MARSHFIELD, Wis., June 27.—Fire started in Upham's lumber yard at noon to-day and wiped out the entire business portion of the city, including Upham's plant, consisting of a flour mill, grain elevator, sawmill, planing mill and furniture and veneer factory. All the business places are gone, excepting one store. Five business blocks and many residences are entirely wiped out of existence. About 1,500 people are without shelter and food, and are very hungry. The loss will aggregate nearly $1,000,000. It is impossible to give any particulars in regard to the insured as yet. The fire is fully under control now. Three children were suffocated in the fire.

MILWAUKEE, June 27.—Fire almost swept the town of Marshfield out of existence after the afternoon, and 2,000 people are homeless. The loss is not less than $1,000,000. All communication by wire is cut off and it is almost impossible to learn particulars. A locomotive spark started a blaze at noon in the lumber yard of the Upham furniture factory, and it rapidly developed into a roaring fire that spread toward the town. Insufficient facilities prevented any assistance to the flames and soon several flour factories, the business blocks along the main street and adjoining residences were wrapped in flames. But one store and a few household effects as they could and

A BURGALAR-PROOF SAFE.

Special to the Globe.
PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, Wis., June 27.—A second attempt was made early this morning to burglarize the store of L. Case & Co., wholesale and retail dealers in dry goods, clothing, groceries and hardware, but this time it was by safe blowers. They cut a hole in the rear door of the grocery department and by inserting the hand lifted out a bar and then pulled out the safe with a dolly. After getting inside they commenced operations on the safe by knocking off the combination and drilling a hole through the cylinder. Powder was put in and when ignited blew the door off and into the hinges and scattered it to such an extent that the fire-proof material was broken and scattered over the floor. After getting the front door of their plans were frustrated. The inner chamber in which the safe was located was lined with steel plate, and their tools failed to have any effect, although they tried the same process as on the outer door, this time by knocking off the combination and trying to drill through the rod attachment. From the looks of things about the office it would seem that the burglars got alarmed and suddenly left the premises. A sleigh driver and a chisel. The only booty they got was some silver change in one of the paper drawers. There is no clue as yet, but efforts are being made to ferret the matter out.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

The Causes That Led to the Report About the Sank Center Postoffice From Washington.
Special to the Globe.
SAUK CENTER, Minn., June 27.—Postmaster W. M. Tobie, upon being consulted in regard to the GLOBE's special from the postoffice department at Washington concerning the accounts of the Sank Center postoffice, which was reported to have been broken into by a party named Hendricks, said that he assumed control of the office on April 1, and would make out his quarterly report, ending June 30, and send it to the department promptly. He says he is not in any way to blame for the loss, as in his capacity as postmaster he has conducted the business of the office as usual. When the state auditor here in February last, that he made a complete settlement of date, and that the examiners charged him $105 for delinquencies in not having paid under protest. He claims the department had no right to charge it, when the money had never been received by him. This was the cause of his making a final report, which if allowed by the postoffice department, would leave him owing the department about $12. Othello, Wis., June 27.—The postoffice is now in good hands, and run in excellent state and business-like manner.

WAS IT A SUICIDE.

Probably the Man Whose Body Was Found in the River at Hastings Was Drowned Accidentally.
Special to the Globe.
HASTINGS, Minn., June 27.—There are some who are developing in the case of the man whose dead body was found in the river here a few days ago. It appears now that it could not have been a suicide, but was clearly accidental. The man arrived here Monday week from St. Paul, and with another man, Edward, who was with him, called at Finch & Son's drug store. The next morning he engaged as cook at the Gardner house, there being a vacancy. He was also engaged by the same party and was subject to fits; also, that he was a German and had been working at the Windsor hotel, St. Paul, and on the river. He was a very quiet man, and a brother in Memphis, Tenn., an unmailed epistle was found in his clothing making a proposal of marriage to a young lady, the name of the man being given. The name, J. P. Orchi, is believed to be the true one, although but little is known of his antecedents.

Injured by Dry Weather.

FARGO, Dak., June 27.—Interviews with a number of prominent farmers of this section confirm the report of great drought to crops by hot winds and dry weather. The wheat has fallen to low and small. W. Whitman, one of the best known farmers in the vicinity of Fargo, says: "There isn't half a crop of wheat so far as I have seen. Wheat, oats, barley or grass. I have never seen so poor an outlook for crops since I have been in the Red river valley." The wheat is clean, but the corn is not so good.

A Prisoner Recaptured.

WINONA, June 27.—Charles Dudley, the United States prisoner who escaped from the county jail here on Saturday evening, was captured at Muncieka last evening. Dudley secured permission to go to the county jail on Saturday night to accompany him to the barn, which was granted. The deputy had been watching him at the time, and when he was seen to escape, he was tracked yesterday afternoon on the Muncieka road, and at evening, when he arrived in town, was captured.

A Taylor's Falls School.

TAYLOR FALLS, Minn., June 27.—The school board of Taylor's Falls opened bids to-night for the erection of a school building. The bids were all rejected and a resolution passed to advertise for bids to build a new building. The building will contain seven rooms besides the basement.

A Heavy Rain.

ABERDEEN, Dak., June 27.—A very heavy rain visited this vicinity, lasting all the afternoon. Wheat was beginning to feel the need of rain, and grass was quite dry. Unless hail storms prevail, the wheat crop in Central Dakota will be unusually heavy.

Died of Heart Disease.

DRYDGE, Ia., June 27.—David J. Coughman, son-in-law of W. H. Peck, expired suddenly this morning with heart disease, which has affected him for years. He was out riding Saturday last in his usual health.

A Forest in Flames.

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., June 27.—A terrible forest fire is raging at Marshfield, seventy-five miles east of here, on the Wisconsin Central. This city was asked to send help and sent a steamer and firemen by special train.

Destroyed by Fire.

ASHLAND, Wis., June 27.—The lumber mill of C. H. Pratt of Minneapolis, located at Prattsburg, forty miles east of here, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning. Loss, $14,000. Insured for $7,500 in St. Paul and Minneapolis companies.

It Was Welcome.

FARGO FALLS, Minn., June 27.—A heavy and much needed rain storm passed over this city to-day, which will greatly benefit the crops. The visitors

DULUTH, Minn., June 27.—Umpire Brennan came to the front this afternoon and corrected a grossly committed game, which was won by the St. Paul team after the hardest battle seen here. In the last half of the ninth inning, when the score was a tie, a fielder went to first on a safe single on the first ball pitched, and was followed immediately after by a home run from Crooks, bringing in two tallies and winning the game, amid loud cheering from the large number of St. Paul people present. The weather was very warm and the crowd rather smaller than usual.

DULUTH, Minn., June 27.—Umpire Brennan came to the front this afternoon and corrected a grossly committed game, which was won by the St. Paul team after the hardest battle seen here. In the last half of the ninth inning, when the score was a tie, a fielder went to first on a safe single on the first ball pitched, and was followed immediately after by a home run from Crooks, bringing in two tallies and winning the game, amid loud cheering from the large number of St. Paul people present. The weather was very warm and the crowd rather smaller than usual.
