These lots will be sold either single or in bulk.

TEN blocks on Mississippi st, only $90,000. This properly presents unusual inducements to investors, occupying, as it does a commanding location and being especially desirable for all classes—good railroad frontage for manufacturers, (being traversed by two lines), having over 2,000 feet frontage on one of the most prominent business streets in the city, and lying high, with a commanding view of the surrounding country, making it especially desirable for rest dance puppe ses. The drainage is natural and perfect. Shade trees cover nearly the whole territory, and its convenience to the center of the city makes it one of the most desirable pieces of property on the market. Capitalists will do well to look this up. The blocks will be sold either single or together.

SEVEN lots on Thomas st., $1,000 each, $7,700; good lot corner of Dale and Ellen st., $1,500.
