ELEGANT Residence

AND GROUNDS NEAR Summit Avenue Park AT AUCTION.

I will sell at auction on the premises, No. 251 Summit Place, on Wednesday, May 18,

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the very fine property at the above number, consisting of a finely-built residence of nine rooms and basement, and an exceptionally fine lot, 50x140 feet.

The residence was built under the immediate supervision of the owner, and neither pains nor expense were spared to make it a model home in every sense of the word; nothing but the very best of material was used in the construction of the building; and the result was a remarkably comfortable and convenient house; the grounds are handsomely terraced and command a full view of Summit Avenue Park, as well as the most picturesque portion of our city, and this view can never be obstructed. The terms will be made very easy. There is to-day no finer piece of residence property on the market, being convenient and central. The neighborhood is the finest, the property being in the immediate vicinity of the beautiful residences of Commodore N. W. Kittson, the Presley residence, D. W. Ingersoll, the elegant residence of Mr. Dickerman, now being erected at a cost of $35,000, and many others. To any one desiring a really fine home, this is an exceptionally fine opportunity. For further particulars call on

A. M. DOHERTY, AUCTIONEER, 422 Wabasha Street.

DRESS UP.

If we were asked what lesson nature teaches more than any other we should say that it teaches us to dress up. How beautifully the trees dress themselves in the vernal season--put on their spring suits, as it were. Wherever you turn the landscape wears its mantle of green, and the distant mountain tops are robed in fleecy clouds dashed into sunlight. Even the ocean depths, like a ghost, cover themselves with a sheet--of water. Everything tries to dress up except a raw recruit. Sheep sport all wool overcoats, and the timid hart pants.

Wild animals go about dressed in their skins, and even the birds have coats--in their stomachs. A swallow-tail coat is not affected by the society young man alone, for the anaconda will swallow tail, coat and all. Then get thyself a suit. Don't be like the man who knew no north, no south, no east, no west, but get vest, coat and pantaloons together, and be sure you buy them!
