paymaster Robbed. WASHINGTON, March 21.—The attention of the department of justice has been called by the W. D. Norton to the robbing of Paymaster D. N. Nash of $7,400 near Fort Laramie, Wyo., and it is probable that a reward will be offered for the arrest of the perpetrators of the robbery.

W. H. Martin Nominated. PALESTINE, Tex., March 21.—The Democratic congressional convention, to nominate a successor to Senator Reagan, resumed balloting this morning.

Fighting a Cable Line. CHICAGO, March 21.—Judge Tuley granted a temporary injunction against the construction of the cable railroad in the North division upon the application of a contesting property owner. This throws 2,000 men to work on the road out of employment.

A Moonlighter Killed. DUBLIN, March 21.—The police fired upon a band of moonlighters at Tralee last night and killed one of them named Linehan.

Clery's Trial. NEW YORK, March 21.—The trial of Ex-Ald. Clery for bribery was continued to-day in the court of oyer and terminer.

Sentenced For Murder. BROOKLYN, Ia., March 21.—Andrew Brown, the colored man who whipped his six-year-old boy to death at Montezuma in December, was found guilty of murder in the second degree to-day.

A Horrible Accident. CINCINNATI, March 21.—John Rapp, an employe of the Grass-Elis chemical works, was nearly burned to death to-day.

The Buffalo. BUFFALO, March 21.—No more bodies had been found in the ruins of the Richmond hotel up to noon to-day, when the searching party was withdrawn owing to the heavy snow.