

NINE STRAIGHT VICTORIES.

St. Paul Takes Another Game From Duluth, and Minneapolis Wallops Eau Claire Again.

Oshkosh Wins a Game From La Crosse and Secures a Second on a Forfeit.

Philadelphia Triumphs Again Over the Present Leaders in the National League.

Boston, Chicago and Washington Score Victories—The Results in the American Association.

Crooks turned the tide in St. Paul's favor yesterday by hitting one of the most daring tricks known to the national game. In the seventh inning Cleveland had scored, McCauley was on third and Stockwell on second, while Pickett had been retired. Two runs were needed to tie the score. Crooks swung the willow and pasted the ball far out to center, but Jones caught it after a pretty run. McCauley ran home and Stockwell followed in the third inning to Quinn at second. Crooks did not sit down when he saw the ball was caught, but ran to first and was racing up and down between the bases when the spheroid was returned to Quinn. The latter tried to run Crooks down and Stockwell followed. The crowd gave three cheers for Crooks, and then it dawned on everybody how very ludicrous the trick was. The umpire became convulsed with laughter at Quinn's expense, and it was some minutes before the hilarity was sufficiently checked to resume the game. Both Crooks and Bryan were very hard hit, but their support was weak. Crooks, Quinn and Rourke each being credited with three errors. Without a word of comment on the part of Quinn, he had the time to accurately judge his throw. Pretty fly catches were made by Stockwell, Cleveland, Scheibel, Quinn, Sexton and Jones, and Pickett and Sowers each made a fine catch. Quinn and Jones pitched the last half of the ninth inning, Sowers having been tired under the strain of a game two hours and a half long. In the eighth inning several pieces of money were thrown to Sowers and Crooks. The crowd was inclined to kick against the decisions of Umpire Sullivan at times, but the latter was not disturbed by the manifestations of anger. His work was, in fact, of a high order, and he was really no good cause for finding fault with his decisions. The score is as follows:

LA CROSSE IN BAD LUCK.

It Loses One Game and Forfeits Another to Oshkosh.

Oshkosh, Wis., July 16.—Oshkosh and La Crosse played one of their postponed games this afternoon. Crook and Gastfield and Pyle and Hardie were the batteries. It was a fine exhibition of ball playing throughout. Pyle proved a puzzler while Crook was hit freely. In the ninth inning the visitors could have tied the score. Corbett, in the eighth, sent the ball for three bases and came home on Jevne's hit, after Halstrom was out. Jevne, though coached to remain on base, ran for second on a short passed ball and was put out. Pyle hit for a base and Scott went out to center. Had Jevne remained on first he could have taken a third on Pyle's throw and beat his way in before the ball could have been fielded in from center. The features for the visitors were Miller's work at short, the finest ever seen here, Dougherty at third and Scott at first, for Oshkosh McCarthy and Gastfield's batting and Shafer and McConnell's fielding. Following is the score:

JOY AT WASHINGTON.

The Senators Get Up to Sixth Place.

Washington, July 16.—Not since the Washington club has been a member of the league has its team succeeded in winning four straight games. This feat was accomplished to-day by outplaying the Pittsburgh team in a very interesting contest and thereby displacing Pittsburgh for sixth place. Score:

THE GLOBE'S PRIZES.

They Are Now on Exhibition at a Jewelry Establishment.

The prizes to be awarded by the GLOBE to Northwestern league players who excel in pitching, safe hitting and heavy hitting are now on exhibition at the jewelry establishment of Myers & Carpenter, corner Third and Wabasha streets. They are splendid trophies and need to be seen by the public. The rough edges of them printed in the paper give but a poor idea of their value or beauty. They are well worth the magnificent fight being made for them by the competitors of the league of the Twin Cities. The season is not yet over, and those who seem to be out of the race may by fine ball playing come to the front before next October.

THE RAILROADS.

Position Taken by the Interstate Commission.

General News Regarding Railway Matters.

Washington, July 16.—Counsel for the Missouri Pacific Railroad company having made a motion before the interstate commerce commission that it dismiss the complaint of the St. Louis Wholesale Grocers' association for want of jurisdiction in the matter, the issue of out-of-state jurisdiction has been declined to take up the motion, first, because notice was not given to complainants, and second, because its record upon the matter was not in conformity with the rules of the commission. The commission closes its files in the case, but will issue a paragraph of more general interest, as follows:

A practice thus to anticipate by motion the final hearing the commission did not think advisable, and would not therefore favor. It is the desire of the commission that the parties in the simplest form possible consistent with justice, and without dilatory motions, present their other evidence and proceedings, that the matter in question may be brought to an issue at the earliest practicable date, when a final hearing may be had, and all proper questions will be then entertained whether jurisdictional or going to the merits of the controversy.

An exactly similar disposition was made and for like reasons of a motion to dismiss the complaint of the Farmers' Alliance against the Oregon Railway & Navigation company, the complaints being of excessive charges for the transportation of grain to Portland. The Farmers' Alliance is well known for being on Oct. 4 next. The decision of the commission disposing of the complaints of the Dakota farmers against the Manitoba Railway is also being reviewed in respect to many of the matters which come before it in other than the usual STRICT LEGAL FORM.

but which, nevertheless, appears to have merit and to be brought in good faith. The substance of the complaint is that the company has refused to furnish cars last fall and winter and a fear that the course of the defendant will be similar the coming fall. The clubs wish to have the matter settled, and since the passage of the interstate act, and had no authority to anticipate violations of law or issue mandamus proceedings upon suppositions or fears. It says it might, with entire propriety, have advised the parties to wait until it was seen whether their claims were well founded. As it was quite possible that the fears might not be wholly groundless, it was deemed proper to send defendant a copy of the petition, that it might have an opportunity to be heard in its own defense, and to furnish cars last fall and winter and a fear that the course of the defendant will be similar the coming fall.

A NOVEL CASE.

A Girl of Twelve Years to Hang in South Carolina.

The Washington Officials After the Opium Smugglers.

New York, July 16.—The World's correspondent telegraphs that at Barnwell to-day, Judge Hudson sentenced Alexy Cherry, a colored girl, twelve years old, to be hanged on the third of September. She was the daughter of the infant of Amos Williams, of Allendale, Barnwell county. The child was sent by her mother to act as nurse for the Williams baby. She peeped around the house and attended to her duties in so negligent a manner that she had to be constantly scolded. After a soldiering one day she was discovered snatching to herself that she wasn't going to bother with that baby more. The young murderer seemed to have no idea of the terrible nature of her deed, and when she was sentenced she was hanged she gazed stupidly at the judge and grinned as she played with the buttons on her dress. As she was being carried to the gallows she saw her father and made an effort to go to him. She cried for the first time when she was told that she could not go home but to the Williams baby.
