and the owners of city property accordingly suffer. Not only are the demands not so great, but the time has gone by when people were willing to pay almost any price for an abiding place, because the climate of sudden growth has been reached, and instead of the railroad rate of progress, there must henceforth be only the moderate rate of progress by existing conditions and circumstances. It is not too much to say that Chicago's growth has ceased, but it is pretty surely so that her boom period has passed, even if the landlords can not recognize it. There could be no surer indications of the fact than the multitude of empty houses complained of.

In St. Paul the case is exactly opposite. Here the process of remarkable growth is still going on. It is, unless all signs fail, a distant point in the future when it will be checked, for the country tributary to St. Paul and Minneapolis is not so rich in resources as Chicago. The demand for houses, therefore, exceeds the supply, and hardly a single desirable residence is to be found vacant, while owners are enabled to exact rents almost twice that to be obtained in cities of equal size which have attained the maximum of their growth. The fact is a constant indication of the city's solidity and prosperity, and though it may be a stubborn one for the newcomer to face, people can hardly be blamed for accepting a large percentage upon their investments when they can get it, but no one will regret the time when the rush of capital into the city to invest in such profitable investments becomes so great that the percentage will be regarded as both reasonable and acceptable.

But even at high rents it is far better to have every house filled than to have many vacant, though the rental asked is low. The projected OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES hospital at Hudson, Wis., when completed, equals the plans it has been one of the handsomest institutions of the kind in the country, and the men who are behind the enterprise are just the sort to carry it to success.

THE GLOBE COOK BOOK. With many thanks to the good ladies all over the United States who have contributed more than 2,500 valuable recipes to the Cook Book, THE GLOBE COOK BOOK, published by the Globe, is now being filled, and no more contributions are desired. Until the supply on hand is exhausted, a page or more—400 to 500 recipes—will be printed in each Sunday issue of the GLOBE, as well as in the weekly edition on Thursday. Every lady in the Northwest should get a copy. The GLOBE will be issued soon after the discontinuance of the publication of the recipes in the paper.

TO-DAY'S WEATHER. WASHINGTON, June 7, 1 a. m.—Indications: For Michigan, cloudy; for Wisconsin, variable winds, becoming southerly; for Iowa and Missouri, southerly winds, fair weather and slight changes in temperature.

FOOLISH TUTTLE. Gen. TUTTLE, of the Iowa G. A. R., has succeeded in making a most egregious ass of himself. His intimation that President Cleveland should be visited in St. Louis at the time of the G. A. R. convention will be practically drummed out of the city by the insult to every veteran of the war. Whatever foolish TUTTLE's inclination may be, the soldiers who fought during the late war are altogether too courteous to treat a guest, even though that guest were not the president, with insolent disrespect.

JOHN SHERMAN. JOHN SHERMAN is, by all odds, the most interesting figure in American politics to-day. He is in no sense a colossal figure, nor will he ever be. And on the other hand he is a long ways from being a pigmy. Still it is not his size as a statesman or politician which attracts attention to him at this time. The peculiarity of his methods in attempting to corral the presidential nomination is what makes him most interesting at this time. This is not Mr. SHERMAN's first attempt at capturing the nomination. He tried it once before, but his signal failure was practically a rebuke to him for adopting tactics on this occasion entirely different from what he employed the other time. When Mr. SHERMAN was a presidential candidate before he was secretary of the treasury. He had the encouragement of his chief aid in the whole possession of the treasury, and he had the attention of his chief aid in the whole possession of the treasury.

AVOID THE WATER. To those who sensibly take advantage of the opportunities and seek the lakes these warm days, the temptation to go to the water is a strong one. It is a temptation to go to the water is a strong one. It is a temptation to go to the water is a strong one. It is a temptation to go to the water is a strong one.

TROUBLE FOR POWDERLY. It is to be hoped that there is no truth in the report that Mr. POWDERLY's enemies intend to make trouble for him at the annual convention of the Knights of Labor, which meets in Minneapolis in the fall. Or, if the rumor is true, it is not a very serious one. It is a report that Mr. POWDERLY's enemies intend to make trouble for him at the annual convention of the Knights of Labor, which meets in Minneapolis in the fall.

LAND TENURE. A correspondent, who evidently has a leaning toward HENRY GEORGE's land theories, takes exception to the GLOBE's editorial of yesterday respecting the "Land Doctrines of Jesus" and challenges us to show that he held views in accord with land tenure as it exists to-day. It is not too much to say that Mr. GEORGE's views are in accord with the national literary taste. They are indeed a nation of novel readers.

CHICAGO'S COMPLAINT. Chicago papers complain that hundreds of houses in that city are vacant and awaiting tenants, and are speculating as to the cause of such a condition of things. The reason is not very evident to the unprejudiced observer, but together with the fact that a very interesting contrast to the situation in St. Paul is to be seen in the first place Chicago property owners, having been educated up to receiving large returns for money invested in dwelling houses during the time the city was growing with phenomenal rapidity and the demand exceeded the supply, are unable now to persuade themselves to accept less. People are thus driven into the suburbs.

THE SOLDIERS' HOME. A Strong Plea for Its Location at Litchfield. To the Editor of the Globe: I notice in your issue of the 31st inst. that our comrades in St. Paul, in connection with those of Minneapolis, have at the eleventh hour, as it were, waked up in the matter of the location of the soldiers' home; and about the same time it seems to have occurred to them that they should show an optical delusion may be the air, but we are inclined to the belief that it is directly due to the inferior quality of Minnesota rot-gut.

Every lady in the Northwest should get a copy.

THE GLOBE COOK BOOK. With many thanks to the good ladies all over the United States who have contributed more than 2,500 valuable recipes to the Cook Book, THE GLOBE COOK BOOK, published by the Globe, is now being filled, and no more contributions are desired. Until the supply on hand is exhausted, a page or more—400 to 500 recipes—will be printed in each Sunday issue of the GLOBE, as well as in the weekly edition on Thursday. Every lady in the Northwest should get a copy.
