SEVERAL IMPORTANT DECISIONS Handed Down From the Supreme Bench.

H. S. Howard vs. St. Paul Plow Works, and a motion by plaintiff for preliminary injunction, were submitted to Judge Brewer yesterday.

The cases continued by the United States circuit court are: Charles Joy vs. P. H. Rahlly, Fuller & Johnson vs. John C. White, M. E. Fuller vs. J. C. White (three cases), Dennis P. Bloomer vs. John T. West. The last is continued by consent.

DISTRICT COURT. Burns & Shaw, carpenter contractors, have been ordered by Judge Albertson to foreclose a mechanic's lien for $108 on lot 7, block 13, Marshall's addition to West St. Paul, and to stop the claims of Frederick Hesse, her husband, William F. Bickel and wife, and Henry Kalman and wife.

Judge Wilkin gave the sheriff an order to take C. W. Keen, charged with larceny in the second degree, who was out on bail two weeks ago, but lately re-arrested, to Center City for trial.

E. P. Wilgus sues James Flanigan for $800 damages for driving into his horse and buggy on the trial of last month.

MUNICIPAL COURT. W. B. Rose pleaded guilty to the charge of forgery and was bound over to the grand jury in $500 bail. Tussie Palmer, the young lady friend whom Rose induced to pass the forged checks, is shown to be innocent and discharged.

Austin Haban, one of the gang known as the "Commercial street toughs," was held to the grand jury in $500 bail for the charge of carrying a dangerous weapon on East Seventh street last Sunday night.

J. Elms, a prisoner sentenced to fifteen days in the workhouse for disorderly conduct, escaped from Bailiff Patterson in the court room yesterday, and has not yet been recaptured.

Falling in with the Lizzie Filling with having attempted to assault her on Sibley street Thursday night, was given ten days for disorderly conduct.

John Johnson, a Norwegian bartender arrested on complaint of Minnie Johnson, a domestic at 222 East Seventh street, for seduction, pleaded guilty to his victim and was discharged.

AN ALIBI WANTED. The Voorhies impersonation case on in the District Court.

The Voorhies case took up the attention of the district court all day yesterday, Judges Wilkin and Kelly sitting, and the morning was consumed in getting a jury. During the afternoon the witnesses for the state were examined directly, and after the plaintiff rested Attorney Thompson placed Oscar C. Voorhies, the defendant, upon the stand without any formal opening to the jury. Following are the gentlemen serving as jurors:

Daniel C. Cameron, Andrew J. Bjorklund, James N. Bradley, Cyrus A. Clark, George Townshend, James Brodie, N. S. Thorn, Henry S. Johnson, J. J. Johnson, Henry Heine and William Fredericks. The witnesses examined for the state were: M. E. Ryan, J. P. Dismore, J. J. Johnson, W. F. Graves, B. W. Armstrong, J. J. Egan, J. F. Koutz, and J. J. Johnson.

The prosecution submitted as testimony to show that the property of Robert C. Voorhies, the defendant's brother, had never been transferred, a certified copy of the original and duplicate granted by the United States to Robert C. Voorhies, as alleged, and filed with the register of deeds of Hand county, Dakota. The mortgage and papers accompanying, which Oscar C. Voorhies, as alleged, executed to Graves & Vinton, and the check on the First National bank, were also submitted. Mr. Voorhies, who was called by the counsel for the defense on various grounds, but such an affidavit he filed after the trial, the object of the prosecution seems to be to lower the standing of the defendant in the eyes of the jury, and throughout yesterday's proceedings were more of the same kind. The defendant did not attempt even a cross-examination of any witness. Examination of defendant's witnesses will continue to-day. The defense will endeavor to prove an alibi.

FOOLED HER MOTHER. Mary Angevis Elopement With John Culbertson and Becomes His Wife.

Mary Angevis, the eighteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Angevis, living at 250 Alabama street, was in the municipal court yesterday on her mother's complaint, charged with inebriation.

The mother told the court that Mary had run away from home last Monday and gone to Red Wing, where she was located and brought back by her parents. Mary smiled and produced a big sensation when she came upon the witness stand and swore that she had eloped with John Culbertson and had married him John Tuesday at Trenton, Wis. Then Culbertson came forward and showed the court their marriage certificate, and there was nothing to do but discharge them. The young couple went out together and Mary's sorrowful old mother was left to find her way home alone.

PROSPECTS OF SETTLEMENT. The Contractors and Strikers Shake Hands Over a Proposition.

