little rooms partitioned off from the Army hall and Miss Brown was sorely grieved one day to see her brother and sister so far forget the religion they had avowed as to indulge in a violent family quarrel. The notice of the fire and investigating the case, found that Miss Brown's stories were true, and summarily discharged Capt. Seray and Miss Brown was transferred to Omaha and Capt. Chauncey, a husky-looking soldier from that place, stationed in St. Paul. When at the attendance at the Gospel army meetings was not largely composed of scoffers, the captain said: "Not much. We won't say, my scoffers in here. We fire them out."

Speaking generally of the army in the West, Maj. Thompson said: "We are succeeding everywhere, and especially at Omaha and Lincoln, N. D. At Omaha we have engaged the old Buckingham theater, and it is crowded every night. As the bishop said, we have turned people away. Miss Brown's friends and the souls there at the rate of five and ten a day. God bless her. In Lincoln we have a hundred converts in the last of January, and the citizens have become so thoroughly interested in the work that $1,000 has been subscribed for a new hall. The hall is being bought and will be erected at once."

A Female Notary Public Who Forgot Part of Her Business.

Since the law was passed last winter allowing women to become notaries public a considerable number have taken out the necessary papers, and are authorized to administer oaths, certify to affidavits, etc., etc., just like the men. There is one young lady who works in a downtown office who took out papers, and then went to a lawyer friend and got advice as to what her duties might be and how to perform them. Two or three weeks ago she called on her lawyer, and then went to a lawyer friend and got advice as to what her duties might be and how to perform them. Chaplain Brooks Says This is Responsible for More Criminals Than Run.

The pulpit of the First Methodist church was occupied last night by Rev. E. C. Brooks, chaplain of the Colorado penitentiary. Mr. Brooks delivered his lecture "In Prison Walls," interesting throughout and full of valuable teachings on the cause of crime and its prevention. Mr. Brooks reviewed his work among convicts briefly, and gave a glowing account of the progress, morally and mentally, of those with whom he has had to deal. The most hardened criminals, he contends, can be converted to honest men if properly handled. Speaking on the causes leading to crime he said:

TIPS FROM THE FINGER NAILS.

He who keeps his nails well rounded at the tips is a proud man. Nails which remain long after being cut level with the finger end are a sign of poverty.

ADVICE TO HUSBAND.

Never talk in your sleep unless you are sure what you are going to say. Don't be discontented. It is much easier to make your wife feel that way. Never tell your wife that she is a charming singer unless you happen to be deaf.

CHOKING CATARRH.

Have you awakened from a disturbed sleep with all the horrible sensations of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your lightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter? What a depressing influence it exerts upon the mind, and how it interferes with the ordinary functions of the system!

HOW MY SIDE ACHES.

From the back and the corner of the eye, a sharp pain goes up the spine and down the side, and the sufferer is unable to move. This is the result of a Catarrh of the Kidney and Uterine Pains, Strains, Rheumatism, and Weakness, Coughs, Colds and Influenza, and is cured by the use of Cuticura Anti-Pain Plaster.

Many of the members of the fire department were present, and several of the floral emblems on the casket were sent by them as a token of their esteem for the deceased. There were no formal services at the church beyond the reading of prayers for the dead by Father Calliet. The interment was made at Calvary cemetery.

Mrs. Doctor Baxter, wife of the medical purveyor of the army, has for a crest a lion's paw grasping a spear, and the motto "Virtuta non verbis."

The family of Ex-Secretary Frelinghuysen uses for a crest that has descended to them from their German ancestors, a stag surmounting a shield with three billets, and the inscription "Toujours vaillant."

Mrs. B. Charlton stamps her letters with the family crest, a unicorn erased, and the motto "Quarere revum,"—seek to find the rainbow.

Count D'Arsoch, of the Belgian legation has a most complicated crest, a tower of flame with stag erased, and a lion rampant.

Secretary Bayard's family use different crests for an emblem. One is a shield on which is a lion rampant, and another is a shield on which is a lion rampant.
