TALK OF LYNCHING.

The Jail Guarded by a Force of Deputy Sheriffs.

In addition to the large number of petty criminals in the county jail awaiting trial there are two rape fiends, Herbert Steffes and John Appleby. The latter was arrested yesterday. Steffes is the man who is charged with having assaulted Little Bismarck eleven years ago in North St. Paul. Appleby, it is alleged, attempted to assault little Julia Litoro, while she was caring for his baby at his home in the town of Chicago, near the corner of north and Second street the 1st day of July. Both men are extremely nervous and have expressed fears of being lynched.

The jail club will debate at its next meeting the question whether these cool evenings compensate the terribly warm days.

In Minneapolis, as elsewhere, nine of every ten persons who try to commit suicide invariably select the most difficult way.

While we were not seriously alarmed over the reports, said Deputy Sheriff Ege yesterday, "we did not intend to take any chances on the matter. Whether the men are guilty or innocent is not for me to say, but in either event they are going to be fully protected and receive a fair and impartial trial."

THE CHIPPERS IN COURT.

The Fruits of Saturday Night's Police Raid Presented Before Judge Bailey Yesterday.

The Curious Crowds So Morbidly Disposed That the Hypnotic Cure is Essayed.

A Great Day With His Honor, and Rich Fun For the Tiers of Spectators.

Women With Brazen Faces and Men With Iron Galls Appear on Dress Parade.

There were nearly fifty persons awaiting arraignment in the municipal court yesterday morning by the time Judge Bailey took his seat.

The most curious feature of the day was the appearance of a woman who had been arrested for a violation of the law against carrying a dangerous weapon.

The court was crowded with spectators, and the proceedings were of a most interesting nature.

The judge, in his usual genial manner, proceeded to call the roll of the prisoners.

The first case called was that of a woman charged with carrying a dangerous weapon.

The woman, who was dressed in a very becoming manner, appeared before the court.

ONLY CHANGES.

Queen Kapiolani Doesn't Think Hawaii has a Revolution, But Simply That a New Ministry Has Bobbed Up.

New York, July 11.—A. P. Carter, the Hawaiian minister, went down to the bay this morning on the revenue cutter Grant, which had been placed at his service, to meet the Servia. Mr. Carter boarded the Servia at quarantine and Queen Kapiolani and her suite were taken on the Grant and brought to New York. They landed at the foot of Twenty-third street, North river, and entering carriages were driven to the Victoria hotel. The royal party, which included in addition to the queen, Princess Lilienakalani, Gen. J. V. Domingo, Gen. P. J. Janka and Col. J. R. Boyd, reached the Victoria hotel at 12:30. After lunch the queen and her suite entered into a discussion on their future plans. The queen expressed a wish to return home as soon as possible, consistent with the health of other members of her suite. After a half hour's debate it was decided to stop only a day or two at the longest in New York. The queen, who had been inclined to return to her native island, was prevailed upon by the Hawaiian minister, which had been conveyed to her by Minister Carter, grew more cheerful and chatty after that. She said that she had enjoyed her trip immensely. She was received with distinction wherever she went and was particularly impressed with the health of other members of her suite. Regarding the troubles in the Hawaiian kingdom, the queen shrugged her shoulders and said that she put little if any faith in the reports so far received. Of course this was not to be taken as an indication of her opinion on the matter, as she had not seen the news of the Hawaiian revolution, which had been conveyed to her by Minister Carter, grew more cheerful and chatty after that.