The strike is now practically settled, and the settlement is due to a very amicable conference held between officers and members of the contractors' and builders' board of trade and committees from the carpenters' and bricklayers' unions yesterday afternoon, which lasted until a late hour and was secret. Calm and reasonable discussion of the sides, and the agreement which has arisen out of the strike led to an agreement. Contractors Serber, Bassford, Green, Grant, Cox and Chapman voiced their sentiments to the contractors and President Maguire of the carpenters' union, and James Child, the new president of the bricklayers' union, presented the propositions of the workingmen. Mr. Maguire proposed as an agreement which both sides could meet that the strikers would go back to work until Jan. 1, if the contractors agree to a writing to establish nine hours as a working day's work for all building trades after that date. The contractors and carpenters shook hands over this proposition, and to-day at a general meeting of the entire contractors' board, an agreement in the form of a resolution will be formally drawn up and signed to this effect.

The workingmen they are united with this, as it insures nine hours for all the building trades, while no opposition is expected. In an action for the enforcement of a mortgage, the most prominent contractors have frequently asserted that they would favor nine hours all around for next year.

Minnesota Editorial Meeting. The Minnesota editors designing to attend the annual meeting at Anoka next Wednesday, who come to St. Paul or Minneapolis Tuesday night or by early train Wednesday morning, should bear in mind that the only train for Anoka leaves St. Paul on the Northern Pacific at 3:15 a. m., and Minneapolis at 3:45 a. m. The party will be returned by a special on the Manitoba road, leaving Anoka at 8 p. m. The tickets to Duluth will be good on the evening train of the 13th going to Duluth, and for returning will be good on any regular train during the remainder of the week.

Sunstroke Number One. John O'Connor, fifty years old, was sunstruck while working on a new building in South St. Paul Saturday afternoon, and died from the effects two hours later. Dr. Murphy, who attended O'Connor, pronounces it the first case of acute sunstroke he has ever known in Minnesota. O'Connor lived in Wisconsin.

GLOBULES. Bank clearances yesterday, $764,469.51. The First National company appears at the Seventh street museum next week.

John Mulcaire was examined by the probate court yesterday for insanity, and discharged. The Great Western band will give its regular Saturday evening concert at Rice park tonight.

The All-Fire tent shows pitch their tents at the corner of Ninth and Broadway next week.

Shobhins, nineteen deaths among mariners were bulletined at the health office yesterday.

A gasoline stove in the residence of J. W. Parker, 6 Pleasant avenue, exploded yesterday afternoon, and the fire department was called. Small damage was done.

John Swartz, the man who was arrested Wednesday for passing counterfeit money upon Ed McCarthy, was before Commissioner Johnson yesterday, and remanded for further hearing to-day.

A small barn adjoining J. T. McMillan's pork packing establishment on the upper levee was struck by lightning during the storm last evening. The barn was burned, and two of the five horses occupying it were killed by the lightning shock, entailing a total loss of about $700.

John Schreiner was appointed a special prothonotary yesterday to serve at law the offices of the Dayton Avenue Methodist church. The request was made by three trustees of the church, who complain that the church people are bothered by hoodlums.

The deed of recall of the appointment of Peter McMaster as the agent at Fergus Falls of the Dundee Mortgage and Trust company, Limited, of Dundee, Scotland, and the appointment of John W. Mason as such agent, was filed in the office of the secretary of state yesterday.

For want of sufficient evidence Commissioner McCaffrey yesterday discharged Mary Egan, charged with passing counterfeit money, selling whiskey without a government license. Miss Lane, it seems, found the incriminating a watch very convenient to the marshal's office.

Nels Johnson, a wealthy farmer of Christiesburg, Norway, called at the city yesterday. Mr. Johnson will spend a few weeks in looking over Minnesota, after which he will return to his home in Norway. The development of the West, as well as the character of the population, quite surprised him.

Articles of incorporation of the Cloquet Water company, of Cloquet, Carlton county, were filed with the secretary of state yesterday. The capital stock is $200,000, divided into 200 shares of $100 each.

The incorporators are the following: all residents of Cloquet, viz: J. Thompson, James J. McCullough, J. F. McCarthey, H. B. Olsen, William McKinnon, Albert Cox, Thomas Egan, August Peterson, James Goodnow and F. B. Poole.

There are three grades of certificates to be issued by the county superintendent. The first grade permits the holder to teach two years without examination; the second grade one year, and the third grade six months. The county superintendents have been in the habit of filling out these certificates for teaching notes and how long the certificates had to run. The attorney general has rendered an opinion, which says that certificates must, according to law, be filled out in full.

TWO WAYS Of Doing Business: Get all you can, keep all you get and sell out when you can get no more; or, Give every man the most value for his money that you can without loss to yourself, and build up a trade that will be an envy to your business rivals ten years hence who are now making a larger percentage on goods sold.

All people who have bought goods of us within the last twelve months are, we think, convinced that the latter is our policy.
